PLNU Mission

To Teach ~ To Shape ~ To Send

Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service is an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we strive to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Provides students with the theory and organization of newscasts, as well as skills in conducting live news remotes, coordinating newscasts, supervising news personnel, anchoring, using news production software, and applying advanced reporting skills in various news situations.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Achieve a better understanding of the broadcast news industry and newsroom operations.
- Demonstrate the knowledge necessary to produce a newscast and write news copy clearly and accurately for broadcast and digital platforms.
- Create and present news stories based on accepted industry standards for the appropriate medium, including social media.
- Exhibit ethical decision making in story selection and in how content is presented.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

- This is an advanced course, which means you should already have mastered the basics of reporting, writing and editing television news stories. My goal is to help you improve and give you the knowledge you need to hone those skills.
- Attire: When reporting stories, students must dress as news professionals (no jeans, cutoffs, shorts, t-shirts, hats, etc.). Students appearing on camera during a newscast or for a news story must wear appropriate attire.

COURSE CREDIT HOUR INFORMATION

In the interest of providing sufficient time to accomplish the stated Course Learning Outcomes, this class meets the PLNU credit hour policy for a 3-unit class. Specific details about how the class meets the credit hour requirement can be provided upon request.

STATE AUTHORIZATION

State authorization is a formal determination by a state that Point Loma Nazarene University is approved to conduct activities regulated by that state. In certain states outside California, Point Loma Nazarene University is not authorized to enroll online (distance education) students. If a student moves to another state after admission to the program and/or enrollment in an online course, continuation within the program and/or course will depend on whether Point Loma Nazarene University is authorized to offer distance education courses in that state. It is the student's responsibility to notify the institution of any change in his or her physical location. Refer to the map on State Authorization to view which states allow online (distance education) outside of California.

INCOMPLETES AND LATE ASSIGNMENTS

All assignments are to be submitted/turned in by the beginning of the class session when they are due—including assignments posted in Canvas. Incompletes will only be assigned in extremely unusual circumstances.

PLNU COPYRIGHT POLICY

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.

PLNU ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

PLNU ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

If you have a diagnosed disability, please contact PLNU's Disability Resource Center (DRC) within the first two weeks of class to demonstrate need and to register for accommodation by phone at 619-849-2486 or by e-mail at DRC@pointloma.edu. See Disability Resource Center for additional information.

PLNU ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION POLICY

Regular and punctual attendance at all synchronous class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent for more than 10 percent of class sessions (virtual or face-to-face), the faculty member will issue a written warning of de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation. In some courses, a portion of the credit hour content will be delivered asynchronously and attendance will be determined by submitting the assignments by the posted due dates. See Academic Policies in the Undergraduate Academic Catalog. If absences exceed these limits but are due to university excused health issues, an exception will be granted.

Asynchronous Attendance/Participation Definition

A day of attendance in asynchronous content is determined as contributing a substantive note, assignment, discussion, or submission by the posted due date. Failure to meet these standards will result in an absence for that day. Instructors will determine how many asynchronous attendance days are required each week.

USE OF TECHNOLOGY

In order to be successful in the online environment, you'll need to meet the minimum technology and system requirements; please refer to the Technology and System Requirements information. Additionally, students are required to have headphone speakers compatible with their computer available to use. If a student is in need of technological resources please contact student-tech-request@pointloma.edu. Problems with technology do not relieve you of the responsibility of participating, turning in your assignments, or completing your classwork.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

News Viewing Critiques:

Description: Students will watch at least one-half hour of local TV news each week AND consume/experience/watch/read 30 minutes of other non-traditional/non-mainstream news content each week. You will individually watch and critique one local newscast each week. You must also be up to speed on local, national and international news.

Requirements: Write a critique of the news you consumed. Once a week students are expected to write about the news they are consuming. The critiques should be thoughtful and well written. They can be added to this Google Doc. While critiquing the news you are consuming, consider the following:

- Did you feel the news was trustworthy and unbiased? Why/Why Not?
- What was the purpose of the news you consumed? Was it meant to inform? Persuade? Make you feel good? Get you to take action? Uncover something?
- How was the storytelling? Was the story engaging? Was it boring?
- Would you change anything about the news content? Could it be more visually appealing? Better writing? Did it leave you left with unanswered questions?

News stories/Digital Content:

Description: Students will produce video content meant for a TV newscast or film/video consumption.

Requirements: Stories must be newsworthy and timely. Students are expected to produce four pieces of content throughout the semester (due dates for content can be found here) and must choose between the following categories below. Students cannot produce a piece of content from the same category more than once. One of the four stories has to be meant for a digital audience.

- | | |
|-----------------------|---------------|
| ● Election 2020 | Entertainment |
| ● COVID-19 | Health |
| ● Environment | Crime |
| ● Business/Technology | Education |
| ● Sports | Investigative |

FOIA/CPRA Request:

Description: Students will research, write and submit at least one FOIA or CPRA request.

Requirements: Students are responsible for writing the request and submitting it to the proper agency. The student is also responsible for following up with the request and ideally is able to receive documents back from an agency to produce video content. When the assignment is due (due dates can be found here) students will provide a copy of the original requests and any responses or back and forth received. The student will then decide if they can use the information to produce a story. In addition, students will be prepared to talk about the experience in class.

Show Booking Assignment:

Description: Students will schedule guests for a live broadcast TV show.

Requirements: Students must contact individuals to invite to a simulated TV show, plan the interviews (including conducting pre-interviews) and organize the rundown of the show (due dates found here).

Misinformation Assignment :

Description: Students will learn how to tell if information is misleading or created to deceive the public.

Requirements: Complete (due dates can be found here) the following online course and to test your knowledge of misinformation/disinformation and gain a better understanding of how to report on conspiracy theories and incorrect information shared online.

- Identifying and Tackling Manipulated Media
 - Geolocation Challenge
 - Observation Challenge

Rundown Assignment :

Description: Students will create a rundown for a TV news show based in San Diego, CA (due dates can be found here).

Requirements: Write stories for the show, select content for the show and decide what type of format content for the show will be presented in.
