PLNU Mission
To Teach ~ To Shape ~ To Send

Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service is an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we strive to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is introduction to the theory and practice of public relations. This includes public relations roles, publics, research, media relations, social media, and an introduction to cases and campaigns of public relations. This course discussed the public relations for in business, educational, governmental and nonprofit organizational settings.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- Understand the key theories that underlie the practice of public relations.
 - Understand and apply the standard processes of the practice of public relations.
 - Work with a group to research public relations career paths.
 - Understand the role of values and ethics in public relations.

COURSE TEXTBOOK:

COURSE FORMAT:

Over the semester, we will study an introduction to public relations and current issues. In-class discussions and exercises will draw on readings from the textbook, case studies, and current events and require students to apply the knowledge learned in the readings to various activities and group work.

ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTIONS:

GROUP MOVIE ANALYSIS:

Description: This first assignment will help you to get acquainted with the group with which you will work for the remainder of the semester. In groups of 4-5, students will choose a PR themed movie. After watching the movie as a group, students will decide how accurate of a representation the depiction of PR was in the film.

Requirements: The following class session, groups will present their findings to the rest of the class. This analysis includes:

1. A brief description of the movie
2. How PR was represented
3. How accurate to the field the students believe the film to be
4. A group photo from watching the film together

Style Standard: Each student in the group must speak. Students may show one clip from the film if they so desire, but the clip must be no longer than 2 minutes. Groups have 5-10 minutes to present their film analysis to the class. Visual aid tools are not required but are encouraged.

QUIZZES:

Description: Online quizzes will cover the reading material that is to be covered by the following class session. Quizzes will be posted to Canvas and are due before class. Quizzes cannot be re-taken or made up if missed. If there are any University excused reasons for missing any specific assigned quiz, the professor should be notified before the quiz is due.

Requirements: Students must take the quiz on Canvas well in advance to its due time, in case of any Internet or technical equipment issues. The student is responsible for taking the quiz with plenty of time to contact the PLNU Helpdesk in case of any issues.

Style Standard: Non-Applicable.

CASE STUDIES:

Description: Over the course of the semester, we will have nine (9) case study analyses in class. Each of these will be graded (3 pts. each).

Requirements: Students must attend class on the date the case study is given in order to receive points.

Style Standard: Non-Applicable.

MIDTERM EXAM:

Description: The midterm exams will be in-class.

Requirements: Students must attend class on the exam date unless previously approved by the instructor. No exceptions will be made. Holiday travel plans must be made with these dates in mind Exams cannot be taken early to accommodate flights or train schedules.

Style Standard: The exam will consist of 50 multiple-choice, fill-in-the-blank, matching questions, and essay responses. The multiple choice, fill-in-the-blank and matching questions represent the other 50% of the grade. Essay questions will be graded for: insight, analysis, clear connections to course content, and a sophisticated writing style.

SELF-BRAND PRESENTATION

PART ONE: You must interview three people about how they see you. Who do they think you are? Write down notes from what they tell you for your PR "research" before you start to brand yourself.

These three people must include:

1. A family member.
2. A friend.
3. Someone who does not know you.

PART TWO: Based on these observations, decide how you want to “brand” yourself as a human being. Does anything need to change? Do you like how others see you? Create a short presentation (4-6 minutes) to describe how you want to “brand” yourself moving forward in the future.

PART THREE: Present your “brand” to the class via recorded video. Make sure you include the following in the presentation:

1. Your current “brand” (including your feedback from interviews and what your media consumption says about your tastes/who you are).
2. Three values you hold and/or talents you can use

3. A “mission statement” for who you are as a person/ who you want to be
4. At least one goal for your future

FORMATTING DETAILS: To create and present your brand you can use Google Slides, PowerPoint, or an online platform like Prezi. Please avoid Keynote. Get as creative with it as you want. Remember, you only have a few minutes to share with us, so keep it simple. To record the video of yourself presenting the final brand, I suggest you use LOOM.

PARTICIPATION:

This is a hands-on, student-centered course. Therefore, you will be graded on your participation. Those who are energetic, contributory, and consistent with attendance will receive a high participation grade. As contribution to and involvement with the class goes down, will the grade. Contributions to our roundtable discussions, guest speaker Q & A sessions, and group projects will be considered when calculating the participation grade.

ASSESSMENT AND GRADING

“F’s”.....are awarded for work that clearly does not meet minimal standards, or is not completed.

GRADE CONCERNS:

If you feel that you were unjustly evaluated on any assignment, please talk with me within 2 weeks after the assignment has been returned. An appeal is welcome by scheduling an appointment. Please come with a well-reasoned and written explanation of why the grade should be changed, and I will be happy to discuss it with you. Asking for an appeal and defending your case does not secure, nor imply a change of grade. If at any point during the course you are concerned with your overall class grade or other issues in the course, please feel free to make an appointment. I want to help you learn and succeed in this course.

STATE AUTHORIZATION

State authorization is a formal determination by a state that Point Loma Nazarene University is approved to conduct activities regulated by that state. In certain states outside California, Point Loma Nazarene University is not authorized to enroll online (distance education) students. If a student moves to another state after admission to the program and/or enrollment in an online course, continuation within the program and/or course will depend on whether Point Loma Nazarene University is authorized to offer distance education courses in that state. It is the student’s responsibility to notify the institution of any change in his or her physical location. Refer to the map on State Authorization to view which states allow online (distance education) outside of California.

INCOMPLETES AND LATE ASSIGNMENTS

All assignments are to be submitted/turned in by the beginning of the class session when they are due—including assignments posted in Canvas. Incompletes will only be assigned in extremely unusual circumstances.

PLNU COPYRIGHT POLICY

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.

PLNU ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

PLNU ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

While all students are expected to meet the minimum standards for completion of this course as established by the instructor, students with disabilities may require academic adjustments, modifications or auxiliary aids/services. At Point Loma Nazarene University (PLNU), these students are requested to register with the Disability Resource Center (DRC), located in the Bond Academic Center. (DRC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2486). The DRC's policies and procedures for assisting such students in the development of an appropriate academic adjustment plan (AP) allows PLNU to comply with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act. Section 504 (a) prohibits discrimination against students with special needs and guarantees all qualified students equal access to and benefits of PLNU programs and activities. After the student files the required documentation, the DRC, in conjunction with the student, will develop an AP to meet that student's specific learning needs. The DRC will thereafter email the student's AP to all faculty who teach courses in which the student is enrolled each semester. The AP must be implemented in all such courses.

If students do not wish to avail themselves of some or all of the elements of their AP in a particular course, it is the responsibility of those students to notify their professor in that course. PLNU highly recommends that DRC students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester about the applicability of their AP in that particular course and/or if they do not desire to take advantage of some or all of the elements of their AP in that course.

PLNU ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION POLICY

Regular and punctual attendance at all synchronous class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent for more than 10 percent of class sessions (virtual or face-to-face), the faculty member will issue a written warning of de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation. In some courses, a portion of the credit hour content will be delivered asynchronously and attendance will be determined by submitting the assignments by the posted due dates. See Academic Policies in the Undergraduate Academic Catalog. If absences exceed these limits but are due to university excused health issues, an exception will be granted.

Asynchronous Attendance/Participation Definition

A day of attendance in asynchronous content is determined as contributing a substantive note, assignment, discussion, or submission by the posted due date. Failure to meet these standards will result in an absence for that day. Instructors will determine how many asynchronous attendance days are required each week.

SPIRITUAL CARE

Please be aware PLNU strives to be a place where you grow as whole persons. To this end, we provide resources for our students to encounter God and grow in their Christian faith.

If students have questions, a desire to meet with the chaplain or have prayer requests you can contact the Office of Spiritual Development

USE OF TECHNOLOGY

In order to be successful in the online environment, you'll need to meet the minimum technology and system requirements; please refer to the Technology and System Requirements information.

Problems with technology do not relieve you of the responsibility of participating, turning in your assignments, or completing your class work.
