

Strategic Planning Meeting Notes
December 17, 2014

Transformational Learning

- Passion that is grounded in preparedness
- Ability to apply knowledge and skills
- Synthesis of information to solve problems
- Integrated learning – curricular/co-curricular connections
- Sense of vocation along the way (self report)
- E-portfolios show transformation: academically, vocationally, character building
- Programs that develop emotional intelligence
- Develop grit, problem skills
- Self-report positive changes in themselves
- Sense of vocation
- Vibrant spiritual life
- Ability to use critical thinking
- Institutional changes to foster transformational learning
- Employer feedback indicating this happened
- Students coaching other students

Student Success

- Student satisfaction rates
- Graduation rates
- Retention rates
- Students engagement
- Holistic preparedness for life
- Self-awareness
- Competence in area of study
- Web of support
- Students knowing themselves
- Students using their strengths in the world
- Employers positive report
- Lower DFW rates
- Low default rate
- Success with middle third
- Faith community engagement
- Increase alumni participation
- Service oriented
- Spirit of generosity and philanthropy
- Connecting the dots between career and major

Thriving Financially

- Incubator programs for students to develop business skills
- Student's ability to pay back loans faster
- Success coaches for students with lower GPA's
- Increase donations
- Lack of dependence on tuition
- Financial flexibility

- Financial sustainability
- Improved facilities – residential and teaching spaces
- Increased technologies
- Increased instructional technologists
- Affordability for middle class family