PLNU Mission: To Teach ▶ To Shape ▶ To Send

Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service becomes an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we aspire to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Catalog Description: “Within the context of Christian origins, an overview of the canonical literature of the New Testament with special attention to its literary history and theological themes.”

Our particular BIB 1002 course attends to the historical contexts of authors and audience of the New Testament books, while highlighting the narrative details and theology of the individual books and genres. The long-term goal of the course is to provide interpretive resources for a lifetime of faithful Bible reading in service of Christ’s church.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of the course, you will be able to ...

1. Identify the historical context of the New Testament;
2. Articulate the unity of the New Testament in its canonical context within the diverse literature of the Christian canon;
3. Articulate and appreciate the ways in which the Bible, understood as given by divine inspiration, functions as the church’s central norm for Christian discipleship, faith and practice; and
4. Articulate the basic content of the books of the New Testament and the methods appropriate to the interpretation of those books.

REQUIRED TEXT

The New Oxford Annotated Bible with Apocrypha: New Revised Standard Version, College Edition; Edited by Michael D. Coogan, Marc Z. Brettler, Carol A Newsom, Pheme Perkins (5th Ed.; Oxford University Press, 2018). [Called “NOAB” in the syllabus]; ISBN 9780190276089

PLNU COPYRIGHT POLICY

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.

PLNU GENERAL EDUCATION MISSION STATEMENT

PLNU provides a foundational course of study in the liberal arts informed by the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. In keeping with the Wesleyan tradition, the curriculum equips students with a broad range of knowledge and skills within and across disciplines to enrich major study, lifelong learning, and vocational service as Christlike participants in the world's diverse societies and cultures.

PLNU ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

PLNU ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

If you have a diagnosed disability, please contact PLNU's Disability Resource Center (DRC) within the first two weeks of class to demonstrate need and to register for accommodation by phone at 619-849-2486 or by e-mail at DRC@pointloma.edu. See Disability Resource Center for additional information.

PLNU ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION POLICY

Regular and punctual attendance at all classes is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent from more than 10 percent of class meetings, the faculty member can file a written report which may result in de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation. See Academic Policies in the Undergraduate Academic Catalog.

Course-specific Policy: In this course, every session will include quizzes (occasionally other ways of assigning credit), usually at the very start of class, which will provide attendance records and incentive for timely attendance. Aside from ONE FREE EXCUSED ABSENCE, only absences with a Provost-approved excuse or a doctor's note will be eligible for make-up work. If a student misses a class session for a school-approved reason, s/he must notify the professor in advance and take the responsibility of initiating the make-up quiz. If a student needs to leave class for any reason before the end of the official class session, s/he will need to sign out and will not receive credit for the day's quiz (with very rare exceptions). It is still advised to take the quiz as a check of reading comprehension, even if the score is forfeited.

INCLUSIVE LANGUAGE

The School of Theology and Christian Ministry is committed to the equality of women and men. Recognizing that people have often used the English language in ways that imply the exclusion or inferiority of women, the school urges students, faculty, and staff to avoid sexist language in public discourse, in classroom discussion, and in their writings. Thus, terms like "man" or "mankind" or the pronoun "he," should not be used to refer to all humans. Instead "people," "humanity," "humans," and "he or she" better acknowledge women as full persons.

USE OF TECHNOLOGY

Students are encouraged to use technology, especially the Canvas site, for learning and communication outside of class. In fact, students should be checking their email daily to receive pertinent course-related messages. In class, however, the professor has banned the use of electronic devices, except by permission or in the case of specific need. (Contact the prof. for accommodations.) For the sake of optimal student learning, and knowing the distractions available with just one click, you may not use laptops, iPads, or any mobile phone during class.

FINAL EXAMINATION POLICY

This course's final exam is Tuesday, Dec 17, 10:30 A.M. – 1:00 P.M. Successful completion of this class requires taking the final examination on its scheduled day. The final examination schedule is posted on the Class Schedules site. No requests for early examinations or alternative days will be approved.

ASSESSMENT AND GRADING

This class is designed to guide students through the diverse and sometimes confusing collection of books that we know as the New Testament. Because reading the New Testament is the heart and focus of the class, daily class attendance/participation and frequent quizzes are the primary accountability tools for keeping students on pace with the assigned readings. Class lecture will focus on the history, theology, and narrative characteristics of the biblical texts.

Assessment Item	% of Total GRADE
Quizzes	30% = 300 points
Short Essay(s)	15% = 150 points
Practice Exams	5% = 50 points
Midterm Examination	20% = 200 points
Final Examination	30% = 300 points

Quizzes (collectively worth 30% of total grade), whether individual or occasionally group, will focus on significant characteristics, unique features, characters, and concepts in the day's assigned reading. Quizzes will be administered in class nearly every day, usually near the start of class (and should be expected daily; thus, most are not listed on course schedule below). Students are strongly encouraged to utilize the weekly Reading Guides available on Canvas. Quizzes will help students have an idea of the material and question forms that will appear on examinations. On the rare occasion that an assignment replaces a quiz, the score will be worth the same amount as a quiz. The student's lowest quiz score will be dropped. Extra credit will be available on many quizzes, but the student may earn no more than a 105% average overall in this grading category. [Fulfills Outcomes #1 and 4]

Short Essays (15% of total grade; 150 total points): Everyone must write the In-Class Short Essay on the Gospels on Tuesday, Oct 15. This essay will be open-Bible (only course textbook version: NOAB) and students may use handwritten notes (not Reading Guides). The essay questions will draw from class lectures and assigned Bible readings. The purpose of this course requirement is to allow students to synthesize information from their reading and lectures, trying out methods of biblical interpretation modeled in class. By articulating brief but supported answers to a question, a student will move beyond information repetition to analysis and comparison. Students will receive a list of general topics the week beforehand. There will be two ways to earn these 150 points. Students' scores may not exceed an average of 105% on the essays. [Fulfills Outcomes #2, 3, and 4]

- (1) Student writes required In-Class Short Essay on the Gospels and is satisfied with her/his grade out of 75; score is doubled, thereby counted out of 150 (e.g., 80% = 60/75 pts x2 = 120/150) to fulfill this entire course requirement.
- (2) Student writes required In-Class Short Essay, but wants to boost grade. In that case, the first Short Essay counts for only 75 pts. Then the student may write a second short essay responding to provided prompts on his/her own time using proper research and citation methods. (Prompt options and instructions will be announced around Nov 7. The finished essays will be submitted via Canvas prior to class time on due date; See Course Schedule.) The result is 75 + 75 = 150 total points possible.

Practice Examinations (5% of total grade; 50 points total) will use questions from actual exams, Midterm and Final, taken from previous sections of this course (modified slightly for online format). They will be available on Canvas in the week before the Midterm or Final Exams, respectively, for students to assess their learning and to practice taking the exams in preparation. If the student completes the full online practice exam before the actual exam, s/he will earn the full 25 points for each. [Fulfills Outcomes #1 and 4]

The Midterm Examination (20% of total grade) will be held during class time (See Course Schedule) and will cover the Gospels and Acts (with a few questions from the Apocrypha). The questions will be drawn from lectures, introductory notes from The New Oxford Annotated Bible, and assigned Scripture readings. The test will be comprised of some multiple choice, true/false, and (mostly) matching questions. A study guide will be distributed digitally at least one week before the exam. The student may earn no more than 105% on the Midterm Exam. [Fulfills Outcomes #1-4]

The Final Examination (30% of total grade) will cover the entire New Testament corpus and all materials assigned for class. The exam will resemble the Midterm, but will be larger. As with the Midterm, a study guide will be distributed at least one week before the exam. The Final will be held Tuesday, Dec 17, 10:30 A.M. – 1:00 P.M. See “Final Examination Policy” above. The student may earn no more than 105% on the Final Exam. [Fulfills Outcomes #1-4]

Letter grades will be assigned according to the following scale:

Points	Grade	Points	Grade
94-100%	A	73-77%	C
90-93%	A-	70-72%	C-
88-89%	B+	67-69%	D+
83-87%	B	63-66%	D
80-82%	B-	60-62%	D-
78-79%	C+	59% and below	F
