

Liberty Station Sophomore Skills Lab

While in their Sophomore year, the BSN class of 2014, became the inaugural nursing class to study at our new Liberty Station location. They are our pioneers! The pictures that follow were taken of some of them learning with their faculty in our brand new expanded skills lab during one of their first clinical sessions during the Spring 2012 semester.

