“Tell me a fact, and I will learn; tell me the truth, and I will believe; but tell me a story, and it will live in my heart forever.”¹

“You think you know a story, but you only know how it ends.”²

Course Description and Purpose

This course is designed to open a conversation (that will hopefully last a lifetime) about the Old Testament (also known as the Hebrew Bible). The class provides an introduction to (1) the literature/content of the Old Testament in its social, historical, literary, and theological contexts; and (2) the critical study of the Old Testament. Along these lines, this course is designed as a journey, which serves to introduce the student to the basic content of the divine-human drama that unfolds within the pages of the Bible and to equip the student with the foundational tools and skills to continue the dialogue with that drama throughout his or her life.

Cognitive development will be encouraged through textbook readings, classroom discussions/lectures, and periodic examinations. Social development will be encouraged through small group discussions and exercises as well as through the relating of biblical concepts to contemporary social issues. Spiritual development will be encouraged through a dialogue with the dynamic faith of the Christian Scripture, a faith that grew out of the community of believers and continues to challenge and shape that community in contemporary settings.

Course Learning Outcomes (School of Theology and Christian Ministry)

The student who successfully completes this course will be able to:

- 1) Identify the historical contexts of the Old Testament.
- 2) Articulate the unity of the Old Testament in its canonical context within the diverse literature of the Christian canon.
- 3) Articulate and appreciate the ways in which the Bible, understood as given by divine inspiration, functions as the church's central norm for Christian discipleship, faith and practice; and,
- 4) Articulate the basic content of the books of the Old Testament and the methods appropriate to the interpretation of those books.

Course Texts

2. Brad E. Kelle, Telling the Old Testament Story: God's Mission and God's People. Nashville: Abingdon, 2017.

Course Requirements

1. Class Participation and Attendance: In this abbreviated journey through the story of the OT, class attendance is a necessity for optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent from more than 10 percent of class meetings (more than THREE [3] classes), the faculty member can file a written report which may result in de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent (more than SIX [6] classes), the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation. See Academic Policies in the Undergraduate Academic Catalog. In addition, each student is expected to participate actively in class by contributing to the discussions on the basis of his or her reading of the assigned material.

NOTE: Giving false information on the daily roll sheet (i.e. signing someone else in or having someone else sign you in) is an act of cheating that is equal to cheating on an exam. It will subject you to the academic dishonesty penalties of the university, including failure of this course and possible expulsion from the university.*

2. Readings: The OT is the primary text for this course. All readings are required. Please bring your Bible to class. It is important to keep up with the readings on a session by session basis or the information will quickly become overwhelming. A significant part of the student's grade comes from quizzes over the assigned reading material (see below).

3. Celebrations of Learning (a.k.a. Reading Quizzes and Mid-Term exam): There will be seven such celebrations (often called, erroneously, "quizzes" or "exams") that cover various reading assignments and associated class lectures. The dates of the quizzes and exams are listed on the course schedule and study guides will be provided.

4. “The Tribes of Israel”: Group Presentation on an OT Book: In addition to more traditional methods of presentation by the professor, our course will have a significant element of small group work and discussion during various class sessions. Rather than a course in which the professor simply imparts a massive amount of information for students to regurgitate, students will work together to read closely, think collaboratively, and formulate thoughtful responses to texts and issues (an additional, hoped-for benefit of such assignments is to invite the students into the practices of true liberal arts education, namely, academic reading, thinking, collaborating, and writing, rather than outcome-based standardized test taking). The major instance of such work will be that each student will participate in an assigned small group and make a class presentation on an assigned book from the OT (groups and books will be assigned in class). The presentation should be 10 minutes in length and follow the instruction sheet attached to this syllabus. Each group member will receive the same grade for the presentation. Due dates are listed on the course schedule

(NOTE: a one-page handout and powerpoint presentation must be emailed to the professor by noon on the day before your presentation).

5. Final Comprehensive “Celebration of Learning” (final exam): As the culmination to the semester, there will be a final, comprehensive “Celebration of Learning” (final exam). It will cover all the material from the previous celebrations of learning. A study guide will be provided in class. The final celebration will take place in the classroom on the scheduled day and time for the class’s final exam according to the university’s final exam schedule.

Course Policies

1. Grading: The student’s grade will be based on a combination of class participation, reading, assignments, and exams as follows:

Possible Points	Assignment
240 (40 pts each)	Celebrations of Learning (6 Reading Quizzes)
80	(Take-home) Mid-term Celebration of Learning
100	Group Presentation
75	Final Celebration of Learning (final exam)

Total: 495 (possible points)

*Grading Scale:	94-100 A	84-86 B	74-76 C	64-66 D
	90-93 A-	80-83 B-70-73 C-	60-63 D-
	87-89 B+	77-79 C+	67-69 D+	50s F

2. Attendance: In this abbreviated journey through the story of the OT, class attendance is a necessity for optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent from more than 10 percent of class meetings (more than THREE [3] classes), the faculty member can file a written report which may result in de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent (more than SIX [6] classes), the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university drop date or, after that date, receive the appropriate grade for their work and participation. See Academic Policies in the Undergraduate Academic Catalog. In addition, each student is expected to participate actively in class by contributing to the discussions on the basis of his or her reading of the assigned material. Please note that it is the student's responsibility to obtain notes, etc. from other students for any missed classes.

NOTE: Giving false information on the daily roll sheet (i.e. signing someone else in or having someone else sign you in) is an act of cheating that is equal to cheating on an exam. It will subject you to the academic dishonesty penalties of the university, including failure of this course and possible expulsion from the university.*

3. Laptops, iPads, etc.: Students are not permitted to use laptop computers, iPads, or similar devices in the classroom during the class sessions (if you have documented reason to do so from the Educational Access Center or other extenuating circumstances, please discuss with the professor).

4. Late Work Policy: In order not to be considered "late," all assignments must be submitted by the day and time listed as the due date. Grace Period: If the student "forgets" or otherwise misses an assignment, she or he may submit it up to one week after the due date for no more than half credit. No assignment will be accepted for credit of any kind more than one week after the original due date. (NOTE: Any extra-credit assignments must be submitted on or before the due date and will not be accepted late for credit of any kind).

5. Inclusivity: The School of Theology and Christian Ministry is committed to the equality of women and men. Recognizing that people have often used the English language in ways that imply the exclusion or inferiority of women, the school urges students, faculty, and staff to avoid sexist language in public discourse, in classroom discussion, and in their writings. This course will strive to practice sensitivity toward and foster respect for issues of inclusivity in matters of language and conduct. Each student should seek to enrich this inclusive atmosphere in both their class contributions and personal interactions.

6. Academic Honesty: Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. Faculty should follow and students may appeal using the procedure in the university Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

7. Academic Accommodations: If you have a diagnosed disability, please contact PLNU's Educational Access Center (EAC) within the first two weeks of class to demonstrate need and to register for accommodation.

8. PLNU Copyright Policy: Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.

Course Credit Hour Information

In the interest of providing sufficient time to accomplish the stated Course Learning Outcomes, this class meets the PLNU credit hour policy for a 2-unit class delivered over 16 weeks. It is anticipated that students will spend a minimum of 37.5 participation hours per credit hour on their coursework. For this course, students will spend an estimated 75 total hours meeting the course learning outcomes.

State Authorization

State authorization is a formal determination by a state that Point Loma Nazarene University is approved to conduct activities regulated by that state. In certain states outside California, Point Loma Nazarene University is not authorized to enroll online (distance education) students. If a student moves to another state after admission to the program and/or enrollment in an online course, continuation within the program and/or course will depend on whether Point Loma Nazarene University is authorized to offer distance education courses in that state. It is the student's responsibility to notify the institution of any change in his or her physical location. Refer to the map on State Authorization to view which states allow online (distance education) outside of California.

The Tribes of Israel:
GROUP PRESENTATION ON AN OT BOOK
Instruction Sheet

GOAL: The goal of this presentation is to give a substantial but overall introduction to your assigned biblical book, informed by modern biblical scholarship's work on the book. Think of your group as answering the question, "What is the book of x, what is modern biblical scholarship saying about it, and how does it fit into the overall story of the OT?" You have only 10 minutes, so you will want to plan your presentation carefully in advance, yet you should still give a thorough presentation and have creative elements (like powerpoint, illustrations, music or video clip, etc.).

1) PREPARATION: To research your presentation, you should draw from two sources:

- a) Read the introduction for your book in the New Interpreter's Study Bible (you should also consult the study notes in the Bible for some of the significant passages in the book)
- b) Find the commentary on your book in the multi-volume commentary series entitled The New Interpreter's Bible (these volumes are located in the reference room or stacks of the library). Read carefully (and use!) the Introduction to your book given in the commentary.

2) SUBMIT (EMAIL) TO PROFESSOR BY NOON THE DAY BEFORE YOUR PRESENTATION (bradkelle@pointloma.edu) Two Items:

a) Word document of a 1-page handout (single sided only) that has the most important points you want the class to remember from each of the 4 areas of your presentation listed below. I will make copies for you to distribute this to the class for your presentation.

b) Your powerpoint presentation

*Failure to email these by noon the day before your presentation will result in 4 points subtracted from your presentation for EACH missing element (possible 8 total)

3) PRESENTATION: For your 10-minute presentation, you should include at least the following elements:

- a. An introduction/survey of the major content, themes, structure, and distinctive elements of your book (i.e., what is this book and what is in it?)
- b. A survey of the major critical interpretive issues that have been and are discussed in modern biblical scholarship (these might include the date, setting, genre, etc.). Give the class a rundown on the various views on the major issues and provide what you take to be the best options on these issues (i.e., where did this book come from, how did we get it, what issues do scholars discuss about it?)
- c. Walk the class through one (maybe two, but watch your time!) passage(s) from your book that, in your mind, illustrates the main content, themes, and interpretive issues for the book
- d. How does your book fit into the overall story of God in the OT as we have presented it in this course (effort to restore creation, form a people as an instrument, etc.)?

*NOTE: don't forget to try to be creative (even fun!) in your presentation—use powerpoint, music or video clips, illustrations, whatever! But watch your 10-min. time limit.
