

Master of Arts in Organizational Leadership

The Master of Arts in Organizational Leadership is offered in a distance education format and specifically designed to align with the PLNU mission to equip, empower, and transform individuals for servant leadership in a dynamically changing world. The program provides academic preparation that can be immediately applied to the life situations in which the students live and it is a direct response to the strategic priorities of the university.

The Master of Arts in Organizational Leadership is an approved program under PLNU's WASC Regional Accreditation. Though this is not an ACBSP approved program, for those interested in that type of program, PLNU offers an MBA through its Fermanian School of Business.

Note: Those who graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Organizational Management from PLNU with a 3.750 GPA will be given advanced standing in this program.

Program Learning Outcomes

The Point Loma Nazarene University Master of Arts in Organizational Leadership graduate is prepared for expanded roles within his or her organization through enhanced abilities to:

1. Evaluate how Christian virtues support the practices of leadership within an organizational system.
2. Interpret how organizational knowledge relates to management, the practices of planning, leadership of change and conflict, and oversight of human resources, and illustrate how that integrates with Christian, legal, and regulatory roles.
3. Analyze the evidence of personal leadership style, strengths, and skills, and how that supports their various functions within an organization.
4. Adapt leadership concepts to real-life organizational situations.
