PLNU Mission

To Teach ~ To Shape ~ To Send

Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service becomes an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we aspire to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Concert Band is open to all university students and performs a variety of wind literature for varying levels of musicians. The ensemble has many goals from exposing literature to future music educators to preparing high-level wind band repertoire. In addition to scheduled concerts and performances throughout San Diego, students participate in a ministry tour in the fall.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

- To develop a repertoire of music from the range of genres, styles, and grade levels
- To develop a ministry oriented program for the fall tour
- To prepare quality musical presentations for the general public
- To develop a sense of community through the creation of music

METHODS USED IN THIS COURSE

You will learn through active participation in music. You are expected to listen to reference recordings and properly prepare for rehearsals. It is your responsibility to check your email for updates and information.

REQUIRED TEXTS AND RESOURCES

Concert Dress (REQUIRED): The standard attire for performances is formal attire. We wear black and white. Please refrain from wearing items that take attention away from the ensemble and most importantly, the music.

Men – you need a tuxedo. This includes a black tux jacket, black tux pants, a white tux shirt, appropriate studs for the shirt, a black bowtie, a black cummerbund, and all-black dress shoes and black socks. If you need to purchase a tuxedo, you should talk to Mary in the music building for ordering information.

Women – you need to dress in all black, with black dress shoes. The general rule is that dress slacks are okay, but they must look formal. Tee-shirts and denim are not acceptable. Skirts/dresses are the preferred formal attire but should cover your knees while seated.

Music: The department provides music, pencil, and folders for each student.

Please understand that you will be responsible for replacing any missing or damaged selections.

Instruments: Students are encouraged to have their own instrument in good working condition. The department has a limited inventory of instruments av. Department instruments should be checked out through Susan in the music office.

Storage: Lockers are available for instrument storage and may be checked out through Dr. Mansfield or the building manager in the music office. The music building is highly used. It is your responsibility to secure all of your items inside your locker.

ATTENDANCE PHILOSOPHY

As a performance ensemble, you will be asked to commit to more than a traditional one-unit course. A lot of work is put into balancing the number of rehearsals and concerts we have in a semester. We depend on you to be at EVERY rehearsal on time and ready to play. The expectation is perfect attendance. Thus, we expect that you will not plan study groups, work, excursions, etc. during rehearsals.

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION (DEPT ADOPTED)

Students will be advised each term of the schedule of specific ensemble performance obligations they are expected to meet; missing a scheduled performance will result in 1-3 full grades lower (see Attendance/Participation Policy below). It is expected that the ensemble performances will take precedence over outside commitments. Students may only petition an absence penalty for circumstances that are beyond their control such as sickness and personal family matters. It is expected that the student will communicate circumstances immediately.

1. Ensemble grades are based on attendance, attitude, and achievement. Students are required and expected to perform to the utmost of their ability, displaying a professional attitude in rehearsals and concerts.
2. Absences due to illness or of a personal nature should be cleared with the conductor of your assigned ensemble. Requests due to personal injury must be accompanied by medical documentation. Timely reporting will help students to avoid penalties due to absence from rehearsals or concerts.
3. At their discretion, conductors may excuse students from rehearsals or concerts for PLNU activities.
4. At their discretion, conductors will have a choice of lowering up to three full grade for missing a performance event. For example, a missed performance for service club may only be docked by one grade while a spring concert would bring a grade down by three full letter grades.
5. Failure to meet the basic guidelines above may result in a student forfeiting their scholarship.

This policy above, instituted by the PLNU Music Department states the minimum requirement for all courses. Individual professors do not have the option of establishing a more lenient policy; they may, however, establish a more rigorous policy, which is to be described in their course syllabus. See Academic Policies in the undergrad student catalog for information on withdraws and drops.

PLNU ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION POLICY

Regular and punctual attendance at all synchronous class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent for more than 10 percent of class sessions (virtual or face-to-face), the faculty member will issue a written warning of de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation. In some courses, a portion of the credit hour content will be delivered asynchronously and attendance will be determined by submitting the assignments by the posted due dates. See Academic Policies in the Undergraduate Academic Catalog. If absences exceed these limits but are due to university excused health issues, an exception will be granted.

Asynchronous Attendance/Participation Definition

A day of attendance in asynchronous content is determined as contributing a substantive note, assignment, discussion, or submission by the posted due date. Failure to meet these standards will result in an absence for that day. Instructors will determine how many asynchronous attendance days are required each week.

ASSESSMENT AND GRADING

Two percent will be deducted for each unexcused tardy. Six percent will be deducted for each unexcused absence from rehearsal. Students are to notify me before an absence or tardy occurs so that the absence/tardy can be excused. There will be no penalty for excused absences or tardies.

Attendance and Participation	70%
Practical Assignments	30%

INCOMPLETES AND LATE ASSIGNMENTS

All assignments are to be submitted/turned in by the beginning of the class session on the day they are due. Late work will not be accepted. If there are any issues you know about that may prevent you from completing an assignment in a timely manner, be sure to discuss it with me before the due date.

PRIVATE LESSONS

One of the best ways to become a better player is to be actively involved in a private studio. Although music majors/minors, scholarship recipients, and performance award recipients may be required to take lessons; I encourage all students to consider joining a studio regardless of your major. If you have room in your schedule, lessons are a great deal. If your schedule reads "MUA000 audition first week" you have a holding line for lessons. You will need to drop that class and add the correct number for your lessons.

It is your responsibility to contact the appropriate instructor immediately.

USE OF TECHNOLOGY

In order to be successful in the online environment, you'll need to meet the minimum technology and system requirements; please refer to the Technology and System Requirements information. Additionally, students are required to have headphone speakers compatible with their computer available to use. If a student is in need of technological resources please contact student-tech-request@pointloma.edu.

Problems with technology do not relieve you of the responsibility of participating, turning in your assignments, or completing your class work.

FINAL EXAMINATION POLICY

Successful completion of this class requires taking the final examination on its scheduled day. The final examination schedule is posted on the Class Schedules site. No requests for early examinations or alternative days will be approved.

SPIRITUAL CARE

Please be aware PLNU strives to be a place where you grow as whole persons. To this end, we provide resources for our students to encounter God and grow in their Christian faith. If students have questions, a desire to meet with the chaplain or have prayer requests you can contact the Office of Spiritual Development

PLNU COPYRIGHT POLICY

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.

PLNU ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

PLNU ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

PLNU is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all its programs, services, and activities. Students with disabilities may request course-related accommodations by contacting the Educational Access Center (EAC), located in the Bond Academic Center (EAC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2486). Once a student's eligibility for an accommodation has been determined, the EAC will issue an academic accommodation plan ("AP") to all faculty who teach courses in which the student is enrolled each semester.

PLNU highly recommends that students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester/term about the implementation of their AP in that particular course and/or if they do not wish to utilize some or all of the elements of their AP in that course.

Students who need accommodations for a disability should contact the EAC as early as possible (i.e., ideally before the beginning of the semester) to assure appropriate accommodations can be provided. It is the student's responsibility to make the first contact with the EAC.

STATE AUTHORIZATION

State authorization is a formal determination by a state that Point Loma Nazarene University is approved to conduct activities regulated by that state. In certain states outside California, Point Loma Nazarene University is not authorized to enroll online (distance education) students. If a student moves to another state after admission to the program and/or enrollment in an online course, continuation within the program and/or course will depend on whether Point Loma Nazarene University is authorized to offer distance education courses in that state. It is the student's responsibility to notify the institution of any change in his or her physical location. Refer to the map on State Authorization to view which states allow online (distance education) outside of California.
