PLNU Mission

To Teach ~ To Shape ~ To Send

Point Loma Nazarene University (PLNU) exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service is an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we strive to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

Department Mission

As followers of Christ, our mission is to nurture servant scholars who critically and empirically evaluate social systems, cultural patterns, and basic human needs to constructively engage as agents of hope with individuals, families, and communities.

Course Overview - Importance of Practicum/Internship

The Social Work Practicum provides you the opportunity to increase your professional competence through direct supervised practice experience in a social work agency. The Practicum seeks to enhance your identification with social work values, ethics, and practices. The Practicum gives you with the opportunity to apply and integrate skills and theory in the context of generalist social work practice with professional supervision. You will use supervision and critical self-reflection to maximize the development of your skills as a professional generalist-practice social worker.

Social Work Practicum works intentionally with senior Seminar to create a culmination experience designed to transition you as a social work senior to the status of colleague with social work faculty and other professionals. This transition is marked by a blend of personal responsibility for independent learning; greater autonomy in development of a customized learning plan; and heightened accountability for demonstrating professional behavior and reflection.

NOTE: The Social Work Practicum Handbook for Students and Supervisors should be consulted for more detailed information.

Course Context

The Baccalaureate Social Work program is competency-based. Assignments, certificates, and other accomplishments must be documented in a professional portfolio. Production of material for inclusion in a professional portfolio occurs at various points throughout the program. Professionals in social work are often asked to be self-guided in accomplishing tasks over time. Completion of the portfolio is evidence that you are able to manage your time and activities to meet that expectation. You are responsible for compiling the evidence required. Please note, your portfolio may be reviewed by other professionals in addition to the faculty.

The Council on Social Work Education (CSWE), as the national accrediting body, has identified nine areas of professional competency for accredited programs. These are embedded in the education and practical training throughout the Social Work Program curriculum. Students and the PLNU program are evaluated on these core competencies. The Social Work Seminar series and the concurrent field Practicum are the culminating experiences for the program and comprise our program capstone. The areas of professional conduct and ten core competencies that are measured during the program are established by the CSWE. You will find these referenced as competencies or "EPAS".

PLNU incorporates the CSWE Competencies as listed below. A full description of each is found in the Practicum Handbook found in the Social Work Program section of the PLNU website. Additional detail can be found on your Senior Learning Plan template and in the Practicum Handbook 2024-25.

Content Warning

I acknowledge that each of you comes to PLNU with your own unique life experiences. This contributes to the way you perceive various types of information. In [class name], all of the class content, including that which may be intellectually or emotionally challenging, has been intentionally curated to achieve the learning goals for this course. The decision to include such material is not taken lightly. These topics include [list topics]. If you encounter a topic that is intellectually challenging for you, it can manifest in feelings of discomfort and upset. In response, I encourage you to come talk to me or your friends or family about it. Class topics are discussed for the sole purpose of expanding your intellectual engagement in the area of social work, and I will support you throughout your learning in this course.

Sensitivity/Trigger Warning*

I acknowledge that each of you comes to PLNU with your own unique life experiences. This contributes to the way you perceive several types of information. In Social Work Practicum, we will cover a variety of topics, some of which you may find triggering. These topics include trauma, abuse, health conditions listed on the DSM-5, varying life experiences, etc . Each time this topic appears in a reading or unit, it is marked on the syllabus. The experience of being triggered versus intellectually challenged are different. The main difference is that an individual must have experienced trauma to experience being triggered, whereas an intellectual challenge has nothing to do with trauma. If you are a trauma survivor and encounter a topic in this class that is triggering for you, you may feel overwhelmed or panicked and find it difficult to concentrate. In response, I encourage you to take the necessary steps for your emotional safety. This may include leaving class while the topic is discussed or talking to a therapist at the Counseling Center. Should you choose to sit out on discussion of a certain topic, know that you are still responsible for the material; but we can discuss if there are other methods for accessing that material, and for assessing your learning on that material. Class topics are discussed for the sole purpose of expanding your intellectual engagement in the area of social work, and I will support you throughout your learning in this course.

Incompletes and Late Assignments

All assignments are to be submitted/turned in by the beginning of the class session when they are due—including assignments posted in Canvas. Incompletes will only be assigned in extremely unusual circumstances.

Spiritual Care

Please be aware PLNU strives to be a place where you grow as whole persons. To this end, we provide resources for our students to encounter God and grow in their Christian faith.

If you have questions, a desire to meet with the chaplain or have prayer requests you can contact your professor or the Office of Spiritual Life and Formation.

State Authorization

State authorization is a formal determination by a state that PLNU is approved to conduct activities regulated by that state. In certain states outside California, PLNU is not authorized to enroll online (distance education) students. If a student moves to another state after admission to the program and/or enrollment in an online course, continuation within the program and/or course will depend on whether PLNU is authorized to offer distance education courses in that state. It is the student's responsibility to notify the institution of any change in his or her physical location. Refer to the map on State Authorization to view which states allow online (distance education) outside of California.

PLNU Copyright Policy

PLNU, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.]

PLNU Recording Notification

In order to enhance the learning experience, please be advised that this course may be recorded by the professor for educational purposes, and access to these recordings will be limited to enrolled students and authorized personnel.

Note that all recordings are subject to copyright protection. Any unauthorized distribution or publication of these recordings without written approval from the University (refer to the Dean) is strictly prohibited.

PLNU Academic Honesty Policy

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. For all student appeals, faculty and students should follow the procedures outlined in the University Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

Artificial Intelligence (AI) Policy

You are allowed to use Artificial Intelligence (AI) tools (e.g., ChatGPT, Gemini Pro 1.5, GrammarlyGo, Perplexity, etc.) in this course. Any work that utilizes AI-based tools must be clearly identified as such, including the specific tool(s) used. Please use the following sources to guide your citations when using AI.

MLA Style Center: Citing Generative AI

APA Style: How to Cite ChatGPT

Chicago Manual of Style: Citing Content Developed or Generated by AI

PLNU Academic Accommodations Policy

PLNU is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all its programs, services, and activities in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Students with disabilities may request course-related accommodations by contacting the Educational Access Center (EAC), located in the Bond Academic Center (EAC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2486). Once a student's eligibility for an accommodation has been determined, the EAC will work with the student to create an Accommodation Plan (AP) that outlines allowed accommodations. The EAC makes accommodations available to professors at the student's request.

PLNU highly recommends that students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester/term about the implementation of their AP in that particular course. Accommodations are not retroactive so clarifying with the professor at the outset is one of the best ways to promote positive academic outcomes.

Students who need accommodations for a disability should contact the EAC as early as possible (i.e., ideally before the beginning of the semester) to assure appropriate accommodations can be provided. It is the student's responsibility to make the first contact with the EAC. Students cannot assume that because they had accommodations in the past, their eligibility at PLNU is automatic. All determinations at PLNU must go through the EAC process. This is to protect the privacy of students with disabilities who may not want to disclose this information and are not asking for any special accommodations.

Language and Belonging

PLNU faculty are committed to helping create a safe and hospitable learning environment for all students. As Christian scholars we are keenly aware of the power of language and believe in treating others with dignity. As such, it is important that our language be equitable, inclusive, and prejudice free. Inclusive/Bias-free language is the standard outlined by all major academic style guides, including MLA, APA, and Chicago, and it is the expected norm in university-level work. Good writing and speaking do not use unsubstantiated or irrelevant generalizations about personal qualities such as age, disability, economic class, ethnicity, marital status, parentage, political or religious beliefs, race, gender, sex, or sexual orientation. Inclusive language also avoids using stereotypes or terminology that demeans persons or groups based on age, disability, class, ethnicity, gender, race, language, or national origin. Respectful use of language is particularly important when referring to those outside of the religious and lifestyle commitments of those in the PLNU community. By working toward precision and clarity of language, we mark ourselves as serious and respectful scholars, and we model the Christ-like quality of hospitality.

If you (or someone you know) have experienced a bias incident regarding language, you can find more information on reporting and resources at www.pointloma.edu/bias.

Sexual Misconduct and Discrimination

In support of a safe learning environment, if you (or someone you know) have experienced any form of sexual discrimination or misconduct, including sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, or stalking, know that accommodations and resources are available through the Title IX Office at pointloma.edu/Title-IX. Please be aware that under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, faculty and staff are required to disclose information about such misconduct to the Title IX Office.

If you wish to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting responsibility, you can contact Counseling Services at counselingservices@pointloma.edu or find a list of campus pastors at pointloma.edu/title-ix.

If you (or someone you know) have experienced other forms of discrimination or bias, you can find more information on reporting and resources at www.pointloma.edu/bias

PLNU Attendance and Participation Policy

Regular and punctual attendance at all class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent for more than 10 percent of class sessions, the faculty member will issue a written warning of de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university withdrawal date or, after that date, receive an “F” grade.

PLNU Course Modality Definitions*

1. In-Person Courses: These are courses that meet in person with the instructor and students in a physical classroom setting. With approval by the area dean, this may include up to 25% of qualified class interactions through a Learning Management System (such as Canvas).

In some courses, a portion of the credit hour content will be delivered asynchronously and attendance will be determined by submitting the assignments by the posted due dates. See Academic Policies in the Undergraduate Academic Catalog.

Loma Writing Center

The Loma Writing Center exists to help all members of the PLNU community cultivate transferable writing skills to engage their academic, professional, personal, and spiritual communities. We work toward this goal by conducting one-on-one consultation sessions, supporting writing education across the PLNU community, and participating in ongoing writing center research.

Getting feedback from the Loma Writing Center while you’re in the process of working on an assignment is a great way to improve the quality of your writing and develop as a writer. You are encouraged to talk with a trained writing consultant about getting started on an assignment, organizing your ideas, finding and citing sources, revising, editing for grammar and polishing final drafts, and more. For information about how to make in-person or online appointments, see Loma Writing Center webpage or visit the Loma Writer Center on the first floor of the Ryan Library, room 221.

COURSE SCHEDULE AND ASSIGNMENTS

Products and Activities - In addition to the items listed the portfolio Table of Contents, particular attention should be given to the following products:

1. Portfolio. Completion of items for the student portfolio in accordance with the portfolio check list. This includes a significant number of products. Please see list in Canvas and to e-mail. The senior Seminar sequence culminates in the production of a professional portfolio containing evidence of professional growth and development. The list of portfolio items is found at the end of this syllabus. Please remember that you have been collecting items for the portfolio since your SWK3070 class. This semester you will add items identified as "4070-4071" on the portfolio list.
2. Learning agreement: The learning agreement will serve as the contract between the student and the field supervisor. It will help form, shape, and outline your personal learning objectives within the context of the agency. The learning agreement is to be completed during the first week of the Practicum and will serve as a guide for the term of the Practicum, i.e. you don't have to do one at the beginning of the second semester. The agreement will be developed in consultation with the field supervisor and the director of field education.
3. Weekly logs: they must be submitted to Canvas by 11:59 PM each Sunday evening. Weekly logs are due whether or not you are engaged in Internship that week. During weeks when you are not in field placement, your weekly log should describe your activities and reflect on how these connect to you as a developing social worker. The reports are to include information and reflections on your work the previous week. Reports should include five main components:
 - the main activities of the week,
 - which learning plan objective you reflected this week
 - skills or knowledge applied while engaged in the activities,
 - professional reflection;
 - connection to faith: prayer and praises.
 - follow-upYou will reflect on your activities for the week and how they relate to social work and faith. Please include questions, insights, and comments on how your practice experience integrates with theory and content learned in the social work curriculum. Students are highly encouraged to further reflect on the relationship between Christianity and your field placement. How does your faith influence and integrate with the work you are performing at the agency? Your learning agreement will serve as your initial report.
4. Homework from each chapter of the required course workbook: It is to be independently completed in full and submitted to your portfolio as identified in the Course Modules.
5. Final evaluation of the Practicum (end of 4071 and finished with your 400 hours). The final evaluation of the Practicum is to recount your experiences in your field placement. Weekly reports can be used as source material for the final evaluation. Be sure to include references to social work literature and literature from other related fields to support your thoughts, questions, ideas, and reflections in practice. Please think critically about the relationship between your field experience and Christianity. It would also be wise to discuss how your experience relates to your learning agreement. The paper should not exceed 5 doubled-spaced pages, using a 12-point font. Page borders must not be less than 1 inch. All references must be in the format of the American Psychological Association 7th edition.
6. Planned Change Project: Social Work as a profession is interested in working for social and economic justice. Doing justice often requires planned and systematic change. Students are encouraged to seek opportunities to bring positive change in lives of the individuals, organizations, and communities where they work and live. You may identify an injustice where you work or live and engage in a process of change through meetings, written correspondence, or a paper chronicling the story of the change effort and your observations and reflections.

7. Preparation of resources and tools for professional use: Use these to demonstrate skills basic to the course.
8. Join a professional association or subscribe to a professional journal (if possible) during SWK4073.

Note: Activities and assignments may be conducted outside the classroom and may occur at times other than the regularly scheduled course time.

You are responsible for completing all assignments and for managing and completing your professional portfolio. A course grade will not be filed until the portfolio contains all the evidence identified for the component for which you are registered SWK4072 or SWK4073.

IMPORTANT

Some assignments require video or audio recording. Consent for peer review of these assignments is presumed unless the professor is otherwise notified in writing

Select sessions may occur off-campus during times outside the normal class session. As a person preparing for professional practice, you are expected to take personal responsibility for assignments and activities outside class hours.
