PLNU Mission

To Teach ~ To Shape ~ To Send

Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service is an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we strive to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Private, applied instruction in piano is a vital part of the development of music majors, as well as an appropriate elective for many non-music majors. Each level of study has defined materials and technical masteries to be achieved. Students are assigned to a level according to their proficiency and mastery of materials listed for given level.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Attain mastery of technical exercises and etudes appropriate to student's class level and degree program stipulated in the Music Student Handbook, as demonstrated by successful completion of the technique portion of the jury exam with a grade of "B" or better.
- Cultivate technical and interpretive skills needed to perform repertoire from contrasting historical periods in accordance with the level and scope expectations (required number of pieces and duration) stipulated in the Music Student Handbook, as demonstrated by successful completion of the repertoire portion of the jury with a grade of "B" or better.
- Develop performance skills, such as memorization and stage presentation, through the application of practice strategies and creative problem solving, as demonstrated by satisfactory performance participation in piano forum and department recitals; successful completion of the repertoire portion of the jury with a grade of “B” or better.

* Students who are not required to perform a jury exam for the piano faculty will be evaluated solely according to the course assignments listed below.

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Develop applied music skills in one primary performance area in both Solo and Ensemble settings (for all music majors).
- Develop substantially more advanced applied music skills in a principal performance area (for piano performance majors).

REQUIRED TEXTS AND RECOMMENDED STUDY RESOURCES

To be determined by the instructor after the first lesson. You may borrow music from me for the first 2 weeks. You’ll need to order your music right away so you have it by the 3rd lesson. There will also be fees for any competitions you enter. Ordering from the cheapest place on the internet may cause unacceptable delays.

COURSE SCHEDULE AND ASSIGNMENTS

- Weekly Grade – The 2 components (1. Practice hours and days, 2. Assignment sheet) will be averaged together to create a grade for each lesson after lesson #1.
 - Practice hours and days
 - Each week at your lesson, you will report the number of hours and the number of days you practiced over the past week
 - You are expected to practice a minimum of 6 hours per week (per unit of credit), and 6 days per week. Upper division students will likely set a higher goal.
 - I will average the hours and days practiced with the goal set for practice hours.
 - If you are at the 356 at 456 levels, studying for 2 units of credit, you are expected to practice 3-4 hours per day. Together, we’ll set an individual practice goal for the semester at the first lesson.

- Your recorded practice time should be on assigned literature only.
 - Practice rooms are available by checking out a key at the music office.
- Assignment sheet – Together, we will create an assignment sheet at each lesson; in consultation with you, I will assign a grade for your progress on the previous week's assignments. I will email the assignment sheet to you at the end of your lesson (please remind me ☺).
- Memorization – Memorization is part of the pianistic tradition and is a challenge for all of us, even those of us who are professional pianists. Learning the skill of performing music by memory prepares you for any required degree recitals.
 - If you are studying for 1 unit, you will memorize 2 pieces (or 6 min. of music) during the semester:
 - The first piece (or first 3 min.) by week 8.
 - The second piece (or last 3 min.) by our last lesson (before finals week).
 - If you are studying for 2 units, you will memorize 3 pieces (or 10 minutes of music) during the semester:
 - The first piece (or first 3 min.) by week 5.
 - The second piece (or next 3 min.) by week 10.
 - The third piece (or last 4 min.) by our last lesson (before finals week).
 - If you are at the 356 and 456 level, you will have 1/3 of your jury literature learned by week 5, and 2/3 of your jury literature learned by week 10.
 - You will receive 100% of the earned score for the weekly grade if you choose to meet the memory requirements by the due date. If you choose not to meet the requirements, the grade for that week will be 50% of the weekly grade earned that week. Subsequent weekly grades will be 50% until you have chosen to complete the memorize assignment.
 - If you would like me to, I will complete a grading rubric for the piece after you memorize it, in order to show you the kind of feedback you will receive at the jury. Just ask me to do this.
- Piano forum – Forum enables you to perform and to hear others perform. It allows you to “try out” pieces, to test memory and to perform a piece repeatedly to gain confidence with memory and stage presence. I encourage you to perform often and to repeat pieces so that you can get comfortable in performing them.
 - We have Forum Mondays from 4-5 (see forum schedule)
 - You need to attend the ENTIRE CLASS.
 - You must attend 7 piano forums if you are a music major whose primary performance area is piano. Other students must attend 3 forums.
 - For every two of the required number of forums you choose to miss, it will count as a missed lesson
 - Music majors must perform on at least one forum.
- Performances - Performing takes practice to create confidence.
 - Student Recitals - Each music major must perform on a student recital once per semester in their major performing area. If your major performing area is piano and you choose not to perform on a student recital, it will count as two missed lessons. Please choose your performance dates at the first lesson. See dates on forum schedule.
 - Performances of Repertoire Pieces – Piano emphasis students should perform each piece by memory:
 - 3 times before a student recital performance, and

- 5 times before a jury performance.
- Be creative! Possible performances might be at piano forum, for friends or family or at an off-campus event.
- Competition/Community service – We are sent to serve and represent God’s kingdom and PLNU in our community. If you choose not to complete this service or competition requirement, it will count as a missed lesson.
- Competition - Piano performance majors who are sophomores or above MUST participate in a competition this semester unless this is your first semester of study in this studio. Other music majors whose primary area in piano may elect to perform in a competition or to complete the community service requirement.
- Community service – This requirement requires ½ day of community service in a music teacher event this semester unless you compete in a competition. Please plan two weeks in advance. Do not call the organizer the day before the event and expect to be accommodated; this is not professional and does not reflect the values of our PLNU community. The MTAC Sonata Contest will be on our campus November 13. This will be the easiest way for you to fulfill this service. Contact Lori Vickers to volunteer: 619-823-1441.

- The jury is Monday, December 12
 - If you are a music major whose primary performing area is piano, you are required to take a jury at the end of each term according to the requirements in the Catalog.
 - Important: Failure to take a required jury will result in course failure.

STATE AUTHORIZATION

State authorization is a formal determination by a state that Point Loma Nazarene University is approved to conduct activities regulated by that state. In certain states outside California, Point Loma Nazarene University is not authorized to enroll online (distance education) students. If a student moves to another state after admission to the program and/or enrollment in an online course, continuation within the program and/or course will depend on whether Point Loma Nazarene University is authorized to offer distance education courses in that state. It is the student's responsibility to notify the institution of any change in his or her physical location. Refer to the map on State Authorization to view which states allow online (distance education) outside of California.

PLNU COPYRIGHT POLICY

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.

PLNU ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

PLNU ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

PLNU is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all its programs, services, and activities. Students with disabilities may request course-related accommodations by contacting the Educational Access Center (EAC), located in the Bond Academic Center (EAC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2486). Once a student's eligibility for an accommodation has been determined, the EAC will issue an academic accommodation plan ("AP") to all faculty who teach courses in which the student is enrolled each semester.

PLNU highly recommends that students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester/term about the implementation of their AP in that particular course and/or if they do not wish to utilize some or all of the elements of their AP in that course.

Students who need accommodations for a disability should contact the EAC as early as possible (i.e., ideally before the beginning of the semester) to assure appropriate accommodations can be provided. It is the student's responsibility to make the first contact with the EAC.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT AND DISCRIMINATION

Point Loma Nazarene University faculty are committed to helping create a safe learning environment for all students. If you (or someone you know) have experienced any form of sexual discrimination or misconduct, including sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, or stalking, know that help and support are available through the Title IX Office at pointloma.edu/Title-IX. Please be aware that under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, it is required to disclose information about such misconduct to the Title IX Office.

If you wish to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting responsibility, you can contact Counseling Services at counselingservices@pointloma.edu or find a list of campus pastors at pointloma.edu/title-ix

PLNU ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION POLICY

Regular and punctual attendance at all class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent for more than 10 percent of class sessions, the faculty member will issue a written warning of de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation.

SPIRITUAL CARE

PLNU strives to be a place where students grow as whole persons. To this end, we provide resources for our students to encounter God and grow in their Christian faith.

If you have questions, a desire to meet with the chaplain, or if you have prayer requests, you can contact the Office of Student Life and Formation.
