To Teach ~ To Shape ~ To Send

Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service becomes an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we aspire to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

Course description

An introductory course emphasizing four basic skills: aural comprehension, speaking, reading, and writing. Also noted is the cultural and historical background of the areas where the language is spoken. Participation and active use of the language is emphasized in the classroom. Offered fall, spring, and summer.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES (CLOs)

By the end of the 101-102 sequence, students will be able to:

1. Speak at the mid to high novice level using basic formulaic and memorized materials within the student's own experience.
2. Recognize basic connected discourse that uses vocabulary and grammar within the student's own experience.
3. Write discrete sentences as well as simple connected paragraphs using memorized vocabulary and grammar structures.
4. Read cultural texts that employ familiar vocabulary and cognates as well as learned grammatical structures.
5. Demonstrate comprehension of basic cultural mores and patterns of living of the target culture(s) studied.

COURSE CREDIT HOUR INFORMATION

This class meets the Carnegie Unit minimum requirement of 750 minutes of instructional time + 1500 minutes of out-of-class work per 1 unit of credit. Specific details about how the class meets these requirements are included here in the course syllabus.

REQUIRED TEXT: Portales. Introductory Spanish. Blanco, Donley with Supersite Plus Code. This class requires technology access: This is the only way to complete your online assignments and assessments, and access study tools, media, your scores, and more for the main textbook.

<https://vistahigherlearning.com/school/pointloma/>

Students may use the v-text(laptop)in class only for class activities however, failing of devices will not be accepted as an excuse for not participating in all class activities. I STRONGLY RECOMMEND TO USE THE LOOSE-LEAF VERSION OF YOUR CLASS TEXT. Text is a must from the first day of class. Each student must bring the required textbook/materials to class in order to participate in class activities. Failure to do so will result in 1% deducted from the participation percentage. No sharing of textbooks/v-text is permitted under any circumstances.

GRADE BREAKDOWN		GRADE SCALE

INCOMPLETES AND LATE ASSIGNMENTS

All assignments are to be submitted/turned in by the beginning of the class session when they are due. Late assignments will not be accepted including online assignments. Course Incompletes will only be assigned in extremely unusual circumstances.

Please use black or classic blue ink for all your classwork and homework and college ruled notebook.

FINAL EXAMINATION POLICY

Successful completion of this class requires taking the final examination on its scheduled day. The final examination schedule is posted on the Class Schedules site. No requests for early examinations or alternative days will be approved.

In the rare case that a student is scheduled for more than three (3) final examinations on the same day, the student is authorized to contact each professor in order to work out an alternate time for one of those examinations. Department chairs/school deans and college deans need not be involved in the process of making this accommodation.

FINAL EXAM DATE & TIME	FINAL EXAM LOCATION
Monday, May 4 from 7:30 to 10:00 P.M	Liberty Station

EXAMS:

There will be eight chapter exams during the semester. There are no make up exams. Even if a student knows he/she is going to miss an exam, he/she cannot take that missed test ahead of time. To compensate for unforeseen circumstances that may prevent students from taking a chapter exam (illness, car trouble, airport delays, doctor's appointments, etc.), I drop students' lowest chapter test. Any exam not taken will automatically turn into an "F". Exam dates may be changed. Students will have only 55 minutes to take each chapter exam.

QUIZZES:

Oral and written quizzes may be unannounced and given, most of the time, after a new material is presented. There will be no make up quizzes, unless accompanied by a doctor's excuse. A NOTE FROM THE WELLNESS CENTER IS NOT AN EXCUSED ABSENCE.

ONLINE ASSIGNMENTS

Students may have problems with the online work, but these should not be excuses for not completing assigned work. Do not forget to save your finished work.

Comprehensive Final Exam (10%): This will cover all material covered in class, online and in the book.

TalkAbroad

Section Name:

KOSONoy 1001-1 SPRING20

KOSONoy 1001-2 SPRING20

Section Code:

Koson2020-108525

Koson2020-314464

All 1001 students must complete one conversation with Talk Abroad (available in the Bookstore). This conversation must be completed by April 24 so please make your reservation with plenty of time. No excuses will be accepted for not finishing it on time. Your conversation will be recorded so I can have access to it. This conversation will be graded based on vocabulary, grammar and clarity.

Cultural Events

All 1001 students must attend to 4 approved Cultural Events. We define Cultural Events as events put on by the Hispanic Community for the Hispanic Community or events approved by the Professor.

Cultural Events Portfolio (5%)

Students are required to attend 4 approved Cultural Events during the semester. The reflections for each of the four events will be collected together in portfolio form on FRIDAY, April 24 AT THE BEGINNING OF CLASS just like any other homework(no exceptions and no partial credit) Required Components:

- Cover Page with name, title and table of contents
- Each event must be titled and have the student's name on it.
- Any materials acquired from the event should be attached to the corresponding event (for example, ticket stubs, photos including yourself in it, programs, etc.)
- Final Reflection: Based on your experiences with cultural readings, presentations and/or attendance at cultural events, discuss your understanding of some of the differences in ideas, experiences, customs, habits and culture of the diverse groups observed. The student will be graded according to his or her ½ page (double spaced, font 12)content for each cultural event. This can be written in English.

NO CREDIT/PARTIAL CREDIT WILL BE GRANTED IF THE REQUIRED COMPONENTS ARE NOT FOLLOWED.

Examples of cultural events

- 1.) Mass in Spanish
- 2.) Concerts in Spanish
- 3.) Salsa class/or any Spanish or Latin dance
- 4.) Exhibitions(any art from a Latin/Hispanic artist

I will do my best to provide the student with information about any events I can find in San Diego. However, it is the student's responsibility to look for the required events.

 EATING AT RESTAURANTS, VISITING HISTORIC PLACES OR WRITE ABOUT PERSONAL VACATION IN A LATIN COUNTRY WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED AS CULTURAL EVENTS.

 NO HANDWRITTEN OR LATE PORTFOLIOS WILL GET CREDIT.

CLASS POLICIES:

a) It is the student's responsibility to come prepared for the lesson for the day. Neither absence or tardiness will be considered an excuse for missing assignments, incomplete work, or otherwise not keeping up with class activities.

b) The participation portion of the grade is based mostly on the student's active and voluntary participation in class activities; obviously, if you do not attend, you cannot participate. Failure to attend classes will result in lowered grades.

c) Absences are counted from the first official meeting of the class regardless of the date the student's enrollment. A student who registers late must be careful about regular attendance during the remaining of the semester. No more than 100 minutes will be allowed for the whole semester, so please save them for the emergencies that always arise during the semester. A student will lose 1% of his/her final grade for every 50 minutes missed after the 100 minutes allowed. Leaving early or arriving late (including the days we meet at the lab) will count as missing time and therefore against your grade. After 6 unexcused absences, the professor reserves the right to de-enroll the student from the class. After 12 absences (20% of the grade), a student cannot pass the class, and will receive an F for the course (per university policy). AT ANY TIME DURING THE SEMESTER, the student will receive an automatic F for the course regardless of his or her test scores, etc. See Academic Policies in the Undergraduate Academic Catalog.

d) Tardy attendance is not a big problem once in a while, but when one student is tardy several times, then the entire class is disrupted. Three tardies (one to fourteen minutes) will equal 55 minutes. Any tardies in excess of 15 minutes will be counted as an absence (according to the catalog). A student is late when arriving after his/her name was called. It is the student's responsibility to let the instructor know within the same week that he/she was late otherwise a tardy will become an absence. A student may be dropped from the roll as a result of excessive tardies. Homework is late when the student is late.

e) The written portion of the grade is made up of all written work, which will include homework, online assignments, class work, compositions and other assignments. All written work must be neat, free of drawings and scribbles, use classic blue/black ink or pencil and college ruled paper, avoid using torn paper to hand in your homework otherwise credit will not be granted. Homework is to be handed in at the beginning of the class session please do not expect your professor to ask for it. Any homework handed in during class or at the end of the session will be considered late and therefore no credit will be granted. Please understand that if a student is late then his/her homework will be late. Students must submit the assigned online work by the due date. NO LATE WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED/NO PARTIAL CREDIT..

f) During each class period, students must give the class their full attention. Unacceptable behaviors will not be tolerated in class. These include: doing assigned homework in class, talking while a lecture or discussion is underway, reading or writing material not pertaining to this class, sleeping or yawning through class. USING A LAPTOP FOR OTHER PURPOSES THAN TO HAVE ACCESS TO THE V-TEXT. If a student is caught doing or studying material for another class, or using the laptop for other purposes than class material it will be counted as an absence and 1% percent will be deducted from the participation percentage.

g) Final examination will cover all material studied during the semester. Please be aware that all work will be recorded as well as each tardy, absence etc.

POLICY ON CELL PHONES/ELECTRONIC TRANSLATORS/IPODS:

h) Cell phones must be turned OFF upon entering the classroom and kept away from you during class (not on desk, not in your lap, not in your pocket, not visible in your backpack or purse, and absolutely no texting.) Do not use your cell phone during class for ANY reason, even to look at the time or use it as a translator. In addition, electronic translators are not allowed in the classroom. Please understand that the use of such devices interfere with the learning process of students. Should a violation of this policy occurs, the student will be marked absent for that day. NO EXCUSES FOR USING THEM IN CLASS.

STUDENTS MAY ONLY USE LAPTOPS OR IPAD TO HAVE ACCESS TO THE V TEXT INSTEAD OF THE LOOSE LEAF TEXT VERSION (WHICH IS STRONGLY RECOMMENDED). PLEASE UNDERSTAND THAT IT IS VERY OBVIOUS WHEN A STUDENT IS NOT USING HIS/HER LAPTOP IPAD FOR CLASS PURPOSES. If the student is caught using his/her laptop or iPad for other purposes than class activities then the student will be marked as an absence.

i) No caps, hats or dark glasses during exam . STUDENTS MUST NOT LEAVE THE CLASSROOM WHEN TAKING AN EXAM. NO EXCUSES.

j) Students who are absent from class for school related activities must provide me with a hard copy of the official excused email sent by their coaches, professors etc. The student is responsible for all make-up class work that he/she may have missed related to school activities with the professor approval or

k) Students will not be allowed to leave the classroom during exams.

Note that class policy applies to all students regardless of their status.

USE OF TECHNOLOGY

Point Loma Nazarene University encourages the use of technology for learning, communication, and collaboration. This course requires access to computers, software programs, and the Internet. At some point during the semester you will have a problem with technology, but these problems will not normally be accepted as excuses for unfinished work. Protect yourself by doing the following: Save work often and make regular backups of files in a different location from the originals, plan ahead so that you will have time to use the on-campus computers and printers if necessary, and practice safe computing when surfing the web and checking email.

TUTORIAL SERVICES

The PLNU Tutorial Center is available free of charge for all current undergraduate PLNU students. It offers tutoring for most subjects, as well as general help with paper editing, study skills, etc. The Tutorial Center is located on the south end of Bond Academic Center, next to the Study Abroad offices. The Tutorial Centers is typically open Monday-Thursday from 8:00 AM until 9:00 PM and Friday from 8:00 AM until 3:00PM. Please note that the Tutorial Center is closed from 9:30-10:30 AM, Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, and 5:00-6:00 PM every evening. Tutoring is available by appointment only, and appointments must be made at least one day in advance. Appointments may be arranged in person at the Tutorial Center, over the phone at (619) 849-2593, or via email at Tutorial_Services@pointloma.edu.

Please note: All students in elementary Spanish will be taking the final exam at the same time. There are no exceptions. Please arrange your schedule accordingly.

NOTE: It is the student's responsibility to maintain his/her class schedule. Should the need arise to drop this course (personal emergencies, poor performance, etc.), the student has the responsibility to follow through (provided the drop date meets the stated calendar deadline established by the university), not the instructor. Simply ceasing to attend this course or failing to follow through to arrange for a change of registration (drop/add) may easily result in a grade of F on the official transcript.

The instructor reserves the right to alter this document at any time during the semester.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

If you have a diagnosed disability, please contact PLNU's Disability Resource Center (DRC) within the first two weeks of class to demonstrate need and to register for accommodation by phone at 619-849-2486 or by e-mail at DRC@pointloma.edu. See Disability Resource Center for additional information.
