Students are expected to critically engage with course material and activities, be curious, explore diverse perspectives, and challenge assumptions. Together, we are responsible for fostering and maintaining a professional, positive, and stimulating classroom environment. Attendance, attitude, and involvement in class are essential components of being a successful student in this. Your presence is critical to course outcomes for this class, especially because of the in-class activities and role-plays you will be involved in with your partner. If you are not there it will be extremely difficult for them, as well as your teamwork, for your clinical presentations. This class is designed to stimulate thought-provoking conversation and debate, and to help you develop your ability to learn and interact with others at a professional level. In the context of counseling, this means balancing individual and group learning processes as well as valuing diverse perspectives. Your participation in this course will be evaluated based on:

- Responsible, meaningful, and thoughtful contributions to classroom and online discussion;
- Inviting/reminding peers and the instructor to consider minority or missing perspectives;
- Willingness to explore confusion, lack of knowledge, or uncertainty;
- Identifying and owning both your weaknesses and strengths;
- Willingness to seek out, reflect upon, and integrate feedback from others;
- Providing thoughtful and constructive feedback to others;
- Volunteering for demonstrations;
- Demonstrating collaboration in the learning process.

2. Professionalism (20 points): Please see the Professionalism rubric on Canvas.

benchmarks and explore the influence of these instances on their career choice.

4. Career Development Program/Intervention Proposal Partner Project (40 points): To develop skills applying theoretical and empirical career development material to practice, students will work in a small group (2-4 students, groups will be assigned randomly) to develop a career program or intervention for a specific population. Students will put together a poster presentation that will deliver a career development program or intervention for a specific population, with clearly defined and feasible goals. Each group will have approximately 20-30 minutes to present their project to the entire class.
5. Comprehensive Career Assessment & Analysis (50 points): The Comprehensive Career Assessment and Analysis can be considered the summative assignment for the course. It consists of three phases; please see the assignment PowerPoint for more information.

Student grades for assignments will be posted in the Canvas gradebook no later than midnight on Tuesday of each week beginning in Week Two of this course. It is important to read the comments posted in the gradebook as these comments are intended to help students improve their work. Final grades will be posted by the due date as posted in the Academic Calendar.

Other Course-Specific Information

Readings and Assignments: It is the students' responsibility to complete all required readings prior to coming to class. Lecture and class activities will not repeat the readings but rather add to them. Therefore, the readings provide the necessary context for the course material. All assignments are due by the beginning of class on the date specified on the syllabus. No late assignments will be accepted.

Electronic devices: The use of cell phones and laptops for any reason other than taking notes is not permitted during class time. Students may check their phones during the break and before/after class. Student engagement in texting or perusing internet sites during class time may result in point deductions on final grade.

Confidentiality limitations: An essential element of this course is self-reflection and the integration of new knowledge into previously established paradigms. It is the students' responsibility to determine the appropriate level of self-disclosure for class discussion and reflection papers. The instructor cannot guarantee confidentiality of information shared. If the instructor acquires information relevant to a student's progress or performance in the program, she will contact the student for a meeting to discuss the issue.

Incompletes and Late Assignments

Assignments submitted up to 24 hours past the due date will be deducted 25% of the grade. Assignments submitted up to 48 hours past the due date will be deducted 50% of the grade. Any assignment turned in after 48 hours past the due date will receive no credit. Students are encouraged to alert the professor if an assignment is anticipated to be late. Professors can extend these late penalties if arrangements are made in advance.

PLNU Spiritual Care

Mission Valley

PLNU strives to be a place where you grow as a whole person. To this end, we provide resources for our Graduate students to encounter God and grow in their Christian faith. At the Mission Valley (MV) campus we have an onsite chaplain who is available during class break times across the week. If you have questions or a desire to meet or share any prayer requests with the onsite chaplain, you may email Dr. Sylvia Cortez Masyuk at scortezm@pointloma.edu (<mailto:scortezm@pointloma.edu>).

In addition, on the MV campus, there is a prayer chapel on the third floor. It is open for use as a space set apart for quiet reflection and prayer.

PLNU Recording Notification

In order to enhance the learning experience, please be advised that this course may be recorded by the professor for educational purposes, and access to these recordings will be limited to enrolled students and authorized personnel.

Note that all recordings are subject to copyright protection. Any unauthorized distribution or publication of these recordings without written approval from the University (refer to the Dean) is strictly prohibited.

PLNU Academic Honesty Policy

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when, in reality, they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course.

For all student appeals, faculty and students should follow the procedures outlined in the University Catalog. See Graduate Academic and General Policies  (<https://pointloma-public.courseleaf.com/grad-catalog/academic-general-policies/#text>) for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

During the first week of class, you will be asked to submit an Academic Honesty Verification Statement. Submitting the statement is a requirement of this course. By submitting the Academic Honesty Verification Statement, you will be verifying all assignments completed in this course were completed by you. Carefully review the Academic Honesty Statement below.

Statement: "In submitting this form, I am verifying all the assignments in this course will be completed by me and will be my own work."

Artificial Intelligence (AI) Policy

You are allowed to use Artificial Intelligence (AI) tools (e.g., ChatGPT, Gemini Pro 1.5, Grammarly, Perplexity, etc) to generate ideas, but you are not allowed to use AI tools to generate content (te video, audio, images) that will end up in any work submitted to be graded for this course. If you have any doubts about using AI, please gain permission from the instructor.

PLNU Academic Accommodations Policy

PLNU is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all its programs, services, and activities in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Students with disabilities may request course-related accommodations by contacting the Educational Access Center (EAC), located in the Bond Academic Center (EAC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2533). Once a student's eligibility for an accommodation has been determined, the EAC will work with the student to create an Accommodation Plan (AP) that outlines allowed accommodations. Professors are able to view a student's approved accommodations through Accommodate.

PLNU highly recommends that students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester/term about the implementation of their AP in that particular course. Accommodations are not retroactive so clarifying with the professor at the outset is one of the best ways to promote positive academic outcomes.

Students who need accommodations for a disability should contact the EAC as early as possible (i.e., ideally before the beginning of the semester) to assure appropriate accommodations can be provided. It is the student's responsibility to make the first contact with the EAC. Students cannot assume that because they had accommodations in the past, their eligibility at PLNU is automatic. All determinations at PLNU must go through the EAC process. This is to protect the privacy of students with disabilities who may not want to disclose this information and are not asking for any accommodations.

Language and Belonging

Point Loma Nazarene University faculty are committed to helping create a safe and hospitable learning environment for all students. As Christian scholars we are keenly aware of the power of language and believe in treating others with dignity. As such, it is important that our language be equitable, inclusive, and prejudice free. Inclusive/Bias-free language is the standard outlined by all major academic style guides, including MLA, APA, and Chicago, and it is the expected norm in university-level work. Good writing and speaking do not use unsubstantiated or irrelevant generalizations about personal qualities such as age, disability, economic class, ethnicity, marital status, parentage, political or religious beliefs, race, gender, sex, or sexual orientation. Inclusive language also avoids using stereotypes or terms that demeans persons or groups based on age, disability, class, ethnicity, gender, race, language, or national origin. Respectful use of language is particularly important when referring to those outside of the religious and lifestyle commitments of those in the PLNU community. By working toward precision and clarity of language, we mark ourselves as serious and respectful scholars, and we model the Christ-like quality of hospitality.

If you (or someone you know) have experienced other forms of discrimination, you can find more information on reporting and resources at PLNU's Nondiscrimination webpage \(http://www.pointloma.edu/nondiscrimination\).

Sexual Misconduct and Discrimination

Point Loma Nazarene University faculty are committed to helping create a safe learning environment for all students. If you (or someone you know) have experienced any form of sexual discrimination or misconduct, including sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, or stalking, know that help and support are available through the Title IX Office \(https://www.pointloma.edu/title-ix\). Please be aware that under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, it is required to disclose information about such misconduct to the Title IX Office.

If you wish to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting responsibility, you can contact Counseling Services at counselingservices@pointloma.edu or find a list of campus pastors via our Sexual Harassment and Discrimination Policy. \(https://www.pointloma.edu/title-ix\)

If you (or someone you know) have experienced other forms of discrimination or bias, you can find more information on reporting and resources via our Nondiscrimination and Anti-harassment Policy \(https://www.pointloma.edu/bias\).

Professionalism

Student professionalism will be assessed in each course, constituting 10% of the total course grade. Professionalism indicators include class participation, interactions with peers and instructors, and self-awareness. The full rubric can be found here: PLNU MACC Professionalism Rubric ↗ \(https://docs.google.com/document/d/1osLcREXhNvA9EJSp1XW0SISi8-l0szbqS4we1d3KohQ/edit\).

PLNU Attendance and Participation Policy

Regular and punctual attendance at all class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. Therefore, regular attendance and participation in each course are minimal requirements.

If the student is absent for more than 10 percent of class sessions, the faculty member will issue a written warning of de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent (equivalent to two (2) classes in the MACC program), the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university withdrawal date or, after that date, receive an “F” grade.

Note: If a student incurs a third absence, they may petition the faculty to remain enrolled in class. The faculty will provide a make up assignment proportionate in length and difficulty to the class missed. This third absence may also result in a referral to the Student Development Committee.

In addition to the university policy, 10% of your course grade will reflect your attendance. Coming to class is mandatory and expected. As extenuating circumstances may happen that prevent you from attending class, a student may incur one absence without losing points. Each subsequent absence will drop this portion of the grade by 5% of the total course points (up to 10%). Note: absences are not categorized as excused or unexcused.

Attending class on time is essential to promote a respectful and professional learning environment. Arriving to class more than 15 minutes late is counted as a tardy. Two tardies count as one absence. Arriving 30 minutes or more late to a class will be considered an absence.

Refer to Academic Policies  (<https://pointloma-public.courseleaf.com/grad-catalog/academic-general-policies/>) for additional detail.

Synchronous Attendance/Participation Definition

For synchronous courses that have specific scheduled meeting times (including in-person, hybrid, and synchronous online courses), absences are counted from the first official meeting of the class regardless of the date of the student’s enrollment. For courses with specific attendance requirements, those requirements are outlined in the course syllabus.

Note: For synchronous courses with an online asynchronous week, refer to the Online Asynchronous Class Attendance policy listed below.

Online Asynchronous Attendance/Participation Definition

Students taking online courses with no specific scheduled meeting times are expected to actively engage throughout each week of the course. Attendance is defined as participating in an academic activity within the online classroom which includes, but is not limited to:

- Engaging in an online discussion
- Submitting an assignment
- Taking an exam
- Participating in online labs
- Initiating contact with faculty member within the learning management system to discuss course content

Note: Logging into the course does not qualify as participation and will not be counted as meeting the attendance requirement.

Course Modality Definitions

1. Online Courses: These are courses with class meetings where all instruction and interaction are fully online.
    1. Synchronous Courses: At least one class meeting takes place at a designated time.
    2. Asynchronous Courses: All class meetings are asynchronous.

Use of Technology

MACC is committed to a distraction-free learning environment. Students are welcome to bring devices to class, but they must remain stored throughout class time unless directed otherwise by the instructor. Phones, laptops, iPads/tablets, and other personal devices are not permitted to be passively used during lectures, discussions, or any other activity unless expressly communicated by the instructor.
