PLNU Mission

To Teach ~ To Shape ~ To Send

Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service is an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we strive to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

Foundational Explorations Mission

PLNU provides a foundational course of study in the liberal arts informed by the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. In keeping with the Wesleyan tradition, the curriculum equips students with a broad range of knowledge and skills within and across disciplines to enrich major study, lifelong learning, and vocational service as Christ-like participants in the world's diverse societies and culture.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Designed for at least intermediate singers or instrumentalists, this course is a 30-minute lesson session per week. Students meet one-on-one with the teacher to study the art of singing/or the art of playing vocal/instrumental repertoire. The course will cover intensive exploration of skills such as score preparation, stylistic and musicological knowledge as applied to performance, practice technique, interpretation, performance preparation, listening and collaborating with accompanist, and (for vocalists) text, diction, and textual interpretation as related to musical score.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES ★

Due to the nature of the difference of individual skill levels, the learning outcomes will be personalized according to the needs of each individual student. Overall learning outcomes include:

Voice students will have a greater understanding of diction, text, and interpretation of assigned music.

Instrumental students will have a greater understanding of articulation, phrasing, and interpretation of assigned music.

Students will develop a greater knowledge of the language of music and understanding how the composer intends the music to be performed.

Students will acquire the skills needed for a more effective collaboration with a pianist such as listening, anticipating, breathing, interplay of musical parts, how to interpret the music, style, and phrasing.

FOUNDATIONAL EXPLORATIONS LEARNING OUTCOMES ★

Students who participate completely in this course and commit to the amount of time required should expect:

Thorough understanding of music assigned by voice/instrumental teachers.

Ability to communicate clearly with other collaborative artists.

More confidence in performance abilities and outlook in a variety of settings.

REQUIRED TEXTS AND RECOMMENDED STUDY RESOURCES

3-ring binder

List of pieces assigned by voice or instrumental instructor

Carefully prepared music placed in binder:

Music must be double-sided, three hole-punched, with all notes legible.

Voice students must have text translations and IPA available.

All music assigned by instructor must be available to be rehearsed.

Music needs to have the title, composer and lyricist written on the first page.

Pencil

Recording device.

Note – during distance learning, in addition to preparing a binder, student must scan and email music to Mary Boles. Music will be placed in a folder on google for instructor to access and place recordings of accompaniments for pieces.

COURSE CREDIT HOUR INFORMATION ★

In the interest of providing sufficient time to accomplish the stated Course Learning Outcomes, this class meets the PLNU credit hour policy for a 1 unit class delivered over 15 weeks. It is anticipated that students will spend a minimum of 37.5 participation hours per credit hour on their coursework. For this course, students will spend an estimated 37.5 total hours meeting the course learning outcomes. The time estimations are provided in the Canvas modules.

ASSESSMENT AND GRADING⊛

Assessment is based on:

Preparation for coaching sessions.

Music should be studied before coaching.

Background study of piece should be done:

Research entire work that piece is from (know the synopsis of opera, other movements, etc.)

Spend time with interpretation of text (vocalists)

Repertoire should be studied by listening to at least three different recordings and be prepared to discuss evaluation of specific recordings.

Improvement during and in-between coaching sessions.

There should be clear evidence of good rehearsal techniques.

Music should be memorized thoroughly and efficiently.

All repertoire should be studied every week.

Musicality, phrasing, correct placement of tone, consistently good intonation, careful attention to dynamics, breath control, diction (vocalists), articulation, and awareness of entire score (the connection between soloist and orchestra/pianist) should continue to improve as the semester progresses.

Professionalism during coaching sessions, juries, and performances.

Promptness

Respectfulness

Commitment to excellence at all times

No unexcused absences

I will not make up a coaching session unless notified ahead of time and there is a legitimate reason to miss.

I will make up a coaching session if my schedule causes the issue.

GRADING will be based on:

Preparation	40%
Improvement	40%
Professionalism	10%

Juries/forum/other performances 10%

Sample Standard Grade Scale Based on Percentages

A	B	C	D	F
A 93-100	B+ 87-89	C+ 77-79	D+ 67-69	F Less than 59

STATE AUTHORIZATION ⊕

State authorization is a formal determination by a state that Point Loma Nazarene University is approved to conduct activities regulated by that state. In certain states outside California, Point Loma Nazarene University is not authorized to enroll online (distance education) students. If a student moves to another state after admission to the program and/or enrollment in an online course, continuation within the program and/or course will depend on whether Point Loma Nazarene University is authorized to offer distance education courses in that state. It is the student's responsibility to notify the institution of any change in his or her physical location. Refer to the map on State Authorization to view which states allow online (distance education) outside of California.

INCOMPLETES AND LATE ASSIGNMENTS

All assignments are to be submitted/turned in by the beginning of the class session when they are due—including assignments posted in Canvas. Incompletes will only be assigned in extremely unusual circumstances.

PLNU COPYRIGHT POLICY ⊕

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.

PLNU ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY ⊕

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

PLNU ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY ⊕

While all students are expected to meet the minimum standards for completion of this course as established by the instructor, students with disabilities may require academic adjustments, modifications or auxiliary aids/services. At Point Loma Nazarene University (PLNU), these students are requested to register with the Disability Resource Center (DRC), located in the Bond Academic Center (DRC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2486). The DRC's policies and procedures for assisting such students in the development of an appropriate academic adjustment plan (AP) allows PLNU to comply with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act. Section 504 prohibits discrimination against students with special needs and guarantees all qualified students equal access to and benefits of PLNU programs and activities. After the student files the required documentation, the DRC, in conjunction with the student, will develop an AP to meet that student's specific learning needs. The DRC will thereafter email the student's AP to all faculty who teach courses in which the student is enrolled each semester. The AP must be implemented in all such courses.

If students do not wish to avail themselves of some or all of the elements of their AP in a particular course, it is the responsibility of those students to notify their professor in that course. PLNU highly recommends that DRC students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester about the applicability of their AP in that particular course and/or if they do not desire to take advantage of some or all of the elements of their AP in that course.

PLNU ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION POLICY⊗

Regular and punctual attendance at all synchronous class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent for more than 10 percent of class sessions (virtual or face-to-face), the faculty member will issue a written warning of de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation. In some courses, a portion of the credit hour content will be delivered asynchronously and attendance will be determined by submitting the assignments by the posted due dates. See Academic Policies in the Undergraduate Academic Catalog. If absences exceed these limits but are due to university excused health issues, an exception will be granted.

Asynchronous Attendance/Participation Definition

A day of attendance in asynchronous content is determined as contributing a substantive note, assignment, discussion, or submission by the posted due date. Failure to meet these standards will result in an absence for that day. Instructors will determine how many asynchronous attendance days are required each week.

SPIRITUAL CARE

Please be aware PLNU strives to be a place where you grow as whole persons. To this end, we provide resources for our students to encounter God and grow in their Christian faith.

If students have questions, a desire to meet with the chaplain or have prayer requests you can contact the Office of Spiritual Development

USE OF TECHNOLOGY⊗

In order to be successful in the online environment, you'll need to meet the minimum technology and system requirements; please refer to the Technology and System Requirements information. Additionally, students are required to have headphone speakers compatible with their computer available to use. If a student is in need of technological resources please contact student-tech-request@pointloma.edu.

Problems with technology do not relieve you of the responsibility of participating, turning in your assignments, or completing your class work.
