COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is a survey of world societies from the era of European voyages of discovery to the formation of a global civilization in the late 20th century. While discussing a wide array of places and times, we will focus on themes that explore the connections between societies. These themes include: the development and influence of ideas and ideologies; the impact of various forms of political and religious organization; the causes and consequences of both violence and non-violence; and the historical struggle to define and protect human rights. Underlying all of these themes will be a consistent question: How does this add to our understanding of the world as we know it today?

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND EXPECTATIONS

Participation

Your engagement with the class is a huge component of your success in this course, and also enhances the learning of your classmates. Your participation is therefore evaluated throughout the semester. Since you cannot participate if you do not attend class, attendance will be taken at the start of each class. If you miss two or more classes, you will lose 15 points (out of 100 possible) for each absence, beginning with the second one. Arriving late or leaving early will be considered  $\frac{1}{2}$  an absence. (As stated in the Undergraduate Catalog, there are no excused absences other than in the case of certain university-sponsored events. If this applies to you, it is your responsibility to provide me with the appropriate documentation no later than one week after the missed class.)

Quizzes and Online Discussions

To help you be prepared for our classes and ready for a thoughtful face-to-face conversation, online quizzes and/or discussions on the reading will be given before each class period via Canvas. Please make sure to do the quizzes and discussions on time.

Quizzes and discussions cannot be made up if you miss them. It is your responsibility to regularly check Canvas for these assignments.

Historical Activities

The Historical Activities give you an opportunity to take field trips of your choosing! You can experience various aspects of history in the places they actually happened, watch historical films, or hear guest speakers and reflect on those experiences. Detailed information will be given in class and on Canvas.

COURSE POLICIES

All students can and should succeed in this course, so please let me know if there are things I can do to help you. Please speak with me as soon as possible if any problems arise or if you have any questions about how to succeed in this course.

Incompletes and Late Assignments

Please talk with me as soon as possible if for whatever reason you are having trouble completing your work, so that we can find the best solution. All assignments are to be submitted/turned in by the beginning of the class session when they are due, unless otherwise indicated on Canvas. Incompletes will only be assigned in extremely unusual circumstances. There are no make-up quizzes/ online discussions, since those are to help you come prepared to class. There are no make-up exams (midterms and final), unless you have contacted me in advance, in which case I may allow it depending on the circumstances. If papers, projects, or activities are turned in late, they will be subjected to a 10% penalty per day. Please ask me for more information if you believe you will need to turn in an assignment late.

Laptops, Cell Phones, and Recording Devices: In order to create the most conducive learning environment, all phones should be silenced and not used during class. Please do not use laptops or other technological devices during our face-to-face class sessions, as these are often a distraction to neighboring students. Exceptions may be granted under certain circumstances. Please speak with me as soon as possible if you believe you have a specific need for an exception. No recording of lectures or class discussions is allowed without prior permission from the professor.

Final Examination Policy

Successful completion of this class requires taking the final examination on its scheduled day. The final examination schedule is posted on the Class Schedules site. No requests for early examinations or alternative days will be approved.

PLNU Copyright Policy

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.

PLNU Academic Honesty Policy

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

PLNU Academic Accommodations Policy

If you have a diagnosed disability, please contact PLNU's Disability Resource Center (DRC) to demonstrate need and to register for accommodation by phone at 619-849-2486 or by e-mail at DRC@pointloma.edu. See Disability Resource Center for additional information.

PLNU Attendance and Participation Policy

Regular and punctual attendance at all classes is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent from more than 10 percent of class meetings, the faculty member can file a written report which may result in de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation. See Academic Policies in the Undergraduate Academic Catalog.
