ASSESSMENT AND GRADING

Grades are assigned out of 1,000 possible points, BUT if points shift, the weighted percentage (%) remains:

Daily Work	150 points	(15%)	Unit Tests (3 x 100 pts.)	300 points	(30%)
→ 4 of 5 ✓ up Online Tests	└→ [80 points]
⊢ Attendance & Group	⊢ [70 points]
participation
10 (of 12) Vocab. Quizzes	150 points	(15%)	Final Vocabulary Exam	100 points	(10%)
10 Building Block Quizzes	100 points	(10%)	Final Exam (Comprehensive)	200 points	(20%)

Grade Expectations: Koinē Greek is a difficult language for students to learn, but most undergraduate Greek students who elect to take the course are especially motivated. The average grade in the class will likely be a B. Because of the heavy memorization component and quick pace of the course, quizzes will frequently incorporate the possibility for extra credit.

Letter grades will be determined according to the following scale:

Points Grade		Points	Grade
93-100%	Α	73-76%	С
90-92%	A-	70-72%	C-
87-89%	B+	67-69%	D+
83-86%	В	63-66%	D
80-82%	В-	60-62%	D-
77-79%	C+	59% and below	F

Daily Work (Assessed by Attendance/Group-Participation & Online ✓up tests): Understanding Greek relies on regular class attendance. Thus, 50 points of the student's grade will be awarded for on-time attendance. 30 points will be for regular group study meetings outside of class and group participation in class. The work that results in skilled translation of Greek is not glamorous. It is the day-in-day-out studying, reading the textbook, listening, participating, explaining to one another, being held accountable, and taking notes in class, thoroughly completing the workbook and translation assignments ("Wkbk" and "GNT"), and asking questions. Learning an ancient language like Greek is more like playing a sport or musical instrument than like learning chemistry or taking a literature class. Sure, you can cram or fake your way through one day's tasks—asking a friend for the answers is the equivalent to only doing push-ups when the coach's eyes are on you or playing an instrument quieter to divert attention—but there is NO faking the final result. In Greek, this requires the continuous accumulation of skills that results in a thorough understanding of grammar, vocabulary, and an ability to translate. To ensure that you are progressing in integrating your knowledge (not just scraping by day by day) you will have 5 online mini-tests (the up tests) for self-assessment and for a grade (top 4 will count). Reviewing the homework exercises from the Workbook, which correspond to the chapters in the Grammar (listed as "Mounce Ch. _"), will constitute a significant portion of class time each day. Evaluating, correcting, and asking questions are necessary steps in learning an ancient language. Each of us will mess up sometimes: that's how growth happens. Come prepared: Homework and textbook reading are nearly every day, according to the calendar below. *We will follow Track 2 in the textbook's sequence. Failure to keep up with homework daily will result in likely failure and frustration; Learning Greek requires daily work.

Fulfills Course Learning Outcomes [CLOs] #1-4.

- Vocabulary Quizzes (vocQ): To truly use a language, some things must be memorized. Greek is "old school" that way. You'll never have joy in reading Greek if you are constantly googling or fumbling with an app because you sort of get how it works, but don't have any words or grammar committed to memory. By the course's end, students will be responsible for every vocabulary word in chs. 4-24 of Mounce's Grammar (unevenly) divided into twelve weekly quizzes. Any vocabulary word from a previous chapter is eligible on a vocabulary quiz: Review is essential. *Only the student's top 10 vocabulary quiz scores will be kept.
- Building Block Quizzes (BBQ): Remember what I said about memorizing? The material covered in these quizzes is so basic to Greek translation that it must be mastered. Only perfect scores on building block quizzes will be accepted for a student's grade; this is the foundation for further Greek comprehension. 1 pt. extra credit is awarded to students who reproduce the building block perfectly on the first try. Retake-opportunities are provided to students who require them; students must pass the quiz within two weeks of the first quiz. There will be three Review Pop Quizzes over previous BBQ material later in the semester (partial credit will be awarded on these): Review is essential.
- Unit Tests: Due to the volume of material covered in an introductory language course, three unit tests will be administered, as outlined in the course schedule below. The logic behind frequent tests is twofold: (1) keeping students accountable to study and maintain Greek knowledge; (2) allowing the instructor to evaluate comprehension levels and to locate gaps in students' understanding for further focus. Fulfills CLOs #1-3.

Final Vocabulary Exam covers words from Mounce's Grammar chs. 4-24 in class Mon., Dec. 9. Fulfills CLO #2.

Final Exam: Any material covered in the course is eligible for inclusion on the comprehensive final exam. The GRK 2007 Final will be given Wed, Dec 18, 10:30 A.M. – 1:00 P.M.Fulfills CLO #1-4.

FINAL EXAMINATION POLICY

Successful completion of this class requires taking the final examination on its scheduled day. The final examination schedule is posted on the Traditional Undergraduate Records: Final Exam Schedules site. If you find yourself scheduled for three (3) or more final examinations on the same day, you are authorized to contact each professor to arrange a different time for one of those exams. However, unless you have three (3) or more exams on the same day, no requests for alternative final examinations will be granted.

SPIRITUAL CARE

Please be aware PLNU strives to be a place where you grow as whole persons. To this end, we provide resources for our students to encounter God and grow in Christian faith. If you have questions, a desire to meet with the chaplain or have prayer requests you can contact your professor or the Office of Spiritual Life and Formation.

STATE AUTHORIZATION

State authorization is a formal determination by a state that Point Loma Nazarene University is approved to conduct activities regulated by that state. In certain states outside California, Point Loma Nazarene University is not authorized to enroll online (distance education) students. If a student moves to another state after admission to the program and/or enrollment in an online course, continuation within the program and/or course will depend on whether Point Loma Nazarene University is authorized to offer distance education courses in that state. It is the student's responsibility to notify the institution of any change in his or her physical location. Refer to the map on State Authorization to view which states allow online (distance education) outside of California.

PLNU COPYRIGHT POLICY

Point Loma Nazarene University, as a non-profit educational institution, is entitled by law to use materials protected by the US Copyright Act for classroom education. Any use of those materials outside the class may violate the law.

PLNU RECORDING NOTIFICATION

In order to enhance the learning experience, please be advised that this course may be recorded by the professor for educational purposes, and access to these recordings will be limited to enrolled students and authorized personnel. Note that all recordings are subject to copyright protection. Any unauthorized distribution or publication of these recordings without written approval from the University (refer to the Dean) is strictly prohibited.

PLNU ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

Students should demonstrate academic honesty by doing original work and by giving appropriate credit to the ideas of others. Academic dishonesty is the act of presenting information, ideas, and/or concepts as one's own when in reality they are the results of another person's creativity and effort. A faculty member who believes a situation involving academic dishonesty has been detected may assign a failing grade for that assignment or examination, or, depending on the seriousness of the offense, for the course. For all student appeals, faculty and students should follow the procedures outlined in the University Catalog. See Academic Policies for definitions of kinds of academic dishonesty and for further policy information.

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE (AI) POLICY

The nature and structure of this class (paper quizzes and tests, ancient Greek) will not allow—nor make sense of—the use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) tools (e.g, ChatGPT, iA Writer, Marmot, Botowski).

PLNU ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

PLNU is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all its programs, services, and activities in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Students with disabilities may request course-related accommodations by contacting the Educational Access Center (EAC), located in the Bond Academic Center (EAC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2486). Once a student's eligibility for an accommodation has been determined, the EAC will work with the student to create an Accommodation Plan (AP) that outlines allowed accommodations. The EAC makes accommodations available to professors at the student's request.

PLNU highly recommends that students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester/term about the implementation of their AP in that particular course. Accommodations are not retroactive so clarifying with the professor at the outset is one of the best ways to promote positive academic outcomes.

Students who need accommodations for a disability should contact the EAC as early as possible (i.e., ideally before the beginning of the semester) to assure appropriate accommodations can be provided. It is the student's responsibility to make the first contact with the EAC. Students cannot assume that because they had accommodations in the past, their eligibility at PLNU is automatic. All determinations at PLNU must go through the EAC process. This is to protect the privacy of students with disabilities who may not want to disclose this information and are not asking for any special accommodations.

LANGUAGE AND BELONGING

Point Loma Nazarene University faculty are committed to helping create a safe and hospitable learning environment for all students. As Christian scholars we are keenly aware of the power of language and believe in treating others with dignity. As such, it is important that our language be equitable, inclusive, and prejudice free. Inclusive/Bias-free language is the standard outlined by all major academic style guides, including MLA, APA, and Chicago, and it is the expected norm in university-level work. Good writing and speaking do not use unsubstantiated or irrelevant generalizations about personal qualities such as age, disability, economic class, ethnicity, marital status, parentage, political or religious beliefs, race, gender, sex, or sexual orientation. Inclusive language also avoids using stereotypes or terminology that demeans persons or groups based on age, disability, class, ethnicity, gender, race, language, or national origin. Respectful use of language is particularly important when referring to those outside of the religious and lifestyle commitments of those in the PLNU community. By working toward precision and clarity of language, we mark ourselves as serious and respectful scholars, and we model the Christ-like quality of hospitality.

If you (or someone you know) have experienced a bias incident regarding language, you can find more information on reporting and resources at www.pointloma.edu/bias.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT AND DISCRIMINATION

In support of a safe learning environment, if you (or someone you know) have experienced any form of sexual discrimination or misconduct, including sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, or stalking, know that accommodations and resources are available through the Title IX Office at pointloma.edu/Title-IX. Please be aware that under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, faculty and staff are required to disclose information about such misconduct to the Title IX Office.

If you wish to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting responsibility, you can contact Counseling Services at counselingservices@pointloma.edu or find a list of campus pastors at pointloma.edu/title-ix.

If you (or someone you know) have experienced other forms of discrimination or bias, you can find more information on reporting and resources at www.pointloma.edu/bias

PLNU ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION POLICY

Regular and punctual attendance at all class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. If the student is absent for more than 10 percent of class sessions, the faculty member will issue a written warning of de-enrollment. If the absences exceed 20 percent, the student may be de-enrolled without notice until the university withdrawal date or, after that date, receive an "F" grade.

Course-specific Policy: New concepts and review of previous material, quizzes, review of Workbook and translation homework, and explanation of new material will constitute almost every class session. Student participation requires sharing translations and answering questions in class. Absences will directly impact the student's grade. Only Provost-approved absences will be eligible for make-up work. In this course, quizzes missed for non-school-approved reasons cannot be made up. Regular study outside of class is crucial for success in Greek. A minimum of 2 hours of study will be required preparation for each hour spent in class. Invest time in Greek learning daily.

USE OF TECHNOLOGY

Students may consider using certain types of technology to aid their learning outside of class, although be cautious. In class, the tools for learning Koinē Greek will remain much the same as they have for thousands of years: repetition, translation practice, and teacher-coached exploration of new verbal concepts. Students should bring their grammar, Greek NT, and workbook to each class session (and Greek New Testament often). If a student is in need of technological resources, please contact student-tech-request@pointloma.edu.
