University Mission Statement: Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service becomes an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we aspire to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

Course Description:

This course is designed as an introduction to clinical and community psychology. Topics of exploration include current psychological approaches to community intervention as well as the major theories, techniques, and ethics related to the practice of psychotherapy.

Catalog Description:

This course provides an overview of the fields of clinical and community psychology. It focuses on individual, family and systems, social-community, bio-psycho-social, and health interventions. Career directions within the mental health professions are introduced. Theories and interventions include cognitive-behavioral, humanistic-existential, psychodynamic, psychoanalytic, and systems. Focus is on how therapists apply therapeutic knowledge in a variety of settings.

Course Learning Outcomes:

1. Identify the major counseling theories and current approaches to psychotherapy including their major constructs, ethics, techniques, and target outcomes.
2. Apply the major theories of psychotherapy to various case studies including the formulation of case conceptualization(s) and the recommendation of appropriate intervention strategies.
3. Propose a pathway to a career in psychotherapy including the identification of a relevant graduate program, description of admission requirements, and assessment of personal fit for the program.
4. Formulate a case conceptualization based on an original case study and propose a relevant treatment plan from one of the major theories of psychotherapy.

Course Texts (Required):

Corey, G. (2013). Theory and practice of counseling and psychotherapy – 10th edition. Belmont, CA: Brooks/Cole.

Required supplemental readings for purchase from University Readers at the PLNU bookstore.

Course Requirements:

1. Participation: Participation is required and is figured into your final grade.
2. Reading Quizzes: Students are expected to read the assigned texts and complete all 10 reading quizzes. There will be no make-ups for any quiz without prior permission from the instructor and all quizzes are to be submitted on time. Descriptions of all quizzes are listed on canvas.
3. Application Assignments: There will be a total of 5 application assignments due throughout the semester. There will be no make-up for any assignment without prior permission from the instructor and all assignments are to be submitted on time. Descriptions of all application assignments and grading rubrics are listed on canvas.
4. Pathway to a Career in Psychotherapy Paper: Students are required to write a paper in which they will propose a pathway to a career in psychotherapy including the identification a relevant graduate program, a description of the admission requirements, and an assessment of personal fit for the program.
5. Therapeutic Orientation Paper: Students are required to write a paper in which they will be asked to apply one of the major theories of psychotherapy to the life of an imaginary client. A description of the therapeutic orientation paper and grading rubric is listed on canvas.
6. Exams: There are a total of four exams throughout the semester.

Course Policies:

1. Attendance: Students may choose to miss a total of 3 discussions for any reason throughout the semester. However, students risk being de-enrolled in the event that they miss 4 discussions or more (i.e., if absences exceed 20 percent of class meetings).
2. Exams and Quizzes: There will be no make-ups for any exam or quiz without prior permission from the instructor.
3. Papers: All papers are to be computer generated, 10-12 font, double spaced, referenced using APA style.

Attendance and Participation Policy:

Regular and punctual attendance at all synchronous class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent for more than 10 percent of class sessions (virtual or face-to-face), the faculty member will issue a written warning of de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation. In some courses, a portion of the credit hour content will be delivered asynchronously and attendance will be determined by submitting the assignments by the posted due dates. If absences exceed these limits but are due to university excused health issues, an exception will be granted. A day of attendance in asynchronous content is determined as contributing a substantive note, assignment, discussion, or submission by the posted due date. Failure to meet these standards will result in an absence for that day. Instructors will determine how many asynchronous attendance days are required each week. A complete description of the Academic Policies along can be found in the Undergraduate Academic Catalog.

Course Credit Hour Information:

In the interest of providing sufficient time to accomplish the stated Course Learning Outcomes, this class meets the PLNU credit hour policy for a 4 unit class delivered over 15 weeks. It is anticipated that students will spend a minimum of 37.5 participation hours per credit hour on their coursework. For this course, students will spend an estimated 150 total hours meeting the course learning outcomes. The time estimations are provided in the Canvas modules.

Academic Honesty Policy:

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty will follow and students may appeal using the procedures in the University Catalog. See the Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

Use of Technology

In order to be successful in the online environment, you'll need to meet the minimum technology and system requirements; please refer to the Technology and System Requirements information. Additionally, students are required to have headphone speakers compatible with their computer available to use. If a student is in need of technological resources please contact student-tech-request@pointloma.edu. Problems with technology do not relieve you of the responsibility of participating, turning in your assignments, or completing your class work.

Copyright Policy:

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside of the class may violate the law. More information on the PLNU Copyright Policy can be found online.

State Authorization

State authorization is a formal determination by a state that Point Loma Nazarene University is approved to conduct activities regulated by that state. In certain states outside California, Point Loma Nazarene University is not authorized to enroll online (distance education) students. If a student moves to another state after admission to the program and/or enrollment in an online course, continuation within the program and/or course will depend on whether Point Loma Nazarene University is authorized to offer distance education courses in that state. It is the student's responsibility to notify the institution of any change in his or her physical location. Refer to the map on State Authorization to view which states allow online (distance education) outside of California.

Academic Accommodations:

While all students are expected to meet the minimum standards for completion of this course as established by the instructor, students with disabilities may require academic adjustments, modifications, or auxiliary aids/services. At Point Loma Nazarene University (PLNU), these students are requested to register with the Disability Resource Center (DRC), located in the Bond Academic Center (DRC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2381). The DRC's policies and procedures for assisting such students in the development of an appropriate academic adjustment plan (AP) allows PLNU to comply with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act. Section 504(a) prohibits discrimination against students with special needs and guarantees all qualified students equal access to and benefits of PLNU programs and activities. After the student files the required documentation, the DRC, in conjunction with the student, will develop an AP to meet that student's specific learning needs. The DRC will thereafter email the student's AP to all faculty who teach course in which the student is enrolled each semester. The AP must be implemented in all such courses. If students do not wish to avail themselves of some or all of the elements of their AP in a particular course, it is the responsibility of those students to notify their professor in that course. PLNU highly recommends that DRC students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester about the applicability of their AP in that particular course and/or if they do not desire to take advantage of some or all of the elements of their AP in that course. Students may find additional support through other campus offices as well including the Office of Spiritual Development, the Tutorial Center, and/or the Wellness Center.

Introduction to Clinical and Community Interventions

Week 1 – On Being and Becoming a Therapist

Week 1 Overview

Unit 1 – Psychodynamic Approaches to Treatment

Week 3 – Theoretical Foundations to the Psychoanalytic Tradition

Week 3 Overview

This week we will introduce the psychoanalytic tradition and three of the major theories of psychotherapy related to the psychodynamic approach to treatment which include: Classical Psychoanalysis (S. Freud), Ego Psychology (A. Freud), and Self Psychology (Kohut).

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Review the major concepts, techniques, and target outcomes for the major theories of psychotherapy related to the psychodynamic approach to treatment.
2. Apply the major concepts of the psychodynamic approach to various case studies and recommend the appropriate interventions strategies.
3. Formulate a psychodynamic case conceptualization of various cases.

Tasks

1. Complete and respond to the online lectures before class discussions.
 - 9/1 – Class 5 (Online Lecture): Classical Psychoanalysis
 - 9/3 – Class 6 (Online Lecture): Ego and Self Psychology
2. Attend and participate in the class discussions.
 - 9/1 – Class 5 (Class Discussion): Classical Psychoanalysis
 - 9/3 – Class 6 (Class Discussion): Ego and Self Psychology

Required Readings and Associated Assignments
