

Master of Arts in Education: Concentration in Education Leadership
Clear Administrative Services Credential
Use of Evidence of Student Learning
2011-12

GED 796 Plan for Improvement

The candidates scored themselves very highly in these areas. In their plan they will be expected to apply these dispositions to the challenges that face them. In the future, the department will confer with coaches to help candidates apply how their personal skills transfer into their new job responsibilities.

GED 797 Plan for Improvement

At this point in the program coaches would expect to see strong dispositional skills exhibited by the candidates. Individual candidates are counseled if their dispositions fall below a three on a four point scale.