Class policies:

Academic Accommodations

The student is to file the necessary documentation for any disability and accommodation required. Student is to notify professor of any needs within the first two weeks of class. Please see the Disability Resource Center for more information:

<http://www.pointloma.edu/experience/offices/administrative-offices/academic-advising-office/disability-resource-center>

Academic Honesty

Any plagiarism or cheating will result in a 0 for that assignment or test, and the student will be reported to the proper disciplinary council. Please see the university policy:

<http://www.pointloma.edu/experience/community/student-life/student-handbook/student-policies-regulations/academic-honesty>

Attendance

For every absence after one “freebie”, student loses 10 participation points. The only excused absences are with written approval from the Provost’s office.

Oral presentation

Students will give an oral presentation to the class, approx. 10 minutes, based on one or more of the academic sources listed in our textbook. Thus, the student does not have to find their own source. They are responsible for reading an article in-depth to present the content to the class.

Tests

There are NO make-up exams. All scheduled assignments are offered for full credit on their due date, or for 10% points less each day they are late.

Research paper

Students will submit an investigative paper, approx. 5 pages, using academic articles and criticism in conjunction with the primary sources assigned in class. We will go over research databases and get help from the university library to ensure a solid paper.

Homework

Students will complete general comprehension and analysis questions, based on the textbook readings, via Canvas. Full credit will be given for thorough assignments turned in on time; a 10% deduction will be given for late submissions. There will also be reflection pieces to write based on films watched in class.

Grade break-down:

Asistencia y Participación/Tarea: 25%

Presentación oral: 10%

Examen parcial: 20%

Trabajo escrito: 20%

Examen final: 25%
