PLNU Mission To Teach ~ To Shape ~ To Send

Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service becomes an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we aspire to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Point Loma Singers is a highly select, 20-24 voice chamber choir focusing on sacred and secular concert literature of varying styles, from chant to part-songs, madrigals to masses, and anthems to folk music. The PLS performs unaccompanied and with keyboard and orchestra. It sings in churches, in local community, and on annual tours (regional and international) and presents an annual madrigal dinner. It seeks to perform, to the glory of God, choral music at the highest standards.

Consequently, the ideal singer in PLS will be

1. passionate about artistic, meaningful performance of great choral music of various styles
2. excited by the challenge of independent musicianship within a choral ensemble
3. committed to group success through positive attitude, faithful attendance and self-improvement
4. motivated by the desire to glorify God through development of bestowed talents.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

- 1. PLNU ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY: Students demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure . in the university Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.
- 2. PLNU COPYRIGHT POLICY: Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.
- 3. PLNU ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION POLICY: Regular and punctual attendance at all classes is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent from more than 10 percent of class meetings, the faculty member can file a written report which may result in de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation. See Academic Policies in the Undergraduate Academic Catalog.

Attendance Policy for Point Loma Nazarene University Music Department

Students will be advised each term of the schedule of specific ensemble performance obligations they are expected to meet; missing a scheduled performance will result in 1-3 full grades lower (see Attendance/Participation Policy below). It is expected that the ensemble performances will take precedence over outside commitments. Students may only petition an absence penalty for circumstances that are beyond their control such as sickness and personal family matters.

Both scholarship students and music majors in PLS must participate in Choral Union. All 1st time PLS singers must participate in Choral Union—Freshmen may choose Vocal Jazz Ensemble in lieu of CU requirement. Rehearsing for CU Monday evenings 7-9:30 instead of T-Th is an option. Students who do not meet this requirement will have their final grade lowered two letter grades and/or scholarship affected.

1. Ensemble grades are based on attendance, attitude, and achievement. Students are required and expected to perform to the utmost of their ability, displaying a professional attitude in rehearsals and concerts.
2. Absences due to illness or of a personal nature should be cleared with the conductor of your assigned ensemble. Requests due to personal injury must be accompanied by medical documentation. Timely reporting will help students to avoid penalties due to absence from rehearsals or concerts.
3. At their discretion, conductors may excuse students from rehearsals or concerts for PLNU activities.
4. At their discretion, conductors will have a choice of lowering up to three full grades for missing a performance event. For example, a missed performance for service club may only be docked by one grade while a spring concert would bring a grade down by three full letter grades.
5. Failure to meet the basic guidelines above may result in a student forfeiting their scholarship.

This policy above, instituted by the PLNU Music Department, states the minimum requirement for all courses. Individual professors do not have the option of establishing a more lenient policy; they may, however, establish a more rigorous policy, which is to be described in their course syllabus.

4. FERPA: In compliance with federal law, neither PLNU student ID nor social security number should be used in publically posted grades or returned sets of assignments without student written permission. This class will meet the federal requirements by (each faculty member choose one strategy to use: distributing all grades and papers individually; requesting and filing written student permission; or assigning each student a unique class ID number not identifiable on the alphabetic roster.). Also in compliance with FERPA, you will be the only person given information about your progress in this class unless you have designated others to receive it in the “Information Release” section of the student portal. See Policy Statements in the undergrad student catalog.
5. ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS: If you have a diagnosed disability, please contact PLNU’s Disability Resource Center (DRC) within the first two weeks of class to demonstrate need and to register for accommodation by phone at 619.849.2486 or by 3-mail at DRC@pointloam.edu. See Disability Resource Center for additional information.
