Good afternoon GSC,

We have an additional action item for the day. We have an exception under admission candidate, D.G., to review. The petition and supporting materials are attached. This potential student is desiring to enter the administrative credential program. You will see that his GPA is low so normally he would need to take the CBEST and CSET. He completed a Career Tech program which is not a traditional teacher prep program through a university. Thus, his case is a bit different. He has been working as a teacher for the past 7 years in San Diego and thus has not been asked to take these two tests.

Please let me know your thoughts on this case. Once again, I have the policy attached.

Thanks,

Holly
