

Nutrition – Program Learning Outcome Assessment Map

OUTCOME	COURSE	ACTIVITY	MEASURE	CRITERIA FOR SUCCESS*	WHO WILL MEASURE	WHEN
PLO 1: Develop appropriate menus to accommodate nutrition needs for a specific life-stage population.	NUT 3035 (M)	Meal Plan Project : Develop menus to meet a specific life-stage population's nutrition needs. The menus based on ALL of the food needed by the defined group. You must examine not only WHAT is eaten, but also consider why certain foods are eaten by this population, whether snacks are necessary, typical meal patterns, etc.	PLO1: Meal Plan Project Rubric	70% will score 3 or higher	Cindy Swann	Every other SP  Assessed: SP20 SP22
PLO 2: Assess patient nutrition knowledge and design an appropriate plan for nutritional behavior change.	NUT 4014 (M)	Final Counseling Session Chart Notes : students will complete and submit the final (of three patient counseling sessions) ADIME chart note.	NUT4014 Chart Note Assessment Rubric	70% will score 3 or higher	Cindy Swann	Every Other SP  Assessed: SP20 SP22
PLO 3: Demonstrate an understanding of advanced nutrition	NUT 3065 (M)	Research Paper : Conduct original research project, including developing a hypothesis, literature search, methods, data collection and analysis, and reporting of results.	AAC&U Info Lit Rubric	70% will score 3 or higher	Cindy Swann	Every FA
PLO 4: Develop a nutrition education program for an underserved community group.	NUT 3030 (M)	Community Nutrition Display and Handout : Develop an education nutrition program for a target population to improve diet trends while considering societal, cultural, ethical, and financial dynamics.	AAC&U Critical Thinking Value Rubric	70% will score 3 or higher	Cindy Swann	Every Other Fall  Assessed: FA19 FA21
PLO 5: Develop and articulate a professional philosophy and personal code of ethics within the profession of nutrition.	NUT 4097 (M)	Professional Statements and Portfolio . Students will write: – Professional Philosophy – Their code of ethics – Complete professional portfolio	PLO 5 Rubric  CC's: AAC&U Written and Oral Communication Value Rubrics	70% will score 3 or higher	Susan DeCristofaro Rogers  Cindy Swann	Every FA and SP