PLNU Mission (To Teach, To Shape, To Send): Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service becomes an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we aspire to be a learning community where grace in foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

Catalog Course Description: Open to community and all students by audition; campus appearances; may accompany large choral works. Participation required of all Music majors with string instrument concentration. May be repeated each semester. Offered every fall and spring semester.

An orchestra is a community of musicians who work together to present great orchestral works. In this setting, your personal commitment to excellence is merged with that of other players to make a performance that is more than the sum of its parts. Skills honed in this course are personal preparation, ensemble skills, responsible teamwork, and ensemble performance skills.

Program Learning Outcome (PLO): Students will prepare and participate in ensemble performances by developing an attitude of collaborative service, individual preparation, camaraderie, regular rehearsal attendance, and best efforts.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs): Orchestra participant will

1. show careful personal preparation by performing one's part accurately and in the correct style;
2. attend all declared rehearsal times and demonstrate good ensemble skills;
3. arrive by dress rehearsal call time and stay engaged with the dress rehearsal during the entire required time;
4. arrive by concert call time and stay engaged during the entire concert;
5. contribute positively to the over-all musical effect of the concert.

Grading System: Semester percentage points are earned in accordance with the description on page 2 of this syllabus. Letter grades are established as follows:

A	=	94	-	100	C	=	74	-	77
A-	=	91	-	93	C-	=	71	-	73
B+	=	88	-	90	D+	=	68	-	70
B	=	84	-	87	D	=	64	-	67
B-	=	81	-	83	D-	=	61	-	63
C+	=	78	-	80	F	=	0	-	60

Attendance Policy: Every required rehearsal should be attended from beginning to end. Points toward the student's grade are earned during rehearsals and performances. Points lost due to absences cannot be recovered. In addition, the number of points equal to the square of the number of weeks of absence will be deducted from the student's semester grade. University attendance policy will apply. See PLNU attendance policy for further details. Three tardies and/or early departures will be counted as one absence unless the student has made special arrangements with the professor in advance.

Earning Semester Percentage Points: Points will be accumulated

- At each regular rehearsal:
  - 1 point for contributing positively to the entire rehearsal.
  - 1 point for observed satisfactory personal progress on the orchestra literature.
  - Call time for any regular rehearsal is always 5 minutes before the announced beginning of the rehearsal.
  - A total of 60 semester percentage points are available from participation in regular rehearsals.
- At the dress rehearsals and concerts:
  - 40 points for contributing positively to the dress rehearsals and concerts. Absence from any one such event can cause the student to lose as much as all 40 semester percentage points for a missed dress rehearsal or concert.

- Call time for any dress rehearsal or concert is always 20 minutes before the announced beginning of the event. Tardiness or early departure from a dress rehearsal or concert can be counted as an absence from a dress rehearsal or concert with all of the consequences outlined above.

Fall Semester Literature (subject to change):

- Bach Brandenburg Concerto #3
  - Corelli Christmas Concerto
  - Vivaldi Concerto for 4 Violins
  - Telemann Viola Concerto
  - Beethoven Romance No. 2 in F Major
  - Dvorak Romance in F
  - Other literature TBA

Spiritual Care***

Please be aware PLNU strives to be a place where you grow as whole persons. To this end, we provide resources for our students to encounter God and grow in their Christian faith.

If you have questions, a desire to meet with the chaplain or have prayer requests you can contact your professor or the Office of Spiritual Life and Formation.

State Authorization Ⓢ

State authorization is a formal determination by a state that Point Loma Nazarene University is approved to conduct activities regulated by that state. In certain states outside California, Point Loma Nazarene University is not authorized to enroll online (distance education) students. If a student moves to another state after admission to the program and/or enrollment in an online course, continuation within the program and/or course will depend on whether Point Loma Nazarene University is authorized to offer distance education courses in that state. It is the student's responsibility to notify the institution of any change in his or her physical location. Refer to the map on State Authorization to view which states allow online (distance education) outside of California.

PLNU Copyright Policy Ⓢ

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.]

PLNU Recording Notification Ⓢ

In order to enhance the learning experience, please be advised that this course may be recorded by the professor for educational purposes, and access to these recordings will be limited to enrolled students and authorized personnel.

Note that all recordings are subject to copyright protection. Any unauthorized distribution or publication of these recordings without written approval from the University (refer to the Dean) is strictly prohibited.

PLNU Academic Accommodations Policy

PLNU is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all its programs, services, and activities in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Students with disabilities may request course-related accommodations by contacting the Educational Access Center (EAC), located in the Bond Academic Center (EAC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2486). Once a student's eligibility for an accommodation has been determined, the EAC will work with the student to create an Accommodation Plan (AP) that outlines allowed accommodations. The EAC makes accommodations available to professors at the student's request.

PLNU highly recommends that students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester/term about the implementation of their AP in that particular course. Accommodations are not retroactive so clarifying with the professor at the outset is one of the best ways to promote positive academic outcomes.

Students who need accommodations for a disability should contact the EAC as early as possible (i.e., ideally before the beginning of the semester) to assure appropriate accommodations can be provided. It is the student's responsibility to make the first contact with the EAC. Students cannot assume that because they had accommodations in the past, their eligibility at PLNU is automatic. All determinations at PLNU must go through the EAC process. This is to protect the privacy of students with disabilities who may not want to disclose this information and are not asking for any special accommodations.

Language and Belonging***

Point Loma Nazarene University faculty are committed to helping create a safe and hospitable learning environment for all students. As Christian scholars we are keenly aware of the power of language and believe in treating others with dignity. As such, it is important that our language be equitable, inclusive, and prejudice free. Inclusive/Bias-free language is the standard outlined by all major academic style guides, including MLA, APA, and Chicago, and it is the expected norm in university-level work. Good writing and speaking do not use unsubstantiated or irrelevant generalizations about personal qualities such as age, disability, economic class, ethnicity, marital status, parentage, political or religious beliefs, race, gender, sex, or sexual orientation. Inclusive language also avoids using stereotypes or terminology that demeans persons or groups based on age, disability, class, ethnicity, gender, race, language, or national origin. Respectful use of language is particularly important when referring to those outside of the religious and lifestyle commitments of those in the PLNU community. By working toward precision and clarity of language, we mark ourselves as serious and respectful scholars, and we model the Christ-like quality of hospitality.

If you (or someone you know) have experienced a bias incident regarding language, you can find more information on reporting and resources at www.pointloma.edu/bias.

Sexual Misconduct and Discrimination***

In support of a safe learning environment, if you (or someone you know) have experienced any form of sexual discrimination or misconduct, including sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, or stalking, know that accommodations and resources are available through the Title IX Office at pointloma.edu/Title-IX. Please be aware that under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, faculty and staff are required to disclose information about such misconduct to the Title IX Office.

If you wish to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting responsibility, you can contact Counseling Services at counselingservices@pointloma.edu or find a list of campus pastors at pointloma.edu/title-ix.

If you (or someone you know) have experienced other forms of discrimination or bias, you can find more information on reporting and resources at www.pointloma.edu/bias

PLNU Attendance and Participation Policy⊕

Regular and punctual attendance at all class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent for more than 10 percent of class sessions, the faculty member will issue a written warning of de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university withdrawal date or, after that date, receive an “F” grade.

SLO Rubric for Participation in an Orchestra Concert (Signature Assignment)

Item	Advanced	Proficient	Basic	Preliminary
Personal Preparation	Participant prepared meticulously so as to perform part splendidly in exactly the correct style.	Participant prepared carefully so as to perform part quite accurately and in a reasonably correct style.	Participant's preparation fell somewhat short as reflected in occasional noticeable inaccuracies and/or occasional noticeable departures from correct style.
