PLNU Mission: To teach ~ to shape ~ to send:

Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service becomes an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we aspire to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

GE Mission:

PLNU provides a foundational course of study in the liberal arts informed by the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. In keeping with the Wesleyan tradition, the curriculum equips students with a broad range of knowledge and skills within and across disciplines to enrich major study, lifelong learning, and vocational service as Christ-like participants in the world's diverse societies and cultures.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

An introductory course emphasizing four basic skills: aural comprehension, speaking, reading, and writing. Also noted is the cultural and historical background of the areas where the language is spoken. Participation and active use of the language is emphasized in the classroom.

GENERAL EDUCATION COURSE:

Elementary Spanish is one of the components of the General Education program at PLNU, under the category of Seeking Cultural Perspectives. By including this course in a common educational experience for undergraduates, the faculty supports the survey of human endeavors from a historical, cultural, linguistic and philosophical perspective, including developing critical appreciation of human expression—both artistic and literary.

Late work is deducted 10% per day. The lowest 4 scores are dropped. *Accent marks count. order to meet the requirements of this 4-unit course and perform well, there is an expectation of 6-8 hours of homework per week.

Incompletes will only be assigned in extremely unusual circumstances.

FINAL EXAMINATION POLICY

Successful completion of this class requires taking the final examination on its scheduled day. The final examination schedule is posted on the Class Schedules site. No requests for early examinations or alternative days will be approved.

PLNU COPYRIGHT POLICY

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.

PLNU ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

PLNU ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

If you have a diagnosed disability, please contact PLNU's Disability Resource Center (DRC) within the first two weeks of class to demonstrate need and to register for accommodation by phone at 619-849-2486 or by e-mail at DRC@pointloma.edu. See Disability Resource Center for additional information.

PLNU ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION POLICY

Regular and punctual attendance at all classes is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent from more than 10 percent of class meetings, the faculty member can file a written report which may result in de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation. See Academic Policies in the Undergraduate Academic Catalog.

SPECIFIC CLASS ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION POLICY

Each class period includes mandatory participation in group and pair activities, verbal practice, and learning new grammar skills. Therefore, students are receiving credit for being present and losing that credit if they are absent. After 2 "freebies", for each absence, 1% of the final grade is deducted. Students are expected to come to class prepared and to be active participants in their own learning for the duration of the class period.

After 10 unexcused absences, students will be notified for possible de-enrollment; after 12 unexcused absences (20% of the class), students will be given an "F" as their final grade.

Our classroom environment will be one of "mutual respect" and a "community of learning." What this means is that you should not be embarrassed or discouraged to participate—and mistakes will be considered part of the learning process that everyone can benefit from. If you do not understand something, do not hesitate to ask for further explanation. Participation means coming to class with a positive attitude, making original comments in Spanish while not speaking English or getting off task. You will need to bring your online or loose-leaf textbook to class. NOTE: Class time is for engaging in Spanish activities and maximizing our time together. Cell phones or laptops may only be used for relevant in-class activities.

CULTURAL CREDIT

Students will be required to participate in 3 different cultural activities. Students can participate in the Student Ministry volunteer opportunities, attend a Spanish church service, attend cultural events such as Día de los Muertos, dance classes, film festivals, performances and shows, Ministry with Mexico weekend or day trips, or other activities put on by the community for the community. All activities must include proof of attendance (church program, photographs of yourself at event, tickets, etc) and a brief description of what you did. You will turn in all culture materials together at the end of the semester with a title page detailing your activities.

TALK ABROAD CONVERSATION

You will sign up on <https://talkabroad.com/> for one 30-minute conversation with a native Spanish speaker. Code for purchase is at bookstore or directly on the talkabroad website, then you register for the correct Cronovich section online. Appointments for the conversations must be scheduled at least 36 hours in advance. You will prepare an interview-style conversation based on the vocabulary and grammar that we cover in class. You are responsible for preparing your questions and personal answers and for choosing a partner and scheduling the 30-minute video-chat. Make sure you submit the conversation when you provide feedback. The conversation is to be completed, at the very latest, by 11:59pm FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30. For lateness, 20% is deducted per day.
