

FSB Program Learning Outcomes

2013-2014

Master of Business Administration

Students who complete the Master of Business Administration program will be able to:

1. Reason analytically and apply theory across interdisciplinary boundaries to solve problems and create innovative solutions.
2. Analyze the inter-relatedness of market, economic, social and political trends, and their impact on a global environment.
3. Design effective business strategies.
4. Create effective management procedures based on best practices, personal development, and professional development.
5. Demonstrate the effective communication skills required of executive-level employees.
6. Exercise leadership ability and team-building skills through class projects and involvement in student, community and/or professional organizations.
7. Model behavior that reflects an understanding and appreciation of the legal and ethical responsibilities of executive-level employees.
8. Articulate the integration of faith into professional business careers.
9. Demonstrate citizenship by meeting or exceeding obligations as a business professional.