Required Materials

Internet Resources and Communication: You will be required to access this course on Canvas. You will also be required to access the Mastering Chemistry website (www.masteringchemistry.com) in order to do your assigned homework.

Scientific calculator: No cell phones may be used as substitution, graphing calculators are not permitted for tests or quizzes.

Course Objectives

Student Outcomes: The following outcomes are expected and will be assessed on exams and quizzes:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of fundamental principles of atomic structure, bonding, acids and bases, oxidation and reduction, and basic nomenclature
2. Demonstrate knowledge of fundamentals of nuclear chemistry
3. Demonstrate knowledge of key terminology in organic chemistry and biochemistry.
4. Demonstrate knowledge of key concepts in air and water quality as well as energy production and consumption.
5. Perform research on a topic and make a presentation intended to teach others about the key concepts.

FE learning outcome 5 will be assessed in this course using student performance on problems that are quantitative in nature on the comprehensive final exam.

Grading Policies

Course Grade: Your overall course grade will be based on your performance in the lecture. The weighting of each course activity is shown below.

Homework	10%
Class Participation	5%
Christian Practice	5%
Quizzes	10%
Exams	35%
Final	20%
Group Project	15%

Letter grades will be assigned at the end of the course based on your percentage of total possible points, according to the following APPROXIMATE scale:

A	90 – 100%
B	80 – 90%
C	70 – 80%
D	60 – 70%
NC/F	< 60%

(+) and (-) grades will be assigned within each bracket. (There is no A+ grade.)

Assignments

Mastering Chemistry Homework: You will be assigned a set of homework for every chapter to be completed online at the Mastering Chemistry website. Due dates for each assignment generally fall a week or 2 after lecture completion. A late penalty of 1% per hour past the due date will be enforced. You will have the chance to retake each assignment 3 times, and will have 5 attempts per question, with optional hints. The online homework will count for 10% of your overall course grade. Register at www.masteringchemistry.com with the course ID schmidt07635.

Group Work: We will also have a group project. Group work will count for 10% of your overall course grade.

Participation: We will also have periodical in-class work. Turning in these assignments will merit full points. These will not be graded, but used by me to assess class knowledge as a whole as we progress through the semester, so please try all problems even if you think you are wrong. This work will count for 5% of your overall course grade.

Christian Practice: You will be assigned to a group at the beginning of the semester and you will be asked to pray for members of the group throughout the semester.

You will meet as a group at least three times during the semester outside of class time with the first meeting occurring in the first two weeks of class. You will be required to fill out a log that includes the times you met as a group, the times you have prayed for group members, as well as times that you have encouraged a classmate or helped them in some way. You will hand in this log at the end of the semester and will be required to have at least 10 entries total with entries from at least two of the three categories (prayer, encouragement, and help) in addition to the three group meetings. This log will count for 90 points. In addition, you will be required to write a brief reflection on the overall assignment. This will also be worth 10 points. This Christian practice, love of neighbor, assignment will be worth 5% of your overall course grade.

Quizzes: There will be three quizzes given over the course of the semester. These quizzes can take on different forms, which may include but are not limited to the following: take home, in-class, or in-class open notes. These quizzes will count for 10% of your overall course grade.

Exams: Exams will cover material in the text and the lecture material as well as any other assigned material. There will be 3 major exams worth 100 points each. These will count for 35% of your overall course grade. There will be no exam scores dropped. If you are caught cheating, I reserve the right to assign you a zero on that quiz or exam, and you could be subject to further action as stated in university policy. Makeup examinations will be given only for excused absences provided the appropriate documentation is provided. You should make sure to contact me before your scheduled exam time. If you are unable to call me then have your roommate, parents, etc. make the contact for you. If you find that there are errors in the grading of your exam, you should come by my office as soon as possible.

Final Exam: A mandatory, 150 point final exam will be given at the time dictated by the University schedule. The final will be comprehensive over the entirety of the course. The final will count for 15% of your overall course grade.

Academic Accommodations

PLNU is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all its programs, services, and activities. Students with disabilities may request course-related accommodations by contacting the Educational Access Center (EAC), located in the Bond Academic Center (EAC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2486). Once a student's eligibility for an accommodation has been determined, the EAC will issue an academic accommodation plan ("AP") to all faculty who teach courses in which the student is enrolled each semester.

PLNU highly recommends that students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester/term about the implementation of their AP in that particular course and/or if they do not wish to utilize some or all of the elements of their AP in that course.

Students who need accommodations for a disability should contact the EAC as early as possible (i.e., ideally before the beginning of the semester) to assure appropriate accommodations can be provided. It is the student's responsibility to make the first contact with the EAC.

Attendance

Attendance will be taken during class and will be used for advising purposes. If your absence is not excused, then you will get a zero for any group work done on that day. Regular and punctual attendance at all class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent for more than 10 percent of class sessions, the faculty member will issue a written warning of de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation.

Academic Honesty

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

State authorization is a formal determination by a state that Point Loma Nazarene University is approved to conduct activities regulated by that state. In certain states outside California, Point Loma Nazarene University is not authorized to enroll online (distance education) students. If a student moves to another state after admission to the program and/or enrollment in an online course, continuation within the program and/or course will depend on whether Point Loma Nazarene University is authorized to offer distance education courses in that state. It is the student's responsibility to notify the institution of any change in his or her physical location.
