PLNU COPYRIGHT POLICY

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.

PLNU ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university

Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

PLNU ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

PLNU is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all its programs, services, and activities. Students with disabilities may request course-related accommodations by contacting the Educational Access Center (EAC), located in the Bond Academic Center (EAC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2486). Once a student's eligibility for an accommodation has been determined, the EAC will issue an academic accommodation plan ("AP") to all faculty who teach courses in which the student is enrolled each semester.

PLNU highly recommends that students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester/term about the implementation of their AP in that particular course and/or if they do not wish to utilize some or all of the elements of their AP in that course.

Students who need accommodations for a disability should contact the EAC as early as possible (i.e., ideally before the beginning of the semester) to assure appropriate accommodations can be provided. It is the student's responsibility to make the first contact with the EAC.

PLNU ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION POLICY

Regular and punctual attendance at all synchronous class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent for more than 10 percent of class sessions (virtual or face-to-face), the faculty member will issue a written warning of de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation.

USE OF TECHNOLOGY

In order to be successful in the online environment, you'll need to meet the minimum technology and system requirements; please refer to the Technology and System Requirements information. Additionally, students are required to have headphone speakers, microphone, or webcams compatible with their computer available to use for any online or hybrid classes. Please note that any course with online proctored exams require a computer with a camera (tablets are not compatible) to complete exams online.

Problems with technology do not relieve you of the responsibility of participating, turning in your assignments, or completing your class work.

FINAL EXAMINATION POLICY

Successful completion of this class requires taking the final examination on its scheduled day. No requests for early examinations or alternative days will be approved.

---

COURSE SCHEDULE AND ASSIGNMENTS - SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS/ASSIGNMENTS

1. Profile in Leadership Presentation ( 50pts. )

Each student will be required to read assigned chapter in Soul Survivor. They will be required to present a 10-minute review of the leader they are assigned. The presentation will be to the class and a quasi-formal approach. Every week two students will be presenting on the same profile of a leader. Their leadership story needs to be translated to the student's real-world experience or a reference for their developing leadership style.

2. Weekly Reading Guide (130 pts.)

Each week the student is required to provide a review the assigned reading material. Students are required to submit hard copy on the Tuesday morning class in person. No late assignment submission will be allowed.

3. Quizzes: (280 pts.)

In order to pass this class you must demonstrate competency with the material found in the text. You must pass with a significant score on the 15-chapter quizzes given over the text material.

Please note: Seldom are grades determined by one or two big point totals, positive or negative, but are an accumulation of the body of work over a semester. Such is the case in the working world – seldom does an extraordinary day or a disastrous one make or ruin a career – it is the discipline of doing the best over time that is valued.

4. Group Activity (120 pts.)

Reflections are done by Team, however every team member must, I will be giving special attention to monitoring the submission for inclusion from every team member.

Leadership is not done in a vacuum. Reflections must include each members thoughts and an updating on their current status. Grading is done as a team and the contribution of a single member can be impact the grade of the team. Leadership will ensure all the members of the team contribute to the final result.

5. Midterm Exam: (100 pts.)

Date TBD. Test questions taken from text material. To be administered in class.

6. Final Written Group Project/Presentation: (50 pts.)

TBD. This assignment will be updated and shared with students in advance. Final requirement will be presentation based and involve assigned groups. There will be a peer evaluation for team member contribution to group assignments.

7. Final Exam: (100 pts.)

Given at the end of the course to assess the value added of the material in this course.

Important Note:

Engagement:

You are expected to come prepared to every class session and to actively participate in class discussions.

You are required to reflect upon and state your current status in relation to:

- The current reading, text and class.
- Comments on the Research presented.
- Activities and Exercises performed in/for class.
- Current status of the reading of the assigned books.
- Status of the Team.

Your approach should be from a leadership perspective – How am I doing? What am I doing? How will this relate to my career?

You may be asked to speak to any issue from the reflections during the next class. You should be prepared to respond. Notes are appropriate but extensive use of notes to answer questions detracts from the response.

Reflections are based upon the material and the work in the class just finished.

You are assigned to a Team for assignments, presentations, and discussion. This is a vital part of this class. Each team member will be awarding points to other team members at the end of the course. This will be a confidential assessment that I will only have access to. You are encouraged to be active and productive in your groups. Your overall grade will be impacted by your contribution and participation to your assigned group.

There are no plans for extra credit opportunities to be offered.

Being on time and in attendance will be critical for your grade. There are points attached to being on time and prepared for every class. There will be no excused absences (unless authorized in writing from the University). You will need to have your pc in every class. Unless noted, there are no allowed devices to be opened or utilized during class/lecture.

There should be no leaving or entering the classroom once lecture has begun. Any special circumstances please discuss with me in advance.
