

Psychology Department Assessment Framework

Assessment Data Psychology Outcome 1.a. (Learn)

Learning Outcome:

Students will be able to identify the basic tenets of psychology.

Outcome Measure:

ACAT Nationally-Normed Examination of Psychology

Criteria for Success:

60% of our students will score in the 50th percentile or higher on the ACAT Psychology Subject Nationally-Normed Examination.

Aligned with DQP Learning Areas:

1. Specialized Knowledge
2. Broad Integrative Knowledge
3. Intellectual Skills/Core Competencies
4. Applied and Collaborative Learning
5. Civic and Global Learning

Longitudinal Data:

Percentage of PSY4020 Students Who Scored at the 50th Percentile or above on the ACAT Nationally-Normed Examination

		2016-17 (n = 52)		2017-18 (n = 54)		2018-19 (n = 79)		2019-20* (n=22)
Pass rate (N)		59.6% (31/52)		79.6% (43/54)		75.9% (60/79)		81.8% (18/22)

Percentage of PSY4000 Students Who Scored at the 25th Percentile or Lower on the ACAT Nationally-Normed Examination

		2016-17 (n = 52)		2017-18 (n = 54)		2018-19 (n= 79)		2019-20* (n=22)
Pass Rate (N)		25% (13/52)		0.0% (0/0)		20.4% (10/79)		13.6% (3/22)
Fall	Spring	20.8% (5/24)	28.6% (8/28)	0.0% (0/0)	0.0% (0/0)	12.5% (4/32)	18.2% (6/47)	Fall only

Conclusions Drawn from Data:

- *Due to the Covid-19 quarantine which led to remote classes in Spring 2020 for the entire university, only data from Fall 19 courses were evaluated.
- Students met the criteria for success. Relative to a nationally-normed sample, 81.8% of our students scored at or above the national ACAT average overall.
- We continue to be pleased with the utilitarian value of administering this nationally-normed instrument to students and will continue making use of the four category ACAT.

Changes to be Made Based on Data:

- We are pleased with the updated criteria for success. The previous criteria was “50% of our students will score in the 60th percentile or higher on the ACAT Psychology Subject Nationally-Normed Examination” and the new criteria is “60% of our students will score in the 50th percentile or higher on the ACAT Psychology Subject Nationally-Normed Examination.” It allows for better interpretation clarity and our students continue to meet both standards.
- The department moved the ACAT assessment from PSY400 to PSY4020 beginning Fall 2019 to consolidate all assessment efforts into a single capstone course. We will continue to evaluate the effectiveness of administering this assessment in PSY4020 in the future.

- Continue to collaborate with the instructor of PSY4020 to communicate to students that the Good Life Paper content will be used for Departmental Assessment and is not confidential to the instructor.
- Continue emphasizing practical applications during the assignment period, including sample applications both in-class and in earlier assignments.
- Continue revising course format and content to include a greater number of in-class and take-home exercises focused on the practical application of theoretical material to the students' own lives.
- Continue to incorporate the rubric in the syllabus.

80% of our students will score a 3 or higher on the Core Competency AAC&U Oral Communication rubric based on oral resume video project completed in PSY400.

Aligned with DQP Learning Areas:

1. Specialized Knowledge
2. Broad Integrative Knowledge
3. Intellectual Skills/Core Competencies
4. Applied and Collaborative Learning
5. Civic and Global Learning

Longitudinal Data: This is the third academic year that we have utilized the AAC&U Oral Communication rubric in Portfolium.

Conclusions Drawn from Data:

- *Due to the Covid-19 quarantine which led to remote classes in Spring 2020 for the entire university, only data from Fall 19 courses were evaluated.
- The criteria for success was met for all categories of the rubric and overall.

Changes to be Made Based on Data:

- Beginning in Fall 2019, the outcome measure was changed from the Oral Resume Video Project in PSY400 to the Vital Engagement Vocation Video Project in PSY4020. This allows all senior assessment to take place in our mandated capstone course. We will continue to evaluate the effectiveness of administering this assessment in PSY4020 in the future.
- We will continue to work with the instructor for our capstone course PSY4020 to ensure that this assignment integrates into our assessment plan and utilizes the current rubric.

Rubric Used: The AAC&U Oral Communication Rubric.

Evaluators are encouraged to assign a zero to any work sample or collection of work that does not meet benchmark (cell one) level performance.

	Capstone 4	Milestones		Benchmark 1
		3	2
Organization	Organizational pattern (specific introduction and conclusion, sequenced material within the body, and transitions) is clearly and consistently observable and is skillful and makes the content of the presentation cohesive. Note: Starting in 2017-18, the department chose to use the Good Life Paper to assess Informational Literacy instead of the PSY SR Research Paper.

Conclusions Drawn from Data:

- *Due to the Covid-19 quarantine which led to remote classes in Spring 2020 for the entire university, only data from Fall 19 courses were evaluated.
- We met our criteria for success for all categories and overall.
- In 2017-2018, the Information Literacy assignment we assessed was changed from the PSY SR Research Paper to the PSY 4020 Good Life Paper. Upon reflection, this change was successful. This change was made for the following reasons:
 - Some of the work on PSY SR Research Paper was based on our research courses that take place before senior year, while the new assignment takes place in our senior capstone course.
 - The Good Life Paper allows a melding of both research and application that is a higher standard than the literature review of our previous standard.
 - The Good Life Paper is both more robust and easier to grade than our previous measure.

Changes to be Made Based on Data:

- We will continue to critically evaluate all elements of this rubric in the future.

Rubric Used: We used the AAC&U Information Literacy rubric to assess our students in Information Literacy.

Definition

The ability to know when there is a need for information, to be able to identify, locate, evaluate, and effectively and responsibly use and share that information for the problem at hand. - The National Forum on Information Literacy

Evaluators are encouraged to assign a zero to any work sample or collection of work that does not meet benchmark (cell one) level performance.

	Capstone 4	Milestones		Benchmark 1
		3	2
Determine the Extent of Information Needed	Effectively defines the scope of the research question or thesis. Effectively determines key concepts. Types of information (sources) selected directly relate to concepts or answer research question.	Defines the scope of the research question or thesis completely. Can determine key concepts. Types of information (sources) selected relate to concepts or answer research question.	Defines the scope of the research question or thesis incompletely (parts are missing, remains too broad or too narrow, etc.). Can determine key concepts. Types of information (sources) selected partially relate to concepts or answer research question.	Has difficulty defining the scope of the research question or thesis. Has difficulty determining key concepts. Types of information (sources) selected do not relate to concepts or answer research question.
Access the Needed Information	Accesses information using effective, well-designed search strategies and most appropriate information sources.	Accesses information using variety of search strategies and some relevant information sources. Demonstrates ability to refine search.	Accesses information using simple search strategies, retrieves information from limited and similar sources.	Accesses information randomly, retrieves information that lacks relevance and quality.
Evaluate Information and its Sources Critically	Thoroughly (systematically and methodically) analyzes own and others' assumptions and carefully evaluates the relevance of contexts when presenting a position.	Identifies own and others' assumptions and several relevant contexts when presenting a position.	Questions some assumptions. Identifies several relevant contexts when presenting a position. May be more aware of others' assumptions than one's own (or vice versa).	Shows an emerging awareness of present assumptions (sometimes labels assertions as assumptions). Begins to identify some contexts when presenting a position.
Use Information Effectively to Accomplish a Specific Purpose	Communicates, organizes and synthesizes information from sources to fully achieve a specific purpose, with clarity and depth	Communicates, organizes and synthesizes information from sources. Intended purpose is achieved.	Communicates and organizes information from sources. The information is not yet synthesized, so the intended purpose is not fully achieved.	Communicates information from sources. The information is fragmented and/or used inappropriately (misquoted, taken out of context, or incorrectly paraphrased, etc.), so the intended purpose is not achieved.
Access and Use Information Ethically and Legally	Students use correctly all of the following information use strategies (use of citations and references; choice of paraphrasing, summary, or quoting; using information in ways that are true to original context; distinguishing between common knowledge and ideas requiring attribution) and demonstrate a full understanding of the ethical and legal restrictions on the use of published, confidential, and/or proprietary information.	Students use correctly three of the following information use strategies (use of citations and references; choice of paraphrasing, summary, or quoting; using information in ways that are true to original context; distinguishing between common knowledge and ideas requiring attribution) and demonstrates a full understanding of the ethical and legal restrictions on the use of published, confidential, and/or proprietary information.	Students use correctly two of the following information use strategies (use of citations and references; choice of paraphrasing, summary, or quoting; using information in ways that are true to original context; distinguishing between common knowledge and ideas requiring attribution) and demonstrates a full understanding of the ethical and legal restrictions on the use of published, confidential, and/or proprietary information.
