Catalogue Course Description:

“Within the context of the history of Israel, an overview of the literature of the Old Testament with special attention to its literary history and theological themes.”

This course is one of the components of the General Education Program at PLNU, under the category of “Responding to the Sacred.” By including this course in a common educational experience for undergraduates, the faculty supports the “study of Scripture and Christian heritage as foundational in the pursuit of knowledge and the development of personal values.”

Course Outcomes:

Students will be able to:

1. Identify the historical contexts of the Old Testament.
2. Articulate the unity of the Old Testament and New Testament in its canonical context within the diverse literature of the Christian canon.
3. Articulate and appreciate the ways in which the Bible, understood as given by divine inspiration, functions as the church’s central norm for Christian discipleship, faith and practice.
4. Articulate the basic content of the books of the Old Testament and the methods appropriate to the interpretation of those books.

Required Texts:

1. The Bible in a standard translation, such as NIV, ESV, NRSV, NKJV, NASB, etc. Single person translations and paraphrases are not acceptable. ALWAYS BRING YOUR BIBLE TO CLASS!!!
2. Fee, Gordon and Douglas Stuart. How to Read the Bible for All Its Worth: A Guide to Understanding the Bible, 3rd edition. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 2003.
3. Varughese, Alex, ed. Discovering the Old Testament: Story and Faith. Kansas City: Beacon Hill Press, 2003.

Course Requirements:

1. Read, Piece, & Reflect. There are ten Old Testament reading assignments worth ten points each. Upon completing each reading you will piece together and reflect on the Old Testament story. The piecing and reflecting are to be submitted on Canvas.
2. The Old Testament story and your story: a two – three page paper reflecting on an episode of Israel’s story that connects with your story. This is worth 10% of your grade and is due Thursday, Dec. 10.
3. There will be eight online canvas quizzes covering the assigned reading in Discovering the Old Testament. The quizzes will combine for 20% of your grade.
4. A five page paper, worth 20% of your grade, in which you interpret an Old Testament passage. You may select your own passage but it must be approved by the prof. Further instructions for this paper will be given. The paper is due in class on Thursday, Nov. 19. There is a 10 point penalty for late papers.
5. One midterm exam worth 20% of your grade.
6. A final exam worth 20% of your grade.

7. Attend Class!!! Attendance will be taken and school policies enforced.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS:

While all students are expected to meet the minimum academic standards for completion of this course as established by the instructor, students with disabilities may require academic accommodations. At Point Loma Nazarene University, students requesting academic accommodations must file documentation with the Disability Resource Center (DRC), located in the Bond Academic Center. Once the student files documentation, the Disability Resource Center will contact the student's instructors and provide written recommendations for reasonable and appropriate accommodations to meet the individual learning needs of the student. This policy assists the University in its commitment to full compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities (ADA) Act of 1990, and ADA Amendments Act of 2008, all of which prohibit discrimination against students with disabilities and guarantees all qualified students equal access to and benefits of PLNU programs and activities.

INTEGRITY:

Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Please consult the school catalog under the heading of Academic Honesty to learn the professor's intended policy regarding student dishonesty in academic work.

INCLUSIVE LANGUAGE:

The PLNU School of Theology and Christian Ministry is committed to the equality of women and men. Recognizing that people have often used language in ways that imply the exclusion or inferiority of women, the department urges students, faculty and staff to avoid sexist language in public discourse, in classroom discussions and especially in their writings.
