Could This Class Really Matter?

It is not your love that sustains your marriage, but from now on, your marriage that sustains your love.
Told to a couple on their wedding day by Dietrich Bonhoeffer in 1943.

The family you come from isn't as important as the family you're going to have.
Ring Lardner

To maintain a joyful family requires much from both the parents and the children. Each member of the family has to become, in a special way, the servant of the others.
Pope John Paul II quotes

To us, family means putting your arms around each other and being there.
Barbara Bush quotes

You don't really understand human nature unless you know why a child on a merry-go-round will wave at his parents every time around - and why his parents will always wave back.
William D. Tammeus quotes

One thing most people agree on is that the family is important. No matter how much money, fame, status, or power we acquire, it is our families that we treasure most at life's end.

This class is designed to explore how healthy families operate, and how unhealthy families can get better. This class will show you the common mistakes people make that undermine their odds of having great families. This class will matter to you because it can give you a map to becoming better partners, spouses, and parents.

PLNU Mission:

To Teach ~ To Shape ~ To Send

Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service becomes an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we aspire to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

Catalog Description:

Introduction to the normative stages and crises affecting families over the life span and to the major theories of family and marital psychotherapy. Emphasis on how various models work with relational systems to facilitate development through times of crisis and developmental transition. Also focuses on therapeutic issues of substance abuse and on legal issues involved in child, spousal, and elder abuse. Family developmental theories are applied to community organizations in order to assist students in understanding how system principles are used in community consultation.

The professor reserves the right to change the syllabus at his discretion.

Course Objectives:

- Expose students to theological ways of thinking about the family.
- Expose students to the importance of the family and impacts of divorce.
- Introduce the common theoretical orientations in family therapy.
- Introduce special topics such as substance abuse and child abuse.
- Expose students to community consultation models such as marriage education and pre-marital couple's preparation.
- Increase students' understanding of their own family dynamics.

Student Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course you will be able to...

- Describe seven family theories and their core concepts and techniques.
- Critique the impact of marriage, divorce, and cohabitation.
- Describe families from a theological perspective.
- Summarize marriage education in the areas of mate selection, premarital preparation, and divorce prevention.
- Compare concepts of family therapy to your own family.
- Predict possible impacts to your future family based on your own family analysis.
- These objectives will be achieved through your diligent study of the assigned readings, lectures given, videos shown, group presentations, and key written assignments.

Readings:

Our course will use two required books and one recommended book:

- Nichols, M., and Schwartz, R. (2014). Essentials of Family Therapy, 6th Ed. Pearson: Boston.
- Gottman, J. M. and Silver, N. (2015). The Seven Principles for Making Marriage Work: A Practical Guide from the Country's Foremost Relationship Expert.
- Supplemental readings accessed through Canvas.

Recommended book : Yoyo Dad 2: Dating Well in an Up and Down World. (Search Amazon for “Yoyo Dad”).

Course Credit Hour Information:

In the interest of providing sufficient time to accomplish the stated Course Learning Outcomes, this class meets the PLNU credit hour policy for a 3 unit class delivered over 15 weeks. It is anticipated that students will spend a minimum of 37.5 participation hours per credit hour on their coursework. For this course, students will spend an estimated 112.5 total hours meeting the course learning outcomes. The time estimations are provided in the Canvas modules.

Grading:

The final grade will be based on a combination of five exams, two papers, one book journal, and one final. Students may drop the lowest of the first five exams but must take the final. Students must take the final and turn in the Family Paper to pass the class.

The student will receive the higher grade between Z Score and Percentage Score grade calculations. A minimum of 50% is needed to pass the course.

Grades will be based on the Psychology departmental standards for upper division courses. The professor reserves the right to adjust the scale if needed. Students are expected to participate in discussions. In the event a student's final grade is within three points of the next grade, classroom participation will be considered in assigning the final grade.

All examinations except the final are non-comprehensive and will cover the text, lecture, and video material. The format of the examinations may consist of multiple choice, fill-in, short answer, and essay questions. The final is comprehensive. No make-up exams will be given without the prior approval of the instructor. If an exam is missed without an authorized excuse, that exam will be the dropped exam.

Final Examination Policy:

Successful completion of this class requires taking the final examination on its scheduled day. The final examination schedule is posted on the Class Schedules site. No requests for early examinations or alternative days will be approved.

Assignments:

There are three individual written assignments:

- The first written assignment is a detailed genogram of your family that extends at least three generations. This is worth 35 points. This project should have two sections. One section will show all family members in a genogram (and include important features such as marriage, separation, divorce, alcoholism, abuse, mental illness, etc.). On the genogram include a key that shows history of alcohol, mental illness, major health concerns, etc. Show this key even if your family does not have these issues so that it is clear you assessed the issues. A second section will show your immediate family and your parents and their parents in a structural chart (who is close to whom?). Please break the structural chart into pieces to show the specific relationships – not one large structural chart showing everyone at once.

- b. The second written assignment is the signature assignment of the course: a family/biography assessment. Using class lectures and readings, you will write an analysis of either your personal family (at least three generations) or another family you know extremely well. You may choose any theoretical orientation (or blend of orientations). 55 points / approximately 10-15 pages. Please label each of the ten sections.

Analysis should include the following ten sections:

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. A brief overview of the theory used. | 8. Think about how your family impacted you in good ways and not so good ways. What lessons do you wish to bring into your future family? Based on your family analysis and your previous romantic patterns, what do you need to guard against in your future romantic relationships? Ask someone who knows you well (not a dating partner) what they recommend you remember when you choose a mate and build a family. |
| 2. Introduce your family (who are the members?). What is the structure of the family (e.g., is it open, closed, close or distant? How did your parents get along with each other and their parents? How did you get along with them?). | 9. Based on your family and past relationships give tips to your current or future spouse about how to successfully be married to you. |
| 3. Strengths and weaknesses. | 10. When your own child is 25 years old, what do you hope he or she will say are the most important things he or she learned from you? What do you need to do now to help make that happen? |
| 4. Impact of gender and ethnicity. | |
| 5. Impact of finances and spirituality. | |
| 6. Experiences with death. | |
| 7. Intervene in your family using your theory. How would it be different? | |

C. The third assignment is a book journal on the Gottman book, The Seven Principles for Making Marriage Work. Write one page for each chapter (including the afterward) that consists of two parts: summarizing the key ideas, and giving your opinion of the material. You will have 12-14 pages total, but should think of this as a lightly graded journal, not a well-crafted paper (but spelling still counts!). An alternate assignment is that you can make a video where you teach Gottman's Seven Principles to a group of engaged couples. This should be creative, and each principle should be clearly described and explained. The length should be 5-10 minutes total, and you will upload the Youtube link on canvas. Either assignment is worth 40 points.

The requirements are as follows:

*Use 8 ½ by 11 paper, typewritten, on one side only.

*Place the title and your name on the top of the first page.

*Use double spacing and one inch margins. The Gottman assignment may be single spaced.

*All late papers lose 10% per week late; no papers will be accepted after the last day of classes (nothing is accepted during finals week).

Papers will be submitted electronically on Canvas in PDF format. The genogram assignment will be turned in during class.

State Authorization:

State authorization is a formal determination by a state that Point Loma Nazarene University is approved to conduct activities regulated by that state. In certain states outside California, Point Loma Nazarene University is not authorized to enroll online (distance education) students. If a student moves to another state after admission to the program and/or enrollment in an online course, continuation within the program and/or course will depend on whether Point Loma Nazarene University is authorized to offer distance education courses in that state. It is the student's responsibility to notify the institution of any change in his or her physical location. Refer to the map on State Authorization to view which states allow online (distance education) outside of California.

PLNU Copyright Policy:

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.

Academic Integrity and Behavioral Expectations:

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

This class will be conducted in accordance with the college student code of conduct and basic standards of academic honesty. It goes without saying that any forms of cheating, plagiarism, or other forms of academic dishonesty are not acceptable and will severely impact your grade and any future letters of recommendation. Is it really worth it? Part of my job is to help create a positive learning community. If you repeatedly have a negative impact on that community, I reserve the right to lower your final grade by one letter grade. Ultimately, everyone has to choose whether they will contribute or break down community, and I invite you to be a contributor.

Attendance is a critical component of this course. Much of the learning comes from class discussion and material not covered in the book. That is why the PLNU attendance policy will be closely followed. Please note that only Provost approved, university-sponsored activities are excused and personal reasons such as illness or family events are not.

Of course we all have personal reasons why missing class might be necessary, and so each student receives four personal absences. At the end of the semester, each unused absence will be converted into an extra credit point (yes, you can get four extra credit points simply by attending class each day.) Each unexcused absence or tardy beyond four will be minus three points. If absences are excessive, the student may be dropped from the class.

I am asking you not to use laptops:

I strongly recommend not using laptops in class. The reasons are three fold:

1. It is hard to not check other things, which impairs your learning. You most likely are not aware of the impairment, but the research is quite clear.
<https://www.tandfonline.com/doi/full/10.1080/01443410.2018.1489046>
2. Even if it doesn't impair your learning, it impairs others learning.
<http://www.sciencedirect.com/science/article/pii/S0360131512002254>
3. You write more but learn less. Writing your notes creates synthesis which increases your learning.

http://chronicle.com/blogs/linguafranca/2014/08/25/why-im-asking-you-not-to-use-laptops/?cid=at&utm_source=at&utm_medium=en

So I am asking you not to use laptops unless you need or strongly prefer a laptop to take notes. In that case talk to me and we will make that work.

Office Hours: Make appointments directly with the professor or see posted office hours on Google Calendar.

PLNU Academic Accommodations Policy:

While all students are expected to meet the minimum standards for completion of this course as established by the instructor, students with disabilities may require academic adjustments, modifications or auxiliary aids/services. At Point Loma Nazarene University (PLNU), these students are requested to register with the Disability Resource Center (DRC), located in the Bond Academic Center (DRC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2486). The DRC's policies and procedures for assisting such students in the development of an appropriate academic adjustment plan (AP) allows PLNU to comply with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act. Section 504 prohibits discrimination against students with special needs and guarantees all qualified students equal access to and benefits of PLNU programs and activities. After the student files the required documentation, the DRC, in conjunction with the student, will develop an AP to meet that student's specific learning needs. The DRC will thereafter email the student's AP to all faculty who teach courses in which the student is enrolled each semester. The AP must be implemented in all such courses.

If students do not wish to avail themselves of some or all of the elements of their AP in a particular course, it is the responsibility of those students to notify their professor in that course. PLNU highly recommends that DRC students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester about the applicability of their AP in that particular course and/or if they do not desire to take advantage of some or all of the elements of their AP in that course.

Tutoring: The PLNU Tutorial Center is available free of charge for all current, undergraduate PLNU students. It offers tutoring for most subjects, as well as for general help with paper editing, study skills, etc. The Tutorial Center is located on the south end of Bond Academic Center, next to the Study Abroad offices. Tutoring is available by appointment only, may be arranged in person at the Tutorial Center, over the phone at (619) 849 2593, or via email at TutorialServices@pointloma.edu

PLNU Attendance and Participation Policy:

Regular and punctual attendance at all synchronous class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent for more than 10 percent of class sessions (virtual or face-to-face), the faculty member will issue a written warning of de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation. In some courses, a portion of the credit hour content will be delivered asynchronously and attendance will be determined by submitting the assignments by the posted due dates. See Academic Policies in the Undergraduate Academic Catalog. If absences exceed these limits but are due to university excused health issues, an exception will be granted.

Asynchronous Attendance/Participation Definition

A day of attendance in asynchronous content is determined as contributing a substantive note, assignment, discussion, or submission by the posted due date. Failure to meet these standards will result in an absence for that day. Instructors will determine how many asynchronous attendance days are required each week.

Spiritual Care:

Please be aware PLNU strives to be a place where you grow as whole persons. To this end, we provide resources for our students to encounter God and grow in their Christian faith.

If students have questions, a desire to meet with the chaplain or have prayer requests you can contact the Office of Spiritual Development.

Use of Technology:

In order to be successful in the online environment, you'll need to meet the minimum technology and system requirements; please refer to the Technology and System Requirements information. Additionally, students are required to have headphone speakers compatible with their computer available to use. If a student is in need of technological resources please contact student-tech-request@pointloma.edu.

Problems with technology do not relieve you of the responsibility of participating, turning in your assignments, or completing your class work.
