INCOMPLETES AND LATE ASSIGNMENTS

All assignments are to be submitted/turned in by the beginning of the class session when they are due—including assignments posted in Canvas. Incompletes will only be assigned in extremely unusual circumstances.

SPIRITUAL CARE

PLNU strives to be a place where you grow as whole persons. To this end, we provide resources for our students to encounter God and grow in their Christian faith. If students have questions, a desire to meet with the chaplain or have prayer requests you can contact your professor or the Office of Spiritual Life and Formation.

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE (AI) POLICY

You are allowed to use Artificial Intelligence (AI) tools (e.g, ChatGPT, iA Writer, Marmot, Botowski) to generate ideas and to create presentation materials (graphs, images) that will be submitted to be graded for this course. However, please do not use AI for substantive content that should be your original work and be sure to properly cite your sources, including use of AI tools. If you have any doubts about using AI, please gain permission from the instructor. APA Style: How to Cite ChatGPT

FINAL EXAMINATION POLICY

Successful completion of this class requires taking the final examination on its scheduled day. The final examination schedule is posted on the Traditional Undergraduate Records: Final Exam Schedules site. If you find yourself scheduled for three (3) or more final examinations on the same day, you are authorized to contact each professor to arrange a different time for one of those exams. However, unless you have three (3) or more exams on the same day, no requests for alternative final examinations will be granted.

PLNU COPYRIGHT POLICY

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.

PLNU RECORDING NOTIFICATION

In order to enhance the learning experience, please be advised that this course may be recorded by the professor for educational purposes, and access to these recordings will be limited to enrolled students and authorized personnel.

Note that all recordings are subject to copyright protection. Any unauthorized distribution or publication of these recordings without written approval from the University (refer to the Dean) is strictly prohibited.

PLNU ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. For all student appeals, faculty and students should follow the procedures outlined in the University Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

PLNU ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

PLNU is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all its programs, services, and activities in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Students with disabilities may request course-related accommodations by contacting the Educational Access Center (EAC), located in the Bond Academic Center (EAC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2533). Once a student's eligibility for an accommodation has been determined, the EAC will work with the student to create an Accommodation Plan (AP) that outlines allowed accommodations. Professors are able to view a student's approved accommodations through Accommodate.

PLNU highly recommends that students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester/term about the implementation of their AP in that particular course. Accommodations are not retroactive so clarifying with the professor at the outset is one of the best ways to promote positive academic outcomes.

Students who need accommodations for a disability should contact the EAC as early as possible (i.e., ideally before the beginning of the semester) to assure appropriate accommodations can be provided. It is the student's responsibility to make the first contact with the EAC. Students cannot assume that because they had accommodations in the past, their eligibility at PLNU is automatic. All determinations at PLNU must go through the EAC process. This is to protect the privacy of students with disabilities who may not want to disclose this information and are not asking for any accommodations.

PLNU ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION POLICY

Regular and punctual attendance at all class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent for more than 10 percent of class sessions, the faculty member will issue a written warning of de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive an "F" grade.

COURSE COMPONENTS

A: Chapter Quizzes: 200 points (10 x 20 pts. each – 12 total, top 10 count – drop 2 lowest scores):

A total of twelve (12) chapter quizzes will be given each week as noted in the course calendar. Students will have 15 minutes to complete 20 either true/false or multiple-choice questions each week. In total, the quizzes for the semester will represent a total of 20% of your grade. Students' highest ten (10) quizzes will be used (10 x 20pts = 200pts). Your two lowest scores will not be tabulated in your final grade and, therefore, there are NO make-up quizzes or alternative assignments if you miss a quiz. Quizzes are posted on canvas so you will need to have a way to access Canvas for these quizzes each week. Questions cover content from the assigned chapter.

B: Individual Country Presentation: 50 points

This assignment is to present to the class an over-view of a specific country and its global business opportunities as mentioned below. The day prior to presenting, each presenting student must post on CANVAS (in the Discussion area), their slides covering the points below. Students need to be prepared to answer questions on all points below during the Q+A after their presentation. Each student will present a different country allocated on a first come, first choice basis.

Each country presentation should include:

1. Country overview: location, population, currency, language, religion, GDP etc.
2. Political economy and system
3. Economic status and development
4. Cultural values/norms
5. Global business opportunities
6. Managerial considerations – include investment grade (A-F)

C. Global Business Strategy (200 pts.) – see Appendix A

This assignment is designed to utilize knowledge, skills and values learnt throughout the semester. It will require a comprehensive understanding of global business and how this knowledge can be applied to a real-world organization. Teams will be established to present a business strategy on “how to take a local company to a global scale” (no companies focused exclusively on alcohol are permitted). This will require an in-depth understanding of both the individual business and the international opportunities/challenges that businesses face to ensure a successful globalization of its product or service. Each team and organization needs to be selected early so as to maximize the opportunity for research and content application. Specific criteria and expectations will be outlined upon assignment of your team project once the companies have been selected. Some class time will be given to work on this assignment. Near the end of the semester, each group will present for 12-15 minutes to the whole class of the strategies you have designed for your group's selected organization. You then will field questions from the class and professor for several minutes. The group's overall grade will depend on the quality of the research, applicability to the class, and presentation skills utilized.

D. Chapter Case Studies (200 points):

For 10 weeks, you will respond to questions from the chapter case studies as part of the class homework. Each of these assignments is worth 20 points. Be sure to answer each question assigned and provide a quote from the chapter (not from the case study) for each question.

E. Cross-Culture Interview (100 points) – see Appendix B

Students will conduct an informational interview of a first-generation immigrant/refugee who is an owner of a local business and then write a paper on what was learned. This interview is specially designed for you to grapple with cross-cultural considerations and differences between operating a business in another cultural context and the USA. More details will be given in class.

F. Canvas Discussion Board (100 pts):

Be prepared to answer questions, participate in class activities, discussions and other assignments, including asking questions of your peer's country presentations and in response to case study posts throughout the semester.

G. Final Exam (100 pts):

A cumulative final exam on the course readings and discussions will be given at the assigned day/time as per the final examination schedule (and noted at the top of this syllabus). The final exam will test for comprehensive understanding of the textbook content, course discussions, and group project materials.

H. Class Attendance / Participation / Survey (50 pts):

Students' final score / grade will be impacted by their attendance, participation in class, and completing the course evaluation at the end of the semester.

ADDITIONAL IMPORTANT INFORMATION

LANGUAGE AND BELONGING

Point Loma Nazarene University faculty are committed to helping create a safe and hospitable learning environment for all students. As Christian scholars we are keenly aware of the power of language and believe in treating others with dignity. As such, it is important that our language be equitable, inclusive, and prejudice free. Inclusive/Bias-free language is the standard outlined by all major academic style guides, including MLA, APA, and Chicago, and it is the expected norm in university-level work. Good writing and speaking do not use unsubstantiated or irrelevant generalizations about personal qualities such as age, disability, economic class, ethnicity, marital status, parentage, political or religious beliefs, race, gender, sex, or sexual orientation. Inclusive language also avoids using stereotypes or terminology that demeans persons or groups based on age, disability, class, ethnicity, gender, race, language, or national origin. Respectful use of language is particularly important when referring to those outside of the religious and lifestyle commitments of those in the PLNU community. By working toward precision and clarity of language, we mark ourselves as serious and respectful scholars, and we model the Christ-like quality of hospitality.

If you (or someone you know) have experienced other forms of discrimination, you can find more information on reporting and resources at www.pointloma.edu/nondiscrimination.

Getting feedback from the Loma Writing Center while you're in the process of working on an assignment is a great way to improve the quality of your writing and develop as a writer. You are encouraged to talk with a trained writing consultant about getting started on an assignment, organizing your ideas, finding and citing sources, revising, editing for grammar and polishing final drafts, and more. A Ph.D. from the School of Leadership and Education Sciences at the University of San Diego (with a concentration in nonprofit management). I graduated from USD in 2010.

My personal passions:

The things that get me up in the morning and that I feel called by God to give my life towards are: poverty alleviation (particularly in Global South countries), local church engagement, seeing students decide to engage their skills, networks, enthusiasm, idealism, and hard work to address issues of poverty, compassion, and discipleship. I believe business can be a powerful tool to help communities flourish. I recently had a book (2021) published entitled: Development in Mission: A Guide for Transforming Global Poverty and Ourselves for Christians/Churches interested in helping address global poverty.
