PLNU Mission

To Teach ~ To Shape ~ To Send

Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service becomes an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we aspire to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Writing and arranging for voices in various combinations; study of the range, color, and technical possibilities of various voices; analysis of standard choral works.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students will synthesize the following musical grammar and technical components with their own original thought as evidenced in their compositions; At a minimum for each area below, students should be at the proficient level in at least 3 of the following areas:

- Voice leading
- Accompaniment
- Harmonic progression

- Neatness/Notational accuracy
- Creativity of arrangement
- Expressive markings

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

a. Weekly arranging assignments 20%

These assignments are due most Tuesdays. These assignments should be completed using Finale. See Canvas for instructions.

b. Reading quizzes & group or take-home assignments 20%

c. Major projects 60%

Two or three major projects are to be completed. All assignments must be completed using Finale. Include measure numbers. Both a hard copy and a copy uploaded to Canvas must be submitted. The details for each assignment are as follows:

- Major project #1 – due March 1 at class time. Write a complete choral arrangement for SATB voices (accompanied). Selection of project tune must be approved by Feb 13. A rough draft should be presented in class on Feb. 27. Permission must be received for the use of copyrighted tunes (this may take up to six weeks).
- Major project #2 – due April 26 at class time. Write a complete choral arrangement for either SATB, SSAA or TTBB voices (accompanied). Selection of the project tune must be approved by April 10. A rough draft should be presented in class on April 24. Permission must be received for the use of copyrighted tunes (this may take up to six weeks).
- Major project #3 (for 3 unit enrollment only) – due May 1 at 10:00 AM (Final Exam). Write a complete choral arrangement for either SATB, SSAA or TTBB voices (accompanied). Include optional instruments such as handbells, C instrument or brass ensemble. Selection of the project tune must be approved by April 28. Permission must be received for the use of copyrighted tunes (this may take up to six weeks). Option for composers: An original work may be substituted for Major Project #3. The use of an original composition must be approved in advance in writing by the instructor.

Late Work Policy: Late take-home work and weekly arranging projects will lose one letter grade for each calendar day late. This type of regularity allows the students to receive prompt feedback. Major projects will lose one letter grade for each day late (the final major project will not be accepted after the final examination time).

Make-up Policy: Expect that no quizzes or in-class work will be made up.

PLNU COPYRIGHT POLICY

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.

PLNU ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

PLNU ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

If you have a diagnosed disability, please contact PLNU's Disability Resource Center (DRC) within the first two weeks of class to demonstrate need and to register for accommodation by phone at 619-849-2486 or by e-mail at DRC@pointloma.edu. See Disability Resource Center for additional information.

PLNU ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION POLICY

Regular and punctual attendance at all classes is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent from more than 10 percent of class meetings, the faculty member can file a written report which may result in de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation. See Academic Policies in the Undergraduate Academic Catalog.
