

Master of Arts in Education: Concentration in Teaching and Learning
Multiple and Single Subject Clear Credential
Multiple Year Assessment Plan
2011-12

Each year, the California Commission of Teacher Credentialing (CTC) requires universities offering credentials to undertake a thorough review of the assessment processes and procedures to ensure program quality and ongoing improvement. The recursive CTC seven year program improvement cycle and accreditation cycle provide the structure for this ongoing, in depth, internal and external review process.

The following table lists the activities of the accreditation cycle. All data collected are disaggregated by program and regional center, and ultimately leads to the development of the CTC required program assessments and biennial reports. Based upon the findings of these CTS studies and reports, the programmatic changes and improvements are implemented to improve candidate performance, program quality, and program operations.

Methods of Assessment and Criteria for Success

Currently, assessment data is collected through internal and external sources. Focus groups representing staff, faculty, clinical supervisors, and advisory councils have worked together to discern a set of balanced assessment measures. All candidates are expected to be at the “proficient level of performance with a score of “3” or above in each rubric criteria. The assessments are listed below.

1. Coursework Assessments

Using TaskStream as the primary data storage system, the program collects key assessments known as signature assignments to gauge candidates’ progress throughout their course of study and ensure CTC program standards are met. Each signature assignment is evaluated using a supporting rubric. Annually, (end of each academic year), collected data is disaggregated by regional center and analyzed with results informing areas for program improvement. Rubrics may be found in the appendix.

- Signature Assignment: In GED 642, Teaching Strategies for English Learners, the signature assignment requires candidates design a one-week ELD or SDAIE unit of study for one of the classes they currently teach. The PLNU lesson plan format is used and includes both ELD and Content standards, as well as language and content objectives appropriate to the level of proficiency of the EL students in their current class. The candidates list the instructional texts, strategies, technology, assessment techniques, and any supplemental teaching materials that are used to help meet the needs of the EL students. A reflection at the end of each lesson describes what successes the students attained, how the lesson impacted student learning and what the candidate would do to improve on their practice in future lessons.
- Signature Assignment: In GED673, Reflective Coaching Seminar and Induction, clear credential candidates complete the Plan, Teach, Reflect, and Apply process for Teacher Induction. This formative assessment system utilizes California’s Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment (BTSA) materials that serve as resource for candidates and faculty through the process. Candidates, in collaboration with faculty, frame the path for the expanded skills, support application in the classroom, and provide continual reflection for improving practice inquiry and professional growth.

- Signature Assignment: In GED 641, candidates report on a particular cultural group present in their school district. Research the values, religious observances/holidays, learning styles, parental role in education, child rearing traditions, most appropriate ways to praise and discipline the children in school, communication styles (verbal and non-verbal) and how to best reach and teach these children. The project includes a reflection section on the most significant learning to the candidate and the application to teaching.
- Signature Assignment: In GED 677, Teaching Strategies for Special Populations, candidates build on their knowledge, skills, experiences and strategies acquired during preliminary preparation for teaching students with disabilities, students in the general education classroom who are at risk and students who are gifted and talented. Each candidate will review and learn application principles for the statutory provisions of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act (IDEA), and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, discuss and reflect on subsequent changes in the Acts, statutory and/or local provisions relating to the education of students who are gifted and talented. A culminating leadership project reflecting collaboration, differentiation strategies, and student advocacy serves as the signature assignment.

2. Dispositions Assessments

Candidates will self-assess at the beginning and at the end of the CLEAR program:

- Introductory Self-Assessment (GED673)
(Students will upload Self-Assessment into TaskStream)
- Final Disposition Assessment by candidates (GED673)
(Students will upload Self-Assessment into TaskStream)

Candidates will also receive assessments from:

- Course professors in GED642 and GED673
- Seminar Professor, School Site Mentor, and the University Mentors in the Clear Credential Program (GED673)

The rubric criteria for assessing candidate dispositions are the following, scored on a 4-point scale from 1, unacceptable, 2, below proficient, 3, proficient to 4, exceptional.

Rubric Criteria
1. Dignity & Honor: The candidate honors and respects the worthiness of all individuals in word and deed based on PLNU's Wesleyan heritage: We are individuals created in the image of God, committed to civility, respect, hospitality, grace, and service.
2. Honesty & Integrity: The candidate demonstrates honesty, integrity, and coherence in attitudes, and actions, and is accountable to the norms and expectations of the learning community.
3. Caring, Patience, and Respect: The candidate demonstrates caring, patience, fairness and respect for the knowledge level, diversity, and abilities of others, ensuring that all students have the opportunity to achieve.
4. Spirit of Collaboration, Flexibility and Humility: The candidate actively participates in and contributes to the achievement of the learning community, explaining own thought process with humility and considers those of others with a positive, open-minded attitude.

5. Harmony in Learning Community: The candidate takes responsibility for resolving conflicts or issues with others, and teaches students those skills, in a way that sustains and enhances a healthy and safe learning community.

6. Self-Awareness/Calling: The candidate shows awareness of areas of strength, interests, learning style, and areas for continuing growth; generates and follows through on personalized growth plans. The candidate demonstrates that serving as a professional educator is a confirmed calling to equip, to transform and to empower every student to fulfill his or her full potential.

7. Perseverance with Challenge: The candidate perseveres, remains engaged, and persists as a life-long learner, especially when academic and professional assignments are perceived as challenging.

8. Diligence in Work Habits & Responsibility for Learning: The candidate attends to the roles and responsibilities of the learning community, and is well-prepared and on time. The candidate completes required assignments on time and is reflective and receptive to formative feedback.
