PLNU Mission

To Teach ~ To Shape ~ To Send

Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service is an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we strive to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

General Education Mission

PLNU provides a foundational course of study in the liberal arts informed by the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. In keeping with the Wesleyan tradition, the curriculum equips students with a broad range of knowledge and skills within and across disciplines to enrich major study, lifelong learning, and vocational service as Christ-like participants in the world's diverse societies and cultures.

Course Description From Catalog

Within the context of the history of Israel, an overview of the literature of the Old Testament with special attention to its literary history and theological themes.

This course is designed to open a conversation (that will hopefully last a lifetime) about the Old Testament (also known as the Hebrew Bible). The class provides an introduction to (1) the literature/content of the Old Testament in its social, historical, literary, and theological contexts; and (2) the critical study of the Old Testament. Along these lines, this course is designed as a journey, which serves to introduce the student to the basic content of the divine-human drama that unfolds within the pages of the Bible and to equip the student with the foundational tools and skills to continue the dialogue with that drama throughout his or her life.

Cognitive development will be encouraged through textbook readings, classroom discussions/lectures, and periodic examinations. Social development will be encouraged through small group discussions and exercises as well as through the relating of biblical concepts to contemporary social issues. Spiritual development will be encouraged through a dialogue with the dynamic faith of the Christian Scripture, a faith that grew out of the community of believers and continues to challenge and shape that community in contemporary settings.

Course Learning Outcomes

The student who successfully completes this course will be able to:

- Identify the historical contexts of the Old Testament.
- Articulate the unity of the Old Testament in its canonical context within the diverse literature of the Christian canon.
- Articulate and appreciate the ways in which the Bible, understood as given by divine inspiration, functions as the church's central norm for Christian discipleship, faith and practice.

(Most updated syllabus and info can always be found on Canvas.)

- Articulate the basic content of the books of the Old Testament and the methods appropriate to the interpretation of those books.
- Ability to identify the literary structure, the theological concepts and main storyline of the Old Testament.

Required Texts/Course Texts

1. The New Interpreter's Study Bible (NRSV). Nashville: Abingdon, 2003
2. Brad E. Kelle, Telling the Old Testament Story: God's Mission and God's People (Nashville: Abingdon, 2017), <https://pointloma.on.worldcat.org/oclc/995162563>.

Overview of Course Requirements

- Canvas Announcements: Be sure to turn on Canvas notifications for Announcements for this course. This is the #1 way important information will be pushed to students outside of class.

- Class Participation and Attendance: In this abbreviated, quick-moving journey through the story of the OT, class attendance is a necessity for academic achievement.

Attendance Log: Giving false information on the daily roll sheet is an act of cheating that is equal to cheating on an exam. It will subject the student to the academic dishonesty penalties of the university.

More than 2 (unapproved and unexcused) absences will impact "Attendance and Participation" points. 4 or more absences can result in a complete grade drop or more.

In addition to the Attendance Log, class attendance may be logged via a simple assignment. When this happens, the expectations will be communicated and put in writing.

Late Arrivals: Out of respect to peers who arrive on time to class, arriving more than 5 minutes late will equal half an absence.

Participation: In addition, each student is expected to participate in class. Throughout this course students will work to articulate their thoughts, ideas, and questions around the Bible — particularly the Old Testament (OT). Points will be given to students who demonstrate a willingness to participate in dialogue in groups, discussion, or in written form. In general, students will need to demonstrate they are engaged in the course and course work.

Laptops/iPads: Laptops and iPads are allowed in class, however, students are being asked to demonstrate integrity as it pertains to how they engage those devices. Class time should be focused on the content being presented and discussion being had.

Earbuds and Headphones: Earbuds (AirPods) and headphones are not allowed to be in students' ears during class. If a student chooses to keep headphones in they will be automatically marked as absent for the day.

- Reflection Papers [Upload these on Canvas.]

All three papers will be graded based on the student describing their thoughts, feelings, and experiences around the OT— not right or wrong answers. The point of these papers is for students to share their perspective, learnings, and questions openly — papers should reflect how the student is thinking, processing, and reflecting on the topic and material presented in this course. The larger point of these papers is for the professor to hear where students are on these topics, and for students to take the time to process and articulate where they are on these topics.

- Introduction Reflection Paper [60 Points]: Each student will write a 300-word paper describing their experience and ideas around the OT. Include two relevant questions you have about the OT.
- Midterm Reflection Paper [60 Points]: In addition to a more traditional midterm exam, students will write a 300-word paper describing how they are coming to value and gain insight in the OT. Ongoing struggles with the OT can also be included here. Each student must include two relevant questions they have about the OT in this paper. The point of this paper is that students demonstrate some of what they have learned through this course, and that they can articulate some degree of an evolving and/or engaged relationship with the OT.

- Closing Reflection Paper [60 Points]: Students will write a 300-word paper describing (1) why the OT matters to a modern person of faith and (2) how they would suggest someone should read the OT if they are exploring their faith or wanting to learn more about the Christian tradition. Students are to include one or two ongoing questions they are wrestling with regarding the OT. Students can share how they are still struggling to engage in the OT, as well.

- Readings: All readings are required to be completed before coming to class. It is important to keep up with the readings on a session-by-session basis or the information will quickly become overwhelming.

The OT is the primary text for this course.

Questions around the readings will be included in quizzes and exams for points. But equally important, many OT stories will not be recapped in class so an extensive amount of OT content will be missed if students do not read.

- Quizzes: A part of the student's grade comes from quizzes.

Quizzes will come from readings and lectures. With the exception of the Midterm and Final Exam, quiz content will focus on the readings and lectures covered since the previous quiz.

Quizzes are open book/open note and timed, and will be available on Canvas. Students are not allowed to use the internet to answer questions during a quiz or exam.

- Midterm Exam: The midterm exam will cover various reading assignments and associated class lectures through the first quad. This exam will be open book/open note and timed, and will be available on Canvas. Students are not allowed to use the internet to answer questions during a quiz or exam. This exam is taken outside of class.
- Group Work / Group Presentation on OT Book: The major instance of group work will be that each student will participate in an assigned small group and make a class presentation on an assigned book from the OT (groups and books will be assigned in class).

The presentation should be 12 minutes in length and follow the instructions on the last page of this syllabus. Each group member will receive the same grade for the presentation. Tentative due dates are listed on the course schedule, and confirmed dates will be clearly listed in class and Canvas.

- Signature Assignment (Theological Paper): Students will engage Old Testament texts noting the theological importance in scripture and in as it pertains to Christian discipleship, faith and practice, citing Scripture responsibly. More detailed instructions will be given in the course and listed on Canvas.
- Final Exam: As the culmination to the semester, there will be a final, comprehensive exam. It will cover all the material from the previous quizzes and the main ideas from the entire course. Content will be reviewed in class. The final exam will take place in the classroom on the scheduled day and time for the class's final exam according to the university's final exam schedule. Students must bring their laptops to class on the day of the final.

Assignment and Grading

- 180 points (60 each): Reflection Papers
- 160 Points: Signature Assignment (Theological Paper)
- 180 Points (60 each): 3 Quizzes
- 80 Points: Midterm Exam

(Most updated syllabus and info can always be found on Canvas.)

- 150 Points: Group Presentation
- 150 Points: Attendance and Participation [See details above.]
- 100 Points: Final Exam

Late Work: While some late work will be accepted, all late work will result in a loss of points. (See Canvas assignments for details and “Incomplete and Late Assignments” below.)

Grades will be based on the following:

Standard Grade Scale Based on Percentages

A	B	C	D	F
A 930-1000	B+ 870-890	C+ 770-790	D+ 670-690	F Less than 590
A- 900-920	B 830-860	C 730-760	D 630-660
	B- 800-820	C- 700-720	D- 600-620

Final Examination Policy

Successful completion of this class requires taking the final examination on its scheduled day. The final examination schedule is posted on the Traditional Undergraduate Records: Final Exam Schedules site. If you find yourself scheduled for three (3) or more final examinations on the same day, you are authorized to contact each professor to arrange a different time for one of those exams. However, unless you have three (3) or more exams on the same day, no requests for alternative final examinations will be granted.

State Authorization

State authorization is a formal determination by a state that Point Loma Nazarene University is approved to conduct activities regulated by that state. In certain states outside California, Point Loma Nazarene University is not authorized to enroll online (distance education) students. If a student moves to another state after admission to the program and/or enrollment in an online course, continuation within the program and/or course will depend on whether Point Loma Nazarene University is authorized to offer distance education courses in that state. It is the student’s responsibility to notify the institution of any change in his or her physical location. Refer to the map on State Authorization to view which states allow distance education outside California.

Incomplete and Late Assignments

All assignments are to be submitted/turned in by the beginning of the class session when they are due—including assignments posted in Canvas. Incompletes will only be assigned in extremely unusual circumstances.

Grace Period: If the student “forgets” or otherwise misses an assignment, they may submit it up to one week after the due date for no more than half credit. No assignment will be accepted for credit of any kind more than one week after the original due date.

PLNU Copyright Policy

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.]

PLNU Recording Notification

In order to enhance the learning experience, please be advised that this course may be recorded by the professor for educational purposes, and access to these recordings will be limited to enrolled students and authorized personnel.

(Most updated syllabus and info can always be found on Canvas.)

Note that all recordings are subject to copyright protection. Any unauthorized distribution or publication of these recordings without written approval from the University (refer to the Dean) is strictly prohibited.

PLNU Academic Honesty Policy

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. For all student appeals, faculty and students should follow the procedures outlined in the University Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

Artificial Intelligence (AI) Policy

The use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) tools (e.g., ChatGPT, iA Writer, Marmot, Botowski, GrammarlyGo, Perplexity, etc.) is prohibited in this course for any aspect of your work, including idea generation, drafting, editing, or final submissions. This course is designed to assess your independent critical thinking, writing, and research skills without the assistance of AI technologies. Violations of this policy will be treated as breaches of academic integrity.

PLNU Academic Accommodations Policy

PLNU is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all its programs, services, and activities in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Students with disabilities may request course-related accommodations by contacting the Educational Access Center (EAC), located in the Bond Academic Center (EAC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2533). Once a student's eligibility for an accommodation has been determined, the EAC will work with the student to create an Accommodation Plan (AP) that outlines allowed accommodations. Professors are able to view a student's approved accommodations through Accommodate.

PLNU highly recommends that students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester/term about the implementation of their AP in that particular course. Accommodations are not retroactive so clarifying with the professor at the outset is one of the best ways to promote positive academic outcomes.

Students who need accommodations for a disability should contact the EAC as early as possible (i.e., ideally before the beginning of the semester) to assure appropriate accommodations can be provided. It is the student's responsibility to make the first contact with the EAC. Students cannot assume that because they had accommodations in the past, their eligibility at PLNU is automatic. All determinations at PLNU must go through the EAC process. This is to protect the privacy of students with disabilities who may not want to disclose this information and are not asking for any accommodations.

Sexual Misconduct and Discrimination

In support of a safe learning environment, if you (or someone you know) have experienced any form of sexual discrimination or misconduct, including sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, or stalking, know that accommodations and resources are available through the Title IX Office at pointloma.edu/Title-IX. Please be aware that under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, faculty and staff are required to disclose information about such misconduct to the Title IX Office.

If you wish to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting responsibility, you can contact Counseling Services at counselingservices@pointloma.edu or find a list of campus pastors at pointloma.edu/title-ix.

If you (or someone you know) have experienced other forms of discrimination or bias, you can find more information on reporting and resources at www.pointloma.edu/bias

PLNU Attendance and Participation Policy

(Most updated syllabus and info can always be found on Canvas.)

Regular and punctual attendance at all class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent for more than 10 percent of class sessions, the faculty member will issue a written warning of de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university withdrawal date or, after that date, receive an “F” grade.

Language and Belonging

Point Loma Nazarene University faculty are committed to helping create a safe and hospitable learning environment for all students. As Christian scholars we are keenly aware of the power of language and believe in treating others with dignity. As such, it is important that our language be equitable, inclusive, and prejudice free. Inclusive/Bias-free language is the standard outlined by all major academic style guides, including MLA, APA, and Chicago, and it is the expected norm in university-level work. Good writing and speaking do not use unsubstantiated or irrelevant generalizations about personal qualities such as age, disability, economic class, ethnicity, marital status, parentage, political or religious beliefs, race, gender, sex, or sexual orientation. Inclusive language also avoids using stereotypes or terminology that demeans persons or groups based on age, disability, class, ethnicity, gender, race, language, or national origin. Respectful use of language is particularly important when referring to those outside of the religious and lifestyle commitments of those in the PLNU community. By working toward precision and clarity of language, we mark ourselves as serious and respectful scholars, and we model the Christ-like quality of hospitality.

If you (or someone you know) have experienced other forms of discrimination, you can find more information on reporting and resources at www.pointloma.edu/nondiscrimination.

Spiritual Care

Please be aware PLNU strives to be a place where you grow as whole persons. To this end, we provide resources for our students to encounter God and grow in their Christian faith. If students have questions, a desire to meet with the chaplain or have prayer requests you can contact the Office of Spiritual Development.

Use of Technology

In order to be successful in the online environment, you'll need to meet the minimum technology and system requirements; please refer to the Technology and System Requirements information. Additionally, students are required to have headphone speakers compatible with their computer available to use. If a student is in need of technological resources please contact student-tech-request@pointloma.edu.

Problems with technology do not relieve you of the responsibility of participating, turning in your assignments, or completing your class work.

Content Warning

I acknowledge that each of you comes to PLNU with your own unique life experiences. This contributes to the way you perceive various types of information. In Old Testament History and Religion, all of the class content, including that which may be intellectually or emotionally challenging, has been intentionally curated to achieve the learning goals for this course. The decision to include such material is not taken lightly. If you encounter a topic that is intellectually challenging for you, it can manifest in feelings of discomfort and upset. In response, I encourage you to come talk to me or your friends or family about it. Class topics are discussed for the sole purpose of expanding your intellectual engagement in the area of theology, and I will support you throughout your learning in this course.

Trigger Warning

I acknowledge that each of you comes to PLNU with your own unique life experiences. This contributes to the way you perceive several types of information. In Old Testament History and Religion, we will cover a variety of topics, some of which you may find triggering. The experience of being triggered versus intellectually challenged are different. The main difference is that an individual must have experienced trauma to experience being triggered, whereas an intellectual challenge has nothing to do with trauma. If you are a trauma survivor and encounter a topic in this class that is triggering for you, you may feel overwhelmed or panicked and find it difficult to concentrate. In response, I encourage you to take the necessary steps for your emotional safety. This may include leaving class while the topic is discussed or talking to a therapist at the Counseling Center. Should you choose to sit out on discussion of a certain topic, know that you are still responsible for the material; but we can discuss if there are other methods for accessing that material, and for assessing your learning on that material. Class topics are discussed for the sole purpose of expanding your intellectual engagement in the area of theology, and I will support you throughout your learning in this course.

Lomabooks Instructions for Students

This course is part of our course material delivery program, LomaBooks. The bookstore will provide each student with a convenient package containing all required physical materials; all digitally delivered materials will be integrated into Canvas.

You should have received an email from the bookstore confirming the list of materials that will be provided for each of your courses and asking you to select how you would like to receive any printed components (in-store pick up or home delivery). If you have not done so already, please confirm your fulfillment preference so the bookstore can prepare your materials.

For more information about LomaBooks, please go: HERE

Week 16

Final Exams • Week of December 15-19 • Exact Day and Time TBD • Exam will be in Class.

The final exam for this course will take place according to the university's final exam schedule.

*Students will bring their laptops to class to complete the online final.

Check Canvas for the most updated information.

Group Presentation (150 Points)

The goal of this presentation is to give a substantial but overall introduction to your assigned biblical book, informed by modern biblical scholarship's work on the book. Think of your group as answering the question, "What is the book of x, what is modern biblical scholarship saying about it, and how does it fit into the overall story of the OT?"

You have only 12-minutes, so you will want to plan your presentation carefully in advance, yet you should still give a thorough presentation and have creative elements (like PowerPoint, illustrations, music or video clip, etc.).

To research your presentation, you should draw from two sources:

- a. Read the introduction for your book in the New Interpreter's Study Bible and consult the study notes in the Bible for some of the significant passages in the book.
- b. Find the commentary on your book in the multi-volume commentary series entitled The New Interpreter's Bible (these volumes are located in the reference room or stacks of the library). Read and use the Introduction to your book given in the commentary.

IMPORTANT — Every group must submit their presentation (via Google Slides) to the professor by noon the day before their presentation (ksanchez@pointloma.edu).

Failure to email the presentation by noon the day before your presentation will result in 10 points subtracted from the presentation.

For your 12-minute presentation, you should include at least the following elements:

(Most updated syllabus and info can always be found on Canvas.)

- a. An introduction/survey of the major content, themes, structure, and distinctive elements of your book (i.e., what is this book and what is in it?)
- b. A survey of the major critical interpretive issues that have been and are discussed in modern biblical scholarship (these might include the date, setting, genre, etc.). Give the class a rundown on the various views on the major issues and provide what you take to be the best options on these issues (i.e., where did this book come from, how did we get it, what issues do scholars discuss about it?)
- c. Walk the class through one (maybe two, but watch your time!) passage(s) from your book that, in your mind, illustrates the main content, themes, and interpretive issues for the book.
- d. How does your book fit into the overall story of God in the OT as we have presented it in this course (effort to restore creation, form a people as an instrument, etc.)?
- e. Gracious Application Piece: Why might this book matter to a modern reader? What encouragement, instruction, inspiration, or insight might someone gain from this book today?

***On slide one, be sure to add everyone's name.

Grading Details: Up to 30 points will be given for sections listed above (a-e). However, points will be reduced if students do not email their Google Slides as noted above.

Don't forget to try to be creative and to have fun in your presentation—think TED talk, use Powerpoint, music or video clips, illustrations, whatever! But watch your 12-minute time limit.
