ASSESSMENT AND GRADING

The course will consist of independent work with submissions of your work throughout the semester on Canvas.

All assignments must be completed at a satisfactory level to pass the course. If one's missing, you will not get credit for the course. Any work submitted that is submitted but does not meet the criteria for completion will be marked as “incomplete” and require improvement. The assignment should be resubmitted within a week (7 days) after being notified that it needs to be improved. If the assignment remains unsatisfactory after that week, I will contact you to discuss your interest in remaining enrolled in, and passing, the course.

INCOMPLETES AND LATE ASSIGNMENTS

All assignments are to be submitted by the dates posted in Canvas. Habitual late submissions will result in a conversation about your interest in remaining enrolled in, and passing, the course.

PLNU COPYRIGHT POLICY

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.

PLNU ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

PLNU ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

If you have a diagnosed disability, please contact PLNU's Disability Resource Center (DRC) to demonstrate need and to register for accommodation by phone at 619-849-2486 or by e-mail at DRC@pointloma.edu. See Disability Resource Center for additional information.

INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATIONS TECHNOLOGY

While technological resources have made it possible to exchange messages at a greater rate, particularly through email, please remember that just because you're available to send a message doesn't mean I'm available to respond to those messages. I especially frown upon frantic emails sent hours before an exam or assignment. I typically respond to email within one 24-hour school day (M – F). For example, if you email me at 1:00pm on Wednesday afternoon, I will typically respond by 1:00pm on or before 1:00pm on Thursday afternoon. If you email me at 9:00 am on Saturday morning, I will typically respond on or before 9 am on Tuesday morning. It is your responsibility to plan ahead.

ASSIGNMENTS AND READINGS

All assignments must be typed (double-spaced, 8.5" x 11" paper, one-side, 225-250 wpp, 1" margins, 12pt font, Times New Roman or Courier typeface) unless otherwise instructed. Use the APA style guide where necessary (see <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/> for formatting assistance).

The most likely time for your computer/internet connection to crash or printer to die/run out of ink, is minutes before an assignment is due. Please plan ahead.

ASSIGNMENTS INSTRUCTIONS, RUBRICS, AND CALENDAR

Write a two page personal statement providing a brief life history, commitment to Christian faith (if applicable), and statement of future goals. The third page should include a time line of future plans in five-year increments from 20-60 years old. The time line can and should include personal, education and vocational goals.

A visit to one of the "Career Lab" (<https://www.plnucareercenter.com/lab>) sessions will fulfill the minimum requirements for your OSV interaction. You take them a printed copy of your Resume, Cover Letter, and the Job Description you wrote them for and they will give you feedback and sign your confirmation form.
