PLNU MISSION

To Teach ~ To Shape ~ To Send

Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service becomes an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we aspire to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the course, you should be able to do the following:

1. Describe and discuss the process of human communication.
2. Identify and explain the basic components of an effective speech.
3. Interact competently in dyadic and small group experience.
4. Construct and deliver informational and persuasive speeches.

COURSE TEXT

Berko, R.M., Wolvin, A. D. & Wolvin, D. R. Communicating: A social and career focus. (12th Ed.). New York: Houghton Mifflin Company.

CLASS EXPECTATIONS

1. Please arrive on time. Turn off your cell phones before class starts and place them where they will not be a distraction to you or others. Personal computers, tablets, smartphones can be used only for taking notes or completing in-class assignments. You will be asked to leave the classroom if you are found texting or doing other homework, playing games or are on social networking sites on laptops during class time. Food must be consumed outside of the classroom, but drinks are fine.
2. ATTENDANCE: Regular attendance is required. You need to be present to learn and this is a participation course. Roll will be taken at the beginning of each class meeting. Excused absences (University-sponsored sports, forensics or other activities) need to be brought to my attention in email before the day(s) you will be absent. See “Academic Policies” in the undergraduate academic catalog.
3. SYLLABUS: You are responsible for the due dates stated in the schedule. If changes to the syllabus are given verbally in class, any student absent on that day is responsible for getting the changes.
4. COMMUNICATION: Please check your Point Loma Canvas messages regularly. This is the primary way that I will be contacting you. You are responsible for any changes to assignments that are sent through the pointloma.edu address. Allow up to 24 hours for a response from me. If you have not received a response within 24 hours, please follow up.
5. QUIZZES will be given each class on the chapters and material assigned that week, as indicated on the syllabus. Make-ups will not be given unless you make prior arrangements with me.
6. FINAL EXAMINATIONS. No accommodations for early examinations or alternative days are allowed per university policy. The final examination schedule is posted on the “Class Schedules” site.

7. ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSIONS: All work is due by 11:59 p.m. on the day indicated on the assignment requirement sheet and on the schedule. If you turn in an assignment after the due date indicated on the syllabus, there will be a 5 point deduction for each day the assignment is late. There is no distinction between “excused” and “unexcused” assignments.
8. SPEECHES: You must be ready to deliver your speeches on your assigned day. If there are extenuating circumstances (medical or family emergencies, PLNU team games/activities), you may prearrange to exchange speech days with another student if prior notice is given to the instructor. I am not responsible for finding another student to switch with you.
9. ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY: At PLNU, we want you to exhibit integrity in your work. If you reference another person, give them credit. If credit isn’t given, it demonstrates academic irresponsibility and reflects disrespect for your community and yourself. As stated in the university catalogue: “Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one’s own when in reality they are the results of another person’s creativity and effort. Such acts include plagiarism, copying of class assignments, and copying or other fraudulent behavior on examinations. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for a) that particular assignment or examination, and/or b) the course.”
10. ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS: Students requiring special accommodations on the basis of physical, learning or psychological disability for this class are required to file documentation with the Disability Resource Center (in the Bond Academic Center). The DRC will write me with recommendations as to how to meet the individual needs of the student. Please contact Pat Curley within the first two weeks of the term so as to give accommodations as early as possible.
11. FERPA POLICY: In compliance with federal law, neither PLNU student ID nor social security number should be used in publicly posted grades or returned sets of assignments without written permission from the student. This class will meet the federal requirements by distributing all grades and papers individually. Also in compliance with FERPA, you will be the only person given information about your progress in this class unless you have designated others to receive it in the “Information Release” section of the student portal. See ‘Policy Statements’ in the undergrad student catalog.

PARTICIPATION RUBRIC

Points	Grade	Description
100 - 90	A	Frequent participation in class discussions; listens and responds with thoughtful ideas; is proactive in offering ideas & viewpoints in group work; does not engage in distracting behavior (social media, texting, looking at other sites/homework while “taking notes”)
80 - 89	B	Participates in most class discussions; responds to others’ input with little prompting; may engage in distracting behavior
70 - 79	C	Occasional participant in class discussions; has to be prompted to provide response and input; engages often in distracting behavior
60 – 69	D	Infrequent participant in discussions; needs to be prompted often to respond; engages frequently in distracting behavior
59 & below	F	Little or no participation; is not proactive in class and small group & below discussions, even with prompting; engages frequently in distracting behavior

GRADING POLICY

The core of my grading philosophy is that one’s grade is earned. In other words, you must work for the grade that you want. All assignments outlined in the following pages have requirements that outline the bare minimum work—any student who fulfills the minimum requirements, earns, at best, a “C”. In order to achieve “A” or “B” level work, a student must demonstrate work that is above and beyond the requirements of any given assignment, which include, but are not limited to: critical thinking, thorough analysis, and creativity.

READING QUIZZES: These assignments are objectively graded. Each quiz has 10 questions with each question worth one (1) point each. The quizzes will cover the material of the text, whether or not the material was covered in class.

WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS: There are only a few written assignments planned for this course. The purpose of the written assignments are to help you analyze certain communication concepts and to think critically about them. These assignments will also help you prepare for the oral portion of the final exam. Requirements for each assignment will be distributed well ahead of the due date. These assignments will be graded on the presence of critical thinking and insightful analysis.

SPEECHES/PRESENTATIONS make up the bulk of the semester grade. Each speech assignment has an accompanying list of requirements (see Canvas for detailed instructions) and will be graded on two different components: the content outline and the delivery.

For the speech outline, I will be looking for fulfillment of the stated requirements, including, but not limited to: complete and logical articulation of the main ideas of the speech, well-researched support of the main ideas, critical thinking and analysis of your research, coherent organization and correct formatting as outlined below.

For the delivery of the speech, I look for application of the speech delivery concepts presented in class and in the textbook, evidence of rehearsal of the speech and, for each speech after the first major speech, improvement in delivery style. I take many notes during your presentations, most of which are suggestions for improvement.

PARTICIPATION is one of the key components in a course such as COM 100. Participation includes, but is not limited to, volunteering points of view in class discussions, engaging in active listening of fellow students, refraining from texting, looking at the Internet on laptops, napping, or other activities unrelated to the class. If you are found consistently not participating, points will be deducted from the total participation grade, at my discretion, for each infraction after the first warning.

ASSIGNMENT STYLE & FORMATTING

All speech outlines, the final paper and assignments are to be typed, double-spaced, using Times New Roman, 12 pt. font, with 1” margins. Speech outlines are required to use APA formatting for source citations and bibliographies.

Please refer to www.apa.org, <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/section/2/10/> or your friendly local librarian for help with paper formatting.
