PLNU Mission

To Teach ~ To Shape ~ To Send

Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service becomes an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we aspire to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

ASSESSMENT AND GRADING

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Thorough reading of assigned portions of text on date assigned, evidenced through active discussion and application of concepts (evaluated through unannounced quizzes as required). This is a course focused on developing your voice, so you are expected to discuss the concepts from your readings and fully participate in the life of the class. Your active contributions and involvement are essential.
2. Prompt, regular class attendance. More than 2 absences will seriously affect the class participation portion of your final grade. Students who arrive late or leave early will be marked for 1/2 an absence. Assignments missed due to absence may not be made up. Arrangements must be made ahead of time to make up work due to absences excused by the Provost.
3. Conscientious drill work, exercises and regular practice for vocal improvement as assigned.
4. Prepared readings presented on date assigned, and analytical evaluations of peers.
5. Unannounced quizzes over reading and class material as needed, and an IPA Quiz. Bringing your text each session and taking detailed class notes will be an expected part of participation, and essential for quiz and final project preparation.
6. Final oral exam project consisting of an extensive prepared reading (4-5 min.) and detailed critical evaluation of that taped reading assessing growth, remaining goals for voice improvement, and application of all material introduced in the course (5-8 pp.) This is an overview of all the aspects of V&D we have covered, with an application to your own voice work. Project due on or before the last day of class 4/27AQ.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES:

Cell phones must be disabled during class (no texting) and laptops/tablets used for note-taking only (in the front row and visible to instructor, wifi disabled.) Other use will heavily impact the class participation portion of your grade.

GRADE COMPUTATION:

	Points
50% Prepared Readings (5)	500
20% Active Class Participation, Attendance	200
20% Final Exam Project	200
10% IPA Quizzes	100
100%	1000

GRADE SCALE:

A=93-100	C=73-76
A-=90-92	C-=70-72
B+=87-89	D+=67-69
B=83-86	D=63-66
B-=80-82	D-=60-62
C+=77-79	F=0-59

A: Indicates excellent work that reflects thinking, creativity, individuality, and a very high level of intellectual application.

B: Indicates good work that reflects a thorough understanding of theory but is lacking in individual thinking and creativity.

C: Indicates work that reflects a satisfactory completion of the assignment as directed, but is lacking in thoroughness, individual thinking, and creativity.

D: Indicates work that reflects a lack of understanding of theory and/or fails to fulfill the assigned tasks.

F: Indicates work that reflects an inability or unwillingness to do the assigned task.

COURSE CREDIT HOUR INFORMATION

In the interest of providing sufficient time to accomplish the stated Course Learning Outcomes, this class meets the PLNU credit hour policy for a 2 unit class delivered over 15 weeks. Specific details about how the class meets the credit hour requirement can be provided upon request.

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION

Regular and punctual attendance at all classes is essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent from more than 10 percent of class meetings, the faculty member has the option of filing a written report which may result in de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice. If the date of de-enrollment is past the last date to withdraw from a class, the student will be assigned a grade of W or WF consistent with university policy in the grading section of the catalog. See Academic Policies in the (undergrad/graduate as appropriate) academic catalog.

INCOMPLETES AND LATE ASSIGNMENTS

All assignments are to be submitted/and are accepted only at the beginning of the class session when they are due.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. As explained in the university catalog, academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. Violations of university academic honesty include cheating, plagiarism, falsification, aiding the academic dishonesty of others, or malicious misuse of university resources. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for a) that particular assignment or examination, and/or b) the course following the procedure in the university catalog. Students may appeal also using the procedure in the university catalog. See Academic Policies for further information.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

While all students are expected to meet the minimum academic standards for completion of this course as established by the instructor, students with disabilities may request academic accommodations. At Point Loma Nazarene University, students must request that academic accommodations by filing documentation with the Disability Resource Center (DRC), located in the Bond Academic Center. Once the student files documentation, the Disability Resource Center will contact the student's instructors and provide written recommendations for reasonable and appropriate accommodations to meet the individual needs of the student. See Academic Policies in the (undergrad/graduate as appropriate) academic catalog.

FERPA POLICY

In compliance with federal law, neither PLNU student ID nor social security number should be used in publicly posted grades or returned sets of assignments without student written permission. This class will meet the federal requirements by (Note: each faculty member should choose one strategy to use: distributing all grades and papers individually; requesting and filing written student permission; or assigning each student a unique class ID number not identifiable on the alphabetic roster.). Also in compliance with FERPA, you will be the only person given information about your progress in this class unless you have designated others to receive it in the "Information Release" section of the student portal. See Policy Statements in the (undergrad/ graduate as appropriate) academic catalog.

FINAL EXAMINATION POLICY

Successful completion of this class requires taking the final examination on its scheduled day. The final examination schedule is posted on the Class Schedules site. No requests for early examinations or alternative days will be approved.
