Final Exam: Wednesday, December 13, 10:30am-1:00pm. Location TBA. No exceptions!

Course Description (Descripción del curso):

An introductory course emphasizing four basic skills: aural comprehension, speaking, reading, and writing. Also noted is the cultural and historical background of the areas where the language is spoken. Participation and active use of the language is emphasized in the classroom.

General Education Course

Elementary Spanish is one of the components of the General Education program at PLNU, under the category of Seeking Cultural Perspectives. By including this course in a common educational experience for undergraduates, the faculty supports the survey of human endeavors from a historical, cultural, linguistic and philosophical perspective, including developing critical appreciation of human expression—both artistic and literary.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs):

By the end of the SPA 101-102 sequence, students will be able to:

1. Speak at the mid to high novice level using basic formulaic and memorized materials within the student's own experience.
2. Recognize basic connected discourse that uses vocabulary and grammar within the student's own experience.
3. Write discrete sentences as well as simple connected paragraphs using memorized vocabulary and grammar structures.
4. Read cultural texts that employ familiar vocabulary and cognates as well as learned grammatical structures.
5. Demonstrate comprehension of basic cultural mores and patterns of living of the target culture(s) studied.

PLNU Mission (To Teach ~ To Shape ~ To Send):

Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service is an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we strive to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

800-829	B-	630-679	D

Extra Credit: Students can memorize and write out Bible verses in Spanish (1 per test / 2 points each). Professor will provide the verse before each test. Extra credit may be given for attending film forums, cultural events or possible field trips, and must be approved by the professor. Please see description #4 below, on the 3 “C”s.

Course Policies:

Student Responsibilities (Responsabilidades del/ de la estudiante):

1. Class participation and attendance (La asistencia y la participación en clase): Regular and punctual attendance in all classes for which a student is registered is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. Therefore, regular attendance and participation in each class of the course are two of the course requirements to be met. There are no allowed or excused absences except when absences are necessitated by certain university sponsored activities and approved in writing by the Provost of the university. Any day a student is absent he/she loses 10 points on the class attendance and participation grade. You must be in class to participate, since we do conversation, review, and active practice of the material. The first two absences do not count, but after, 1% of grade will be deducted per absence (10 points per absence). After 6 unexcused absences, the professor reserves the right to de-enroll the student from the class. After 12 absences (20% of the grade), a student cannot pass the class, and will receive an F for the course (per university policy). Also, coming late twice equals one absence. Students are expected to come to class prepared, and to be active participants in their own learning for the duration of the class period. Our classroom environment will be one of “mutual respect” and a “community of learning.” What this means is that you should not be embarrassed or discouraged to participate—and mistakes will be considered part of the learning process that everyone can benefit from. If you do not understand something, do not hesitate to ask for further explanation. Participation means coming to class with a positive attitude, making original comments in Spanish while not speaking English or getting off task. NOTE: Class time is not free time to browse the internet or to text message friends. Since we have an online component for the class, students have permission to use phones and laptops, but only for the course materials. Not paying attention in class and/or participating in these activities will affect your participation grade. If I see you texting or using a laptop for something different than the class exercises, I will take off 5-10 points for participation for the day. I may not even call your attention or stop class, as learning and practicing Spanish with the class is my first priority. DO NOT be surprised at the end of the semester if your grade is lower than you think because you have not followed these guidelines. IMPORTANT NOTE: It is EXTREMELY important and necessary to study and review the material the day before by completing the online homework and assignments. Students should come to class with a basic understanding of the material and be ready to participate in activities and practice with the material already. Class time will be used to practice and review, not just go over the grammar or vocabulary of the lesson. The professor will provide some handouts to practice from time to time, but students need to spend at least 1 hour of preparation per lesson. If it is obvious that students are not preparing and studying, this will directly affect the participation grade in the class.

2. Tests (Exámenes): There will be a test given after every two chapters during the term. It will be imperative to do a thorough review before each test since the material is cumulative. There are no make up exams. There will also be a departmental final exam. The final exam is comprehensive. There will also be vocabulary quizzes for each chapter, and two short grammar quizzes (TBA or pop quizzes) throughout the semester.

3. Language Laboratory (Laboratorio de lenguas): We will meet once a week in the lab and will do a variety of exercises, see cultural materials, etc. Check your schedule for meeting days. While in the lab, computers may be used only when the professor gives permission to use them. If you browse the internet while class is going on, it will most definitely affect your participation grade in a negative way, the same as using a cell phone in class. You can also use the lab outside of class time to do homework online, listen to audio materials, practice Quizlet, etc. Please check the lab schedule, since other classes are scheduled at various times.

4. The 3 “C”s: Culture, Community, Church: Students will be offered to participate in some activities outside of class, all for extra credit. Students can choose an approved cultural event (film, concert, museum, presentation, show, etc.); community involvement (volunteering, visiting with a Spanish-speaking family, attending a community function where Spanish is spoken, etc.); and finally, church: this includes attending a church service in Spanish and/or a bible study where Spanish is the language of instruction. (Professor will give possible ideas and try to provide options in class). Students must do a brief response paper (one page, in Spanish or English) on what they do, and make sure to turn it in. Sometimes the professor will provide a worksheet to fill out with questions to answer instead of a write-up. All activities must be pre-approved by the professor. Students can receive up to 30 points extra credit, depending on level of involvement. Normally, each activity will be worth 10 points, with a limit of 3 per semester. If you choose a museum, church, film etc. it is necessary to take a photo of yourself at the event, and also get either a ticket stub or brochure showing that you were there.

5. Cultural Engagement Assignment (Tarea cultural): Students will be required to complete two cultural engagement assignments during the semester, such as interviewing a Spanish speaker, attending a cultural event (and answering questions etc.), or watching a film in Spanish. The professor will provide more information in class. Although these assignments are similar in scope to the extra credit possibilities, cultural engagement assignments are specific events or activities that challenge students to get out and see something concerning Spanish-speaking culture in the San Diego/Tijuana area. Not just any assignment can fulfill this requirement; the activities will be approved and chosen by the professor. Once you have finished your cultural engagement assignments, if there are more opportunities available, you can then do the activities for extra credit.

6. Conversation (Conversación): Students will have the opportunity to attend conversation sessions for extra credit. Professor will provide times for a Spanish Coffee Hour, or conversation sessions that can be done by appointment or during office hours. The idea is to not talk about grammar and class review, but to simply practice conversational Spanish. It is a good idea to arrange a small group ahead of time to have more interaction. An hour of conversation is worth the limit of 10 extra credit points, but students are encouraged to keep practicing and improving their Spanish even after receiving the 10 points. More information will be provided in class.

PLNU Copyright Policy

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.

Academic Honesty

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts, as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

Academic Accommodations

If you have a diagnosed disability, please contact PLNU's Disability Resource Center (DRC) within the first two weeks of class to demonstrate need and to register for accommodation by phone at 619-849-2486 or by e-mail at DRC@pointloma.edu. See Disability Resource Center for additional information.

Attendance and Participation

Regular and punctual attendance at all classes is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent from more than 10 percent of class meetings, the faculty member can file a written report, which may result in de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation. See Academic Policies in the Undergraduate Academic Catalog.

NOTE: It is the student's responsibility to maintain his/her class schedule. Should the need arise to drop this course (personal emergencies, poor performance, etc.), the student has the responsibility to follow through (provided the drop date meets the stated calendar deadline established by the university), not the instructor. Simply ceasing to attend this course or failing to follow through to arrange for a change of registration (drop/add) may easily result in a grade of F on the official transcript.

Ferpa Policy

In compliance with federal law, neither PLNU student ID nor social security number should be used in publicly posted grades or returned sets of assignments without student written permission. This class will meet the federal requirements by (Note: each faculty member should choose one strategy to use: distributing all grades and papers individually; requesting and filing written student permission; or assigning each student a unique class ID number not identifiable on the alphabetic roster.) Also in compliance with FERPA, you will be the only person given information about your progress in this class unless you have designated others to receive it in the "Informational Release" section of the student portal.

Final Examination Policy

Successful completion of this class requires taking the final examination on its scheduled day. The final examination is posted on the class schedules site. No requests for early examinations or alternative days will be approved.
