Catalogue Course Description:

“Within the context of Christian origins, an overview of the canonical literature of the New Testament with special attention to its literary history and theological themes.”

This course is one of the components of the General Education Program at PLNU, under the category of “Responding to the Sacred.” By including this course in a common educational experience for undergraduates, the faculty supports the “study of Scripture and Christian heritage as foundational in the pursuit of knowledge and the development of personal values.”

Course Outcomes:

Students will be able to:

- 1) Identify the historical contexts of the New Testament.
- 2) Articulate the unity of the Old Testament and New Testament in its canonical context within the diverse literature of the Christian canon.
- 3) Articulate and appreciate the ways in which the Bible, understood as given by divine inspiration, functions as the church’s central norm for Christian discipleship, faith and practice.
- 4) Articulate the basic content of the books of the New Testament and the methods appropriate to the interpretation of those books.

Required Texts:

1. The Bible in a standard translation, such as NIV, ESV, NRSV, NKJV, NASB, etc. Single person translations and paraphrases are not acceptable. ALWAYS BRING YOUR BIBLE TO CLASS!!!
2. Rodeheaver, Steve. Snapshots of the Kingdom: Glimpses of Heaven on Earth. Kansas City: Beacon Hill Press, 1998.
3. Varughese, Alex, ed. Discovering the New Testament: Community and Faith. Kansas City: Beacon Hill Press, 2005.
4. Wright, N.T. Simply Christian: Why Christianity Makes Sense. New York: Harper One, 2006.

Recommended:

1. That you obtain a quality “Study Bible” such as the NIV Study Bible or the ESV Study Bible to name two.
2. Fee, Gordon and Douglas Stuart. How to Read the Bible for All Its Worth: A Guide to Understanding the Bible, 4th edition. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 2003.

Course Requirements:

1. New Testament Reading. There are ten New Testament reading assignments, each worth 10 points. You will report your reading percentage for each New Testament Reading assignment at the Midterm and the Final. You may only report what you have read this semester. This is worth 10% of your grade.
2. Response to Simply Christian worth 10%. Due Thursday, September 21.
3. Two midterm exams, each worth 18% of your grade.

4. A five to six page paper, worth 20% of your grade, in which you interpret a New Testament passage. You may select your own passage but it must be approved by the prof. Further instructions for this paper will be given. The paper is due in class on Thursday, November 16.
5. A “Kingdom of God” reflection paper, worth 6% of your grade, in which you reflect on the Kingdom of God in dialogue with the Gospels and with Snapshots of the Kingdom. Attention needs to be given to the eschatological tension of the Kingdom as well as the difference between heaven and the Kingdom of God. Length of paper is three pages. Due Thursday, December 7.
6. A final comprehensive exam, worth 18% of your grade.
7. Attend Class!!! Attendance will be taken and school policies enforced. Regular and punctual attendance at all classes is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent from more than 10 percent of class meetings, the faculty member can file a written report which may result in de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS:

While all students are expected to meet the minimum academic standards for completion of this course as established by the instructor, students with disabilities may require academic accommodations. At Point Loma Nazarene University, students requesting academic accommodations must file documentation with the Disability Resource Center (DRC), located in the Bond Academic Center. Once the student files documentation, the Disability Resource Center will contact the student’s instructors and provide written recommendations for reasonable and appropriate accommodations to meet the individual learning needs of the student. This policy assists the University in its commitment to full compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities (ADA) Act of 1990, and ADA Amendments Act of 2008, all of which prohibit discrimination against students with disabilities and guarantees all qualified students equal access to and benefits of PLNU programs and activities.

INTEGRITY:

Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one’s own when in reality they are the results of another person’s creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university Catalog.

INCLUSIVE LANGUAGE:

The PLNU School of Theology and Christian Ministry is committed to the equality of women and men. Recognizing that people have often used language in ways that imply the exclusion or inferiority of women, the department urges students, faculty and staff to avoid sexist language in public discourse, in classroom discussions and especially in their writings.
